

COME FOR DRY RALLY
 STAYTON, Nov. 3.—Among those from here who attended the anti-dry rally held at the Salem armory Tuesday night were: Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Schaefer, Rev. W. H. Lyman, Mrs. Thelma Poole, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Foster, Rev. and Mrs. D. George Cole, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rowe, Prof. and Mrs. H. E. Tobie, Mr. and Mrs. Church, Mrs. Martha Brown and Mrs. Alec Harold. Having heard Dr. Dan Folling over the radio many were quite disappointed that he had been unable to be present. However the address by Dr. Pennington was most appreciated.

AUTHOR SPEAKS TO WOODBURN CLASSES

WOODBURN, Nov. 3.—A. B. ZuTaverna, a well known author of textbooks and informative works on economic and business subjects, visited Woodburn high school Wednesday and gave interesting talks, one before the commercial club members and the other for the entire student body. In his address to the commercial club he dwelt upon frauds and how to avoid them. He spoke at length upon the famous Ivar Hreuger and Instill cases. In his address to the student body Mr. ZuTaverna told how to manage incomes and business. He discussed economic changes and their causes. The two chief causes, he said, are new inventions and the rapidly with which people change their minds. Mr. ZuTaverna is the author of a textbook now being used by freshman students taking elementary business training.

BARTEL BADLY BURNED
 MACLEAY, Nov. 3.—Irrie Bartel, who was badly burned a few days ago, is still confined to the Willamette sanitarium. While emptying gasoline from a large drum into a five-gallon can Mr. Bartel spilled some of the gasoline. He was working by the light of a lantern, the heat of which caused the gas to ignite. His body, from just below the hips down, was very badly burned.

The largest enrollment since 1926 marked this year's opening of Lander college, when 261 young women entered the institution for the current term.

The Following Letter...

written to Classet and Devers of Portland, Coffee roasters second to none in the whole country, won for the writer a Beautiful new Norge Refrigerator. The letter as you can see states in very understandable words, just how she finds the quality of merchandise and service at Busick's. We could not say more.

THE LETTER:

Consistently courteous treatment in the store and over the phone—from manager, clerks' right down to the delivery boys—makes my trading at Busick's a continual source of Genuine satisfaction. This unexcelled service truly typifies the reliable goods carried—and from among these, I purchase, then thoroughly enjoy Golden West Coffee.
