TRIP TO OREGON IS THEME FOR DINNER

School bus in Operation for Three Districts: Potato Thief is Busy

SCOTTS MILLS, Nov. 9 .- Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mages entertained at dinner Sunday at their home at Crooked Finger, Mrs. H. Y. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Magee and daughter Jean, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Nicholson, all of Scotts Mills, and Mrs. W. T. Hogg and daughter Doris. Thirty-three years ago Sunday the Magees arrived in Woodburn from Bloomfield, Mo. From Woodburn they drove by team to Crooked Finger, settling on the Dr. J. H. Minthern (uncle of Herbert Hoover) place, which is now where Mr. and Mrs. John Hettwer live. It took a day to make the trip. This place has been divided into three different ranches. Hugh Magee, one of the sons, and family still live on part of the place. The other children and mother, excepting one son, live in the vicinity of Scotts Milis. Mr. Magee died about eight years
