

Capitol Theatre Reopens Today With "Big Broadcast"

MANY STARS IN FIRST PROGRAM

Super-Production Creating Unusual Demand; Ideal Choice for Opening

The Capitol opens today with a picture, the cast of which sounds like a roll call of stars. So much interest has been provoked by the opening with this picture that a demand for reserved seats has been made in many instances. This picture is "The Big Broadcast" and among those to appear in it are Stuart Erwin, Bing Crosby, Leila Hyams, Burns and Allen, Kate Smith, Mills Brothers, Boswell Sisters, Arthur Tracy, Vincent Lopez, and Cab Calloway, the latter each presenting an orchestra.

Music, fun, and romance, all are presented in this picture. It will make an admirably adapted picture with which to break the silence of the Capitol theatre, long a home of fun and interesting entertainment. Manager Carey of Warner Bros. is "feeling fine" over the superior list of pictures which are ready to be shown at the Capitol.

With the opening of the Capitol there is a new set of prices to meet the depression demands. There will be two complete features shown in the afternoon between the hours of 1:45 and 5:15 o'clock. The doors will open in the evening at 8:45 o'clock and two complete shows will be presented between the opening hour and 11 o'clock.

Holidays, Saturday and Sunday the shows will be continuous from 2 o'clock until 11 o'clock at night.

COOPERATIVE PRUNE MARKETING TALKED

The general agreement was also arrived at to expand the cooperative already in existence, the North Pacific Prunegrowers association of Portland, which has eight local units about the state. The plan proposed would be to start additional locals in districts where none now exist.

Effort will be made to interest the growers who have hitherto been unresponsive to appeals for joint action. The hold-outs were pointed to as the ones who in the past have prevented cooperative action.

Those present at the Thursday meeting included: J. E. Blockian, Lebanon; L. E. Thompson, Umpqua; E. C. Brown, Oregon City; J. G. Leedy, Roseburg; E. F. Davis, Oregon City; T. B. Buesenbach, Roseburg; M. H. Harlow, Eugene.

George Neuner, Portland; Charles A. Coffey, J. D. Hamilton, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Portland; J. P. Doubrava, Hubbard; George O. Galt, State College, Corvallis; C. H. Taylor, Salem; V. D. Looney, Albany; H. W. Jones, Myrtle Creek; F. C. Ewing, Salem; W. M. Bouffleur, Salem.

SUNSET HOME LEFT $10,000 BY HOWDE

Bulk of the estate of Ole Howde of Silverton, who died last week in a Portland hospital, is left to the L. C. Foss Sunset Home at Seattle as the Guida Howde endowment fund to provide a home for needy, according to the will admitted to probate here yesterday.

Second Aspirant For Beer Permit Enters Petition

Salem now has two beer and wine gardens lawfully in operation and it is expected that a third will be added as soon as one of the beverages becomes legal.

Record Heat for November Noted

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17 (AP)—Soaring to 85 in Los Angeles, 83 in San Francisco and proportionately high in other parts of California, the temperature brought summer heat to a large portion of California and unseasonal warmth to other areas of the Pacific seaboard today.

"MA" MAKES GRADE AGAIN

Although the victory of Mrs. Miriam (Ma) Ferguson in the race for Governor of Texas comes as no surprise, the Democratic nomination in the Lone Star State being tantamount to election, the militant lady was obliged to hurdle many formidable obstacles before she swept into office on the crest of the Roosevelt tidal wave. Not the least of these obstacles was the "Stop-Ferguson" movement, headed by the incumbent, Governor Ross Sterling, whom Mrs. Ferguson beat at the primary for the nomination. Governor Sterling charged Ma with irregularities in the runoff, as a consequence of which her name was omitted from the ballot. But Mrs. Ferguson took her case to the State Supreme Court and was given the decision. The campaign preceding her election was bitter, many died in the wool Democrats throwing their support to Ma's Republican opponent, Orville Bullington, but remaining loyal to the national ticket. This will be Mrs. Ferguson's second term as Governor of Texas. In 1924 she ran and was elected "in order to vindicate Jim (her husband, former Governor James E. Ferguson, who was impeached in 1917 and has since been declared ineligible to hold public office in the State) rather than for the honor it would bring." Her tenure of office was chiefly marked by her activities in pardoning criminals. During her two years in the capitol she released no less than 3,500 prisoners, many of whom were said to be notorious criminals. In 1926 Texas Democrats refused to give Mrs. Ferguson the nomination for a second term and Dan Moody was elected. It has been the charge of Ma's opponents all through the campaign that Mrs. Ferguson will be merely a spyglass for her husband, who, they say, will be the real Governor of the State.

Mickey Mouse NOTES

It's not long until we eat good old turkey—and all the fittings to go with it—yes sir—or yee m'am.

It's taking me a long time to type this column today—as I can't use both of my typing fingers—I smashed one of them—while trying to hit a nail.

A man in the audience told me he laughed so much at "Elmer" that he lost his false teeth. We helped him find them after the show.

Just wait until you see "Elmer" tomorrow.

OLD GRADS TO VISIT CAMPUS

Willamette-Whitman Clash Saturday Main Feature For Homecoming

Saturday's events will open with the football game at 2 p. m. Between halves, the feature will be the annual freshman-sophomore bag rush, a traditional contest for the past 20 years or more. If the freshmen win this lively contest which is really rougher than football, they are privileged to discard their football caps and ribbons; if they lose, they must continue wearing them until the Christmas holiday.

Saturday at 5:30 the annual alumni reunion and banquet will be held at the Masonic temple, with officials of the alumni association in charge. Charles Redding will be toastmaster.

The Homecoming weekend's events will be culminated with the Theta Alpha Phi play which will be presented at the high school auditorium Saturday night at 8:15. The play this year is Sheridan's "The Rivals."

In accordance with tradition, present Willamette students have arranged illuminated displays at all of the student residences, including Lausanne hall and the fraternity and sorority houses, the message of which is a welcome to the alumni and an expression of determination to "Whip Whitman." Judges will view these signs tonight and the winner of the sign contest will be announced between acts of the play Saturday night.

Persons in charge of the Homecoming plans at Willamette report that there has been an unusual number of early registration of "old grads," indicating one of the most successful events in many years.

Class reunions at Homecoming time are usually confined to a gathering of the young men class. The 1922 graduates will hold a luncheon at Hunt's cafe at noon Saturday. Reservations are being made with Isabel Childs, class secretary.

Attendance Record Made by 10 Pupils Of Rural School

BETHEL, Nov. 17.—Pupils of Bethel school who have been neither absent nor tardy during the first quarter of the school year are Dorthea Froehlich, Lorain Kirscher, Lillian Hamrick, Alfred Bahnsen, Werna Froehlich, Leola Darr, Lois Hamrick, Wanda Froehlich, Dean Leuderbach and Edward Schulz.

Additional pupils who held the same record for the first month of school are Norma June Boles, Coralee Nichols and Ila Mae Creech. Clarence and Betty Bolling held the same record for the second month.

CUTS COSTS OF COLDS

Reports from thousands of families prove that the number, duration and costs of colds can be reduced by half with the new Vicks Vapo-Cold-Relief Plan. Prove it for yourself, as directed in each Vicks package.
