

TRAVEL MOVES TO NEW FARM

Franksters do Minor Damage at Scio; Social Gatherings Held

SCIO, Nov. 3.—The Frank Thayer family has moved from the property in Scio where they have lived for several years to their farm 10 miles east of Scio. The large farm which they vacated has been leased by Jess Rodgers for sheep pasture and the house is to be occupied by the Todd family. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Purdy and family who now live in the Price Neal house in Scio will move to the McKnight property, now occupied by the Todds.

Hallowe'en night in Scio was the most quiet of any in many years. With the exception of wood and junk of all sorts being placed in the middle of the street, no material damage was done. Asa Eastburn, proprietor of the Pay 'n' Save food market in Scio, has been confined to his home all of this week with a bad cold and an attack of heart trouble.

Entertains Club
Mrs. John Shimaneck was hostess to the "As You Like It" club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Additional guests besides the regular members were Mrs. Vilas Arnold, Miss Maxine Rhoda, Mrs. Lester Shimaneck and Mrs. Henry Shimaneck.

A shower for Mrs. M. H. Beal was given at the home of Mrs. P. H. McDonald Tuesday night. After Mrs. Beal had opened her many gifts the guests spent the evening playing bridge. George Signor of Dunsmuir, Cal., sang a number of songs, accompanying himself on the piano. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. M. B. Cyrus, Mrs. E. P. Caldwell, Mrs. John Dunsmuir, Jr., and June Cyrus.

Guests were Mrs. Fred Mespelt, Mrs. Dick Carleson, Mrs. June Papke, Miss Doris Klindt, Miss Mildred Gardner, Miss Doris Clark, Mrs. Birdell Sticha, Miss Doris Neptune, Mrs. Dean Morris, Mrs. Ohlmeier, Miss Doris Weddle, Mrs. Percy Schrank, Mrs. Ed Myers, Mrs. Rolla Shelton, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. Vilas Philippi, Mrs. J. D. Dunsmuir, Jr., Mrs. F. A. Callie, Mrs. Frank Gill, Mrs. Fred Blythe, Miss Rebecca Morgan, Mrs. Marie Cyrus, Mrs. E. P. Caldwell, the hostess, Mrs. McDonald, and the honor guest, Mrs. Beal.

Special Music Service
A special musical program was a feature of the evening services at the Scio Baptist church in Scio Sunday. A group of eight songs was given by the Christian Endeavor glee club, with solo parts by different members of the club. Mrs. Glen Thurston was the accompanist and Mrs. Ernest Ralston director. Members of the glee club are Mrs. Mackenzie Calloway, Miss Nora Sims, Mrs. Joe Sandberg, Miss Genevieve Sims, Miss Jerry Rodgers, Miss Virginia Turnidge, Mrs. Victor Loucks, Miss Lorena Thurston, Mrs. Shelton, Ray Thurston, Mackenzie Calloway, Glen Thurston, Max Long, Leonard Luckenbach and Rev. Victor Loucks, pastor.

Miss Mary Slicka who has been very ill at her home here, is said to be still in a discouraging condition. J. N. Weddle of the Scio telephone office, who has been crippled with rheumatism for many years, has been very sick for the past two weeks.

WOMEN LISTEN TO POLITICAL SPEECH

WOODBURN, Nov. 3.—Avery Thompson of Salem addressed the Woodburn Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at its regular meeting, held in the social rooms of the public library. Mr. Thompson gave an interesting speech concerning the coming election, explaining in detail the various measures to be voted upon at that time. C. J. Espy was scheduled to speak but was unable to keep the appointment. Espy introduced the speaker.

Mrs. A. E. Austin gave a report of the convention of women's clubs for the third Oregon district, held recently in St. Helens. Decision was reached to again sell the stamps put out by the Oregon Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. Mrs. Mabel Nendel, president, will appoint committees at a later date.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. S. W. Maupin, Mrs. J. J. Hall and Mrs. Maud Moehl. Delicious refreshments were served by members of the hospitality committee, which included Mrs. H. L. Gill and Mrs. A. E. Austin.

Endeavor Society Holds Jolly Party at Robertson Home
TURNER, Nov. 3.—The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church numbers about 20, with Ruth Gilstrap president. The group meets regularly and working on a number of helpful projects. They and a few guests enjoyed a Hallowe'en masquerade party Monday night at the home of A. E. Robertson. Hallowe'en was the motif for decorations with the same note carried out in games and also used at the lunch hour.

Present were Ruth and Marjory Gilstrap, Marjory and Alice Fowler, Helen and Helena Witzel, Anna and Edna Johnson, Gwendolyn McCully, Margaret Robertson, Barbara and Zelma Goodwin, Kenneth and Louis Fowler, Herbert Briggs, Albert Jensen, Harold Fowler, Carl Bernard, Bud McCully, John Hawk, Albert Robertson, E. J. Gilstrap, O. F. Fowler and A. E. Robertson.

Dallas Students Cast Close Vote, But Give Roosevelt Wee Margin

DALLAS, Nov. 3.—A straw vote taken at Dallas high school Wednesday showed that the school was fairly evenly divided on most of the candidates. In the choice of national officers Roosevelt carried the school by seven votes. He polled 140 to 133 for Hoover.

In the state offices the results were as follows: Senator, Walter B. Gleason 73, Frederick Steiwer 189; representative from first district, James W. Mott 186, Harvey G. Starkweather 82; secretary of state, Hal E. Hoss 201; state treasurer, Rufus C. Holman 189, J. W. Maloney 85; attorney general, Alfred P. Dobson 88, I. H. Van Winkle 192.

The vote for district officers was: State senator from ninth district, George W. Denman 172, J. N. McFadden 108; representative from 10th district, Grove A. Peterson 93, Dean H. Walker 201. Results in the county group: Commissioner, G. W. Curtiss 166,

C. C. Gardner 192; sheriff, T. B. Hooker 203, Robert H. Walker 103; clerk, Hugh G. Black 117, Carl S. Gray 179; treasurer, W. A. Boydston 144, Ernest A. Hamilton 157; assessor, Ed G. Dunn 133, Fred J. Holman 168; school superintendent, Josiah Willis 190, Anne G. Dashiell 107.

In the constitutional amendments the bill for moving university, normal and law schools and establishing junior college lost, 243 to 49.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY
WALDO HILLS, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Harold Roop was hostess to a group of youngsters Monday after school honoring her little daughter, Edna Mae on her birthday. Guests were Doris and Kenneth Towns, Mabel Longdorf, Teddy, Norma and Blain Finlay, Doris Moseng, Junior, Oliver Joy and Edna Mae Roop.

SILVERTON, Nov. 3.—Junior high school home rooms enjoyed a Hallowe'en party following the regular scheduled work. Apples and candy assisted in giving enjoyment to home rooms seven and three, which observed the holiday together.

Harvey Christenson was master of ceremonies for room seven and Jimmie Richards was in charge of room three. Billie Nelson entertained with acrobatic dance numbers, Dorothy Parker with a song, Marjorie Iman gave a tap dance and Martin Coos told a ghost story.

Room seven is interestingly decorated with flags and streamers as a part of the project "Knowing Our Country," now being studied. The scouts, Ruth Nelson, Elda Lehman, Marjorie Iman, Erstan Matheny, John Bennett, Walter Morgan, Jimmie Anderson, Martin Coos and Don Christenson are assisting in the programs to be given next week.
