Nuts, Fruit Crops Bring Much Money

The great economic importance of fruit and nut production in the state's agricultural industry is shown by data contained in an analysis of the trend of tree fruit. nut and berry acreage in Oregon just published by the Oregon State college extension service.

Although only approximately 4 per cent of all land used for crop production is in tree fruits, nuts and berries, the average cash farm income from 1926 to 1930 was approximately $18,360,000 a year, or 15 per cent of the total cash income from all crops and livestock, according to the circu-

The average cash farm income from 1926 to 1930 in Oregon for apples was $5,006,000, prunes $3,159,000 (dried $2,669,000 and fresh $490,000), pears $2,848,-000, cherries $1,556,000, peaches $205,000 and apricots and plums $20,000, according to estimates by the United States department of agriculture. The income from walnuts averaged $356,000. Strawberries brought an average of $1-793,000, cranberries $62,000, other berries $3,591,000 and grapes $29.000.

By means of conversion factors the author of the report, L. R. Breithaupt, college extension economist, calculated the acreage of each kind of fruit and nuts from census data showing the number of trees in 1909, 1919, 1924 and 1929. The resulting data indicates an upward trend in total acreage during the past 20 years largely accounted for by inand Mrs. Oscar Johnson have had creases in cherries, pears, prunes, as their house guest for the past strawberries, raspberries, walnuts week a sister of Mr. Johnson, Miss and filberts. ### USTED HOP MEN REJOICING, DRY REPEAL 18 Cents top Price;

Wheat Drops Two Cents Here Election results, one way or the other, were scarcely visible in the apples. Practically no C grade local markets yesterday, although wheat dropped two cents to 36 fered to eastern consumer marcents on red and 38 cents on white. Notable exception is the hop deal, for while no sales were reported locally, the hop men were in jubilant mood, both over the national vote and the Oregon prohi vote. Eighteen cents is the top price to date, the 20-cent options not considered. Hop men now hold that there is not the slightest reason why hops should not climb to 25 cents within a few months.

Options taken at 20 cents prior to election and largely as an election bet, were not exercised at the efforts to continue the options was said here yesterday.

EAD STOCKS LOST

NEW YORK, Nov. 9-(AP) Financial markets were heavy today in the first "post election" trading. Activity was very light in both stocks and bonds, which led some brokers to feel that results of trading had not been entirely conclusive.

Leading stocks lost 1 to more than 3 points on total sales of 1,-268.060 shares. Bonds showed a small average loss. Cotton, contending against a larger Nov. 1 crop estimate than expected, was off 80 cents to $1 a bale after making larger declines. Wall street brokerage houses pointed out the results of Tuesday's balloting had not been a surprise in many quarters.

Stocks opened with a rally, which was quite in keeping with trading. However, the advance was short-lived and after advancing from a fraction to a point leaders reversed their course. The "anti prohibition" stocks which were bid up rather energatically just before election, held fairly well, displaying the firmest appearance of any group. Considerabis pressure was directed against American Telephone on publication of phone losses for October, aithough Wall street is expecting another regular dividend will be voted next Wednesday. will be voted next Wednesday. The shares lost 3 % net. U. S. Steel, American Can, New York Central, Santa Fe, Allied Chemical, Union Pacific, Steel Preferred, Harvester, Case and American Smelting lost 2 to 3 net. The average decline for 90 issues being just midway between those figures.

WHEAT TUMBLES TOWARD OLD LOW APPLE WEEK

National Apple week, October 30-November 6, finds distributors in every section of the United States adequately supplied with fine quality northwestern boxed northwestern boxed apples are ofkets this season, although liberal volume of third grade stock is available in middlewest and Pacific coast markets, in the new slatted crates and lugs, with jumble or face-and-fill packs. The third grade apple package for Washington has not proved an unmixed blessing. Very low selling costs were possible, and encouraging returns for first shipments were obtained, but heavy rollings have resulted in surplus of unsold low-grade packs in most markets between Minneapolis and Los Angeles, with resultant low returns to growers, and the addideadline, 4 o'clock Tuesday, and tional evil of replacing fancy and extra fancy quality in those marfor a period were of no avail, it kets. With the exception of Hood River's straight steamship apple cargo to the Atlantic coast two weeks ago, intercoastal apple movement has not progressed beyond the conversational stage yet.

Apple prices to eastern distributors are the lowest in years, and wide distribution has been obtained, due partly to the light eastern production of Jonathans and othof early varieties. Early attempt of shippers to maintain minimum prices of 70c and 80c per box have proved unsuccessful, and nearly all varieties, except Winesaps and Delicious are selling 5-15c per box below those announced minimums. These reduced prices leave little or nothing to the grower, after subtracting packing and selling costs. Delicious and Winesaps are quoted around 95c on Extra Fancy, and shippers are hopeful for an upturn in values of late stocks.

Apple harvest is nearing completion in all districts and more stable trading is anticipated as soon as the deal is on a storage basis. Much financial assistance is now being rendered to growers by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, with advances up to 35c per box upon delivery to cold storage. Another source of financial assistance has developed, in cash advances and guaranteed payment of freight charges by cold storage interests at Missouri river points, and in the New York to 35c per box, are by the way of filling the storage facilities at these points.

Jonathan production is turning out heavier than early estimates indicated, especially in the Wenatchee districts, with probably 1800-1900 cars, as compared with normal output of 2500-3000 cars, and early 1932 estimates of only half a crop. Delicious are also running heavier than first anticipated. Onion markets continue at low ebb: but Northwestern distributors are hopeful of later improvement, due to heavy wastage and shrinkage in western districts. Cold weather found several hundred cars of Idaho onions unharvested, or lying on the ground; and Yakima reports considerable stock unharvested due to weather and economic conditions.
