Luncheon Meeting Proves a Big Success

The Salem meeting of the Daughters of Founders and Patriots at the Marion hotel Wednesday proved to be a delightful and productive meeting.

Guests gathered for luncheon at one o'clock at the Marion hotel. The table was artistically arranged in autumnal colors with chrysantheums forming a low centerpiece and at either end of the table green tapers in crystal holders completed the decorative note.

Covers were placed for Mrs. James A. Brockway, Mrs. Earl C. Bronaugh, Jr., and president of the organization, Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Mrs. Harry C. Clair, Mrs. David Foulkes, Mrs. Octave J. Goffin, Mrs. Herbert A. Hale, Mrs. James H. Huddleston, Mrs. L. T. Newton, Mrs. John F. O'Donnel, Mrs. J. Thorburn Ross and Mrs. Roy S. Stearns all of Portland; Mrs. Jacob Lynn Shumaker of McMinnville; Mrs. Joseph E. Sibley of Dallas; from Salem, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Mrs. W. E. Johnson, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Mrs. John H. Gallagher, and special guests were Mrs. Davis of Seattle; Mrs. Clark of Portland; and Mrs. Lott of McMinnville.

Following the luncheon the group went to the home of Mrs. Steeves where a short business meeting was held. It was decided that the next meeting would be held in Portland in January, time and place to be announced later.

A program of more than ordinary interest was given at the conclusion of the business meeting. Mrs. Russell Catlin gave the historical derivation of the American's creed; Mrs. Sibley very entertainingly and comprehensively reviewed the life of Washington's mother; Mrs. B. L. Steeves read a description of the appearance of George and Martha Washington following their marriage and showed a picture of the place. Mrs. W. D. Johnston gave some interesting sport readings.

Aurora—Birthdays anniversaries have been the inspiration for several interesting parties recently. On Sunday Mrs. Anna Beck, a gracious matron, was honored by the family group with a delightful birthday dinner at her residence. Covers were placed for Mrs. Anna Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Beck and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Barbara and Richard Pierce and Mrs. Robert Hendricks all of Salem, Mrs. Elizabeth Kraus, Mrs. Louise Erbesland and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grim of this place.

Wednesday afternoon a number of Mrs. Beck's friends called upon her and gave her a pleasant surprise. One interesting feature was the singing of old colony songs at intervals and at the supper table. In colony times voices were trained by an expert music master as music took a prominent part in the lives of the colonists. There are few left, able to gather for the delightful afternoons of song and sociability.

Present on this occasion were Mrs. Anna Beck, Mrs. William Kraus, Mrs. Elizabeth Kraus, Mrs. Robert Hendricks, Mrs. Lou Erbesland, Mrs. George Gooding, Mrs. Christina Kraus, Mrs. Kate Beck, Mrs. A. W. Kraus, Mrs. J. W. Sadler, Mrs. B. F. Giesy, Mrs. Arthur Kiel and Mrs. Walter Grim.

Woodburn—Miss Pauline Nelson was hostess to a number of her friends Monday night at a Halloween party given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald B. Smith.

Those present were Margaret Mochel, Freda Nelson, Floris Nelson, Margaret Martin, Beatrice Donaldson, Mary Alice Conyne, Kathleen Shorey, Maude Martin, Peggy Shorey, Helen Woodfin, Dorothy Koehler, Katherine McCormack, Lois Proctor, Harry Jackson, Lawrence Koch, Ben Reiser, Don Vance, Leslie Eppers, Lyle Skiller, Henry W. Urster, James Cooper, John Kinns, Carl Lendaken, Ed Oberst, Steve Kraus, Carroll Olson, Pauline Nelson, and Dr. and Mrs. Smith and children.

Hazelwood's Stresses Flier Requirements

SILVERTON, Nov. 3.—At the regular Tuesday assembly of the junior high school Lieut. W. A. Hazelwood of the Evely Aircraft corporation of Salem was the principal speaker. He told of the army flier, informing the students that he had to have two years of college training and stressed the high requirements which must be met. The requirements in the commercial flying corporations are not so high as in the army.

BEEHIVE PROGRAM FRIDAY
HOWELL, Nov. 3.—Bruno Ruef has rented his farm of 180 acres to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Moore, former residents of the Altie district. The Beehive club will hold a program at the schoolhouse Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Noble Duke, who have been here visiting Mr. Duke's brother and family, have left for their home in Los Angeles.

EDITOR ALEXANDER ILL
STAYTON, Nov. 3.—E. D. Alexander is still confined to his home with a bad cold and once again the job of getting out the Stayton Mail falls upon A. K. Lulay, assisted by Mrs. G. F. Korinek.

Senior B. Y. P. U. Has Party

The senior B. Y. P. U. of Calvary Baptist church had a Halloween party at the home of one of the members, Miss Ruth McAllister, Monday night. Guests were greeted by a ghost and directed through the "witches cave" where there were many weird objects and a fortune teller's den. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and listening to Halloween stories, after which cider and doughnuts were served.

Members present were Helen and Velma Alexander, Carol Stoddard, Jean McElhinney, LaVina Buikry, Opal Brown, Florence Foster, Doris Schunke, Lois and Eva Cochran, Ruth McAllister, Jack Billeter, Ronald Adams, Bud Williams, Warren Stoddard, Roy and Ray Warren and Elmer and Marvin Amundson.

Club Entertained At Kirk Home

One of the last clubs to begin its season is the Piety Hill club, which met Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Kirk with Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. W. P. Fowle and Mrs. Kirk as hostesses.

Autumn with its warm red colors was carried out in the decorative note about the guest rooms. Mrs. W. C. Hawley was a special guest for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rush accompanied by Mrs. F. E. Rush will leave Sunday for three weeks to be spent in California. Mrs. F. E. Rush will visit in San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Rush will go on farther south.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Alden are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter born Thursday morning at the Bungalow Maternity home. The wee maid had been named Alice Jane Alden.

Ambitious Project By Drama Guild

"The Prodigal Son," an adaptation from the oratorio by Arthur Benson, will be presented by the Drama guild of the First Methodist church November 27, according to a decision made at their regular meeting Wednesday night. There are four scenes; The father divides his goods; the son repents, and the reconciliation. Most of the action takes place in the Hebrew palace of the father and the stage-setting group under the direction of Blanche Gretzenberg is starting work on an elaborate set. The costumes group under the direction of Mrs. Ronald Craven and Helen Breithaupt, is beginning a study of Hebrew costumes so that costumes will be in keeping with the setting and the time of the action.

The chorus choir of the church under the direction of Prof. Cameron Marshall of Willamette university will work with the Drama guild in this production. There will be both solo and chorus work.

As a feature of the worship training class being conducted in the First Methodist church Monday night the guild will present under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Rahe, a dramatization of the hymn, "Are Ye Able," by Earl Marshall. Miss Eleanor Moore, accompanied by Velleda Ohmart will sing the hymn, while Hazel Shutt, Betty Elison, Hannah Eymann, Wilburn Swafford and Everett Lisle present the pantomime.

Jean Marcelle Donaldson entertained with a Halloween party at her home on Marion street Saturday night. Halloween decorations were used and appropriate games were placed, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Guests were Margaret Jean Southwick, Dorothy Holman, Erna Retick, Glory Allgood, Marilyn Zellers, Jean Burrell, Laura Retick, Margaret Ann Fisher, Patsy Burrell, Rose Mary Billings and Dolores Moeller.

Charity Ball to be Gala Event of Tonight

Tonight Spain will hold sway over Salem guests in great numbers at the army which time the Lions club will be hosts for the first "charity ball" to be sponsored by them and which the club intends to make an annual event of the early winter social season in Salem.

"A Night in Spain" will be the theme of this gala event the proceeds from which will go toward the charity work of the club and its Christmas cheer fund for this winter.

Enthusiasm is high and society is taking to the idea with relish. Dinner parties are forming part of the social atmosphere of the dance and no end of troupes are meeting to attend the affair in parties.

Many are coming in costume but this is not necessary and there will be many who are not. Those who desire to come in formal dress will fit comfortably into the picture which will be observed from the balcony. The balcony will be fitted with chairs and will accommodate many who do not dance but who do like to observe gay parties at play.

Excitement, fun, novelty, music, all will lend color and enchantment to the old army tonight and those who frolic will do so with the comfortable knowledge that the money spent will go to give joy and comfort to those in need.

Priscilla Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr., entertained members of the Priscilla club at her home Thursday afternoon. An informal afternoon of sewing and conversation was enjoyed until the tea hour.

Members include Mrs. A. T. Wain, Mrs. J. B. Craig, Mrs. C. M. Epley, Mrs. W. S. Mott, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. Fred Steusloff, Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mrs. Walter Bachner, Mrs. Kittie Graver, Mrs. George Dunford and Mrs. Fry.

Mrs. Harry Hawkins Compliments Club

A pretty luncheon followed by an afternoon of contract bridge was that with which Mrs. Harry Hawkins complimented her club at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. T. A. Livesley and Mrs. William Boost were special guests for the afternoon.

A large delegation from Marion Post and its auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars will go to Albany tonight to be present for the meeting of Linn post and its auxiliary.

Bride-Elect Honor Guest for Bridge

Among the pretty affairs of the week was the bridge shower for which Mrs. Nell Valck and Miss Heloise Schwabbauer were hostesses Thursday night at the latter's home, complimenting Miss Arlet Howell, whose marriage to E. M. Van Fleet will be an event of the near future.

Autumn shades in chrysantheums and sinias made lovely bouquets for the guest rooms and the service table at the supper hour was a charming study developed by centering the table with a crystal bowl filled with autumn fruits and by placing at either end of the table crystal holders containing softly burning yellow tapers.

Cards were in play until a late hour. Just before serving a gift shower complimented the guest of honor.

Those bidden to honor Miss Howell by Mrs. Valck and Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Clifford Parker, Mrs. Karl Peters, Mrs. Delbert Schwabbauer, Mrs. Floyd Goode, Mrs. Wynne Grier, Miss Agnes Bayne, Miss Doris Bacon and Miss Amanda, and Miss Emma Dell Schwabbauer.

Birthday Party Compliments Maid

Miss Myrtle Potter was surprised at her home Wednesday night when a group of friends gathered in honor of her 18th birthday. She received many beautiful presents, and games were played until late hour when luncheon was served.

Present were Mildred Abbott, Helen Page, Marguerite Brisco, Goldie Weathers, Evelyn O'Leary, Clara Cross, Helen Malay, Clara Wyatt, Waive Fattler, Donald Chapel, Earl Weathers, Billy Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Gertrude Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Potter.

Mrs. Homer Goulet Is Club Hostess

The Town and Country club enjoyed one of its regular meetings at the rural home of Mrs. Romeo Goulet Wednesday. Mrs. Goulet was hostess for an attractive 1 o'clock luncheon and this was followed by an afternoon of contract bridge.

Additional guests were Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., and Mrs. W. H. Dancy. Mrs. Smith, a recent bride, was presented with a special remembrance and Mrs. Dancy held high score for cards.

Independence—The Girls Letter club of Independence high school held a potluck dinner party at the home of Beryl Kelly Wednesday evening. Cards, bingo and other games were played. Later they danced. Those attending were Vera Ramey, Ruth Romey, Beryl Kelly, Mildred Mattison, Olga Sverson, Gladiola Newton, Mildred Burch, Ruth Raymond, Dorothy Yoast, Miss Dorothy Young, advisor, was also present.

Chapter G. Enjoys Excellent Meeting

A delightful afternoon spent in appreciation of Russian music was enjoyed by members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. Slatorhood Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. A. Sprague. Song and instrumental interpretation interpreted the music of this interesting people, the life of which is forming the study topic of the chapter this year.

Emory Robson gave an interesting presentation on the piano; Wendell Robinson sang a group of delightful Russian songs, and Mary Thomas Hendrick interpreted their music in a violin number. Mrs. A. A. Schramm played the accompaniments for the latter two.

In the tea hour Mrs. Sprague was assisted by Mrs. Schramm and Mrs. Ina Hughes.

Special guests were Mrs. A. Reeves, Mrs. W. D. Smith and Mrs. Mary Rauch of Chapter A. B., Mrs. Martha Schmitt, Mrs. T. F. Roberts, Mrs. L. L. Laws, Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert and Mrs. Grover Birthelet.

Club Observes 12th Anniversary

Hubbard—Mrs. Edna Mack entertained the Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at her home. It was the club's 12th birthday. Lorena Silke and Meta Friend were elected to membership in the club. Sadie Scholl read the report on the County Federation at Woodburn prepared by Ida Garland.

A discussion on newspaper clipping was led by Sadie Scholl and Cora Smith. Mrs. Scholl stressed the fact of the age of the Oregon Statesman, which was begun in 1851, being the second oldest in the state. "At Old Champeo," by Eva Emery Dye, was read by Anna Stauffer. Kathleen Beckman told of several Oregon musical composers in an excellent paper, especially stressing the life of McDowell.

Refreshments were served by the assistant hostesses Vera Boje, and Kathleen Beckman to Margaret Anderson, Pearl Bates, Blanche Brown, Vera Boje, Ellen Carl, Mattie Crocker, Mabel Croissant, Mina DeWolf, Amanda Grimm, Laura Jackson, Ethel Johnson, Corbie de Lespinasse, Edna Mack, Neva McKenzie, Ethel Riley, Sadie Rich, Sadie Scholl, Cora Smith, Anna Stauffer, Kathryn Will, Audrey Wells. Guests visiting the club were Meta Friend, Lorena Silke and Mrs. Kenneth Grim.

The next meeting will be at the home of Louise Grimps with Blanche Brown and Louise Grimps in charge, and assisted by Audrey Wells and Ethel Bell. Miss Cottrell, a speaker from the Child Welfare commission in Portland, will be present. The high school girls glee club will sing several numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Patter arranged a surprise party for their son, Edward Saturday night on his 14th birthday. Guests were his Sunday school teacher, Mrs. Lee Cross, and her class of boys were present.

Entre Nous Club Enjoys Card Party

Members of the Entre Nous club enjoyed a delightful evening of cards at the clubhouse Wednesday night. Winning scores were held by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Krueger, Mrs. H. A. Smart and Elmer D. Cook.

Present for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. William Earle, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Moses, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hampshire and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smart.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampshire and Mr. and Mrs. Moses will be hosts for the next club meeting November 16 at the clubhouse. At this time a number of additional guests will be invited by the hosts in addition to the club members.

Brush Creek—A group of young people from here motored out to Scotts Mills Wednesday night to surprise Miss Corinne Moberg on her birthday. Three tables of cards were in play during the evening. Those going from here were Elmer and Irl Grate, Ludwig Meyer, Althea Meyer, Viola Larson, Margaret Guistk and Luella Forland.

And why should they? For there's nothing more becoming. And even though the lines are so classically simple, this frock is soft and feminine too. (That's probably one reason women are so devoted to chenille.)

Note the sleeves and the neckline. They're the two infallible tests of a dress this season. The neck must be high and plain; the sleeves must be full at the top, and slim below the elbow. This Bradley frock rates a hundred per cent. And it has the hand-knitted appearance that's so essential in this type of dress.

But you can get a much better view in our sportswear department. Won't you come in?
