

HOOVER STARTS ON COAST TRIP

Federal aid to West Told in Announcement He'll Vote at Palo Alto

The claims of our opponents, however loudly voiced, that California will contribute to the responsibility of interrupting that leadership of the nation which California itself has provided. Placed as Prospect of Voting at Home

"The improved situation in the country affords me the deep satisfaction of coming home to vote, not for the purpose of carrying on a political campaign amongst my neighbors, who are my friends, but to satisfy that proper instinct inherent in every American to cast his vote amongst his neighbors at his own home. I trust I may not be prevented from exercising this privilege."

The president spoke also of direct aid given to the Pacific coast by federal reconstruction agencies. He recalled that the Reconstruction Finance corporation had advanced funds for the San Francisco-Oakland bridge and for the bringing of Colorado river water into southern California. He added these "enterprises will finally expend upwards of $400,000,000 for the reinvigoration of the industries of California and the whole nation."

He recalled also that the National Credit association and the Reconstruction corporation at one time advanced over $1,500,000 to 439 banks in California, 62 in Oregon and 93 in Washington. In addition, he added, the government had expended or let contracts for projects during the last four years totaling $100,000,000 in California, $45,000,000 in Oregon and $50,000,000 in Washington.

In his tariff attack, Mr. Hoover quoted statements by Franklin D. Roosevelt at Seattle and Sacramento and asserted that "while our opponent is ignorant of the facts he reveals his hostility to the tariffs on Pacific coast products."

Mr. Hoover quoted numerous figures to show that if tariff barriers were lacking there would be "a flood of goods outside our boundaries from the north, the south, across the Atlantic and the Pacific."

He said New Zealand butter could be sold on the Pacific coast at less than 14 cents a pound while domestic grades now bring 22 cents a pound.

Willamette Valley Industry Mentioned
"Training and fire of Fresno and grapes of the Willamette and Santa Clara valleys," he said, "would sell in the common markets of the east at rates that would, despite the low level of present prices, reduce returns to those producers by nearly 50 per cent.

"The price of California wool in the Boston market is 38 cents today, whereas your Australian competitors could sell the same kind of wool there for less than 23 cents, and the difference is due solely to the tariff."

He said the Pacific coast fish industries had been confronted "with the gravest peril" as a result of depreciation in Japanese currency, and that other Pacific coast industries, such as canned vegetables, dried fruits, beans, pulp, iron and steel "may also be threatened with a similar peril."

Saying he had asked the tariff commission to investigate the situation, he added that "if the findings warrant, I shall at once increase the protection to these industries."

Discussing his administration's efforts to alleviate the economic situation, the president said over 30 measures had been initiated to sustain wages and employment and hunger and cold.

"Our opponents," he said, "at no time have proposed a single constructive measure to meet this emergency."

Wolf Ending 46 Years in Army

YANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Brigadier-General Paul A. Wolf, 64, commanding officer of the 5th United States infantry brigade and post commander at Vancouver barracks, was to leave here tonight for his home in San Antonio, Texas.

The general ordered home to await automatic retirement scheduled for January 1, is completing 46 years of active service in the army.

mission today had to do mostly with secondary highway requests in order to supply work for unemployed. Leslie Scott, chairman of the commission, spoke in frank terms when he told them they would consider the projects but that the commission had no money at this time nor would undertake any project which could not be completed with funds now available. Scott informed them he did not want any reference to "Scott's follies" in later years.

The largest contract let was on the Wolf Creek route in Clatsop county. The job called for grading of 3.8 miles of the Humburg mountain-ranger station section of the Wolf Creek highway. The Lades Logging company of Portland received the award at $156,330. The other Wolf Creek job, calling for 8.53 miles of grading on the Tillamook county line - Sunset camp section, was held pending approval by the bureau of public roads. J. A. Lyons of Portland was low at $190,330. The work will be in Washington county.

Three Contracts in This County Figure
Theodore Arenz of Portland was low bidder on the Barlow-Aurora section of the Pacific highway, 2.4 miles regrading and repaving in Clackamas and Marion counties, at $76,452. The bid was held pending approval of the bureau of public roads. Oscar Storass of Silverton will receive the Silver Creek Falls bridge award in Marion county at $3726 upon approval of the Marion county court. Cobbs & Mitchell company of Salem was awarded the reroofing of the highway department shops at Salem.

Other bids awarded late today or to be awarded within the next week include:

Valley Falls - Okerman ranch section of Lakeview-Burns highway in Harney and Lake counties, 32.2 miles gravel surfacing; Union Engineering company of Salem at $24,331.

Albany-Tangent section of the Pacific highway in Linn county, 4.8 miles of grade widening; Logan Construction company of Arlington, at $9808.

Newberg-McMinnville section of West Side Pacific highway in Yamhill county, 7.37 miles of regrading; J. A. Lyons, Portland, at $77,623.

Albany-DuRette of Salem were successful bidders on two bridge projects, one calling for two treaties on the Woodburn-Moila secondary highway in Clackamas county at $4720, and on three culverts and trestles on the West Side Pacific highway between Newberg and McMinnville in Yamhill county at $11,890.

TAMMANY

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the Democratic nominee for the Presidency, is shown in the plane which carried her from Atlanta, Ga., to Newark, N. J. Mrs. Roosevelt whiled away the hours in the air by knitting, just as if she were at her own fireside. She was greeted by a large gathering of her husband's backers on her arrival at Newark.

HUNGER MARCHERS START HOMEWARD

since their arrival in the capital, they turned in the petition bundle at the station, just as if it were a coat or bag. They received an ordinary receipt in exchange for it.

The police discovered what had been done and obtained the petition after making a request to railway authorities.

The only disturbance today involving "hunger marchers" was one in which they denied all responsibility. About 100 police were sent to a London county alms house to quiet a demonstration by inmates who were aroused because of extra food given to "hunger marchers" stationed there. The latter received the extra food from sympathizers. They denied any part in the demonstrations and said they had shared food with the regular inmates.

Roosevelt Will Visit Jersey in Campaign Jaunt

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt tonight extended his plans for winding up his campaign for the presidency in the New York City area to include an automobile trip tomorrow night into New Jersey.

Leaving his New York city home about 5 p. m. tomorrow, the democratic presidential candidate will drive through Jersey City and Newark before going to the Metropolitan opera house to speak to the Roosevelt for President club.

Rural Districts Swing to Hoover

A very definite swing to President Hoover is to be noticed in the rural districts in the last few weeks, George Fullenweider, president of the Oregon Dairyman's league, reported when here this week in the interests of the oleomargarine tax. Fullenweider said farmers were thinking long and hard on the situation and while they admitted conditions were distressing, the Roosevelt program, fully seen, was not appealing to them. Fullenweider said he had talked to many men who had changed their opinions on the campaign since Hoover opened up his fight.

Cox Says Change Only Safe Thing

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Declaring the "central crisis of this campaign" is "the waging of that confidence in politics and government now conspicuous on every hand," former Governor James M. Cox of Ohio said tonight "the one safe way out of our plight is to change—to throw out the management which has brought us to this pitiable pass."

"Nature in the Raw" is seldom MILD

THE JUGGERNAUT OF THE JUNGLE
"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the famous animal painter, Paul Bransom... inspired by the savage charge of the African rhinoceros crashing through the untamed jungle. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies—that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
