

PROPERTY RIGHTS
THEME FOR WOMEN

AURORA, Nov. 3.—Of great interest to women was the meeting of the Aurora Woman's club, held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Evans, with Mrs. Frank Miller assistant hostess. Robert M. Afton, first assistant trust officer of the First National bank of Portland, and Preston Rhoner, instructor in the Woodburn high school, spoke to a good sized audience on women's property rights according to the laws of Oregon.

Both talks were most enlightening and in some cases startling, and caused those present to become more familiar with the laws, especially those concerning the death of heads of families, partnerships and other vital points. An instructive round table discussion followed.

Mrs. G. J. Chereh gave a piano number and Mrs. E. E. Bradt gave the highlights of the Marion county federation meeting held at Woodburn.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Sadler November 16. Mrs. U. Miller will be associate hostess.

Girls, Look These Boys Over Before
Any 'Yes' is Said

STAYTON, Nov. 3.—Without a doubt the boys of the home economics class of the Stayton high school should be in demand as future husbands. Since the class was organized they have been learning to cook various things.

Tuesday morning they cooked a breakfast, with Glen Bowman as the manager. Oranges were prepared and served in several different ways, and there were muffins as well as a choice of three kinds of cereals and coffee.

What wife would not like to find such a delectable breakfast awaiting her when she arises?

away she visited San Francisco and other interesting cities in that section of California. She reports that the weather was ideal and it is somewhat hard to again encounter Oregon rains. Miss Dorothy Rowe, who is a junior at Oregon State college is expected home for a visit over the weekend.

Non-Partisan Rally Gets Keen Interest

Julius Kraus of Victor Point and Mrs. Kath Haberly arranged the meeting, and Mrs. Haberly presided.

Second High School

STAYTON, Nov. 3.—The second of the high school parties was held at the club house on Tuesday night with about 50 present. John, Dr. and Mrs. Beauchamp, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Norby and Mr. Andrew Ferry. These parties are proving most popular.
