

BAZAAR IS PLANNED BY MISSION GROUP

FRUITLAND, Nov. 17.—Members of the Woman's Missionary society met at the home of Daisy Lambert to do sewing for a quilt. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. K. C. Runner Friday, November 15, to tie the quilt, which will be sold at a bazaar to be held at the church December 9.

Clark Bundy celebrated his 90th birthday November 7 at the home of his daughter, Roxy B. Coulson. Mr. Bundy served almost four years in the civil war, having enlisted in company G, 63d regiment O. V. V. L., from Ohio at the age of 18. He has a wonderful memory and delights his grandsons with many stories of the conflict.

Friday night, friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred White greeted them with a charivari at their home on the Schulz place south of Fruitland.
E. E. Forgard and family are planning to move to the La Branch farm, known as the Noble Andrews place, recently vacated by Mrs. Varnes.

RED CROSS WORK THEME FOR CLUB

Dramatic Group Gives Play And Scouts get Charter At Program

TURNER, Nov. 17.—Turner community club met Monday night with a crowded house. Judge George Rossman was the guest speaker. He gave a talk on Red Cross work, which was followed by Mrs. E. C. Bear of the local Red Cross committee, in which local announcements for the present roll call were made.
A clever two-act play, "Sauce for the Gossamer" was put on by members of the local Dramatic club. Miss Mabel Tucker, Mrs. Gladys Martin, Mrs. Nellie Given, Mrs. Lucille McKinny, Leonard Farris, Gerald Given, Herbert Briggs, Miss Eleanor Moore, soloist of Salem, sang two numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Mae Hadley. Chief O. P. West of the executive Boy Scout committee presented the charter for scout troop No. 17. D. B. Parks, local chairman, presented the scouts with a tenderfoot certificate and scout badge. Waldo Riches is scoutmaster with Walter Peterson assistant. "Spring Fashions" were shown in a short number by two small girls, Betty Peetz and Marian Parks. The Baker brothers gave vocal duets, accompanied by the banjo.
The closing treat of the program was music by 25 members of the Salem junior orchestra, who entertained for 25 minutes.
At the business meeting Mrs. Agnes Booth, secretary of the contest committee, gave the report proposing to take up 11 of the 13 points, with names of proper sponsors for each project. It was voted to accept the report.

EVENING SESSION OF POMONA ASKED

NORTH HOWELL, Nov. 17.—Meeting for its second regular business meeting at the North Howell grange hall Wednesday night, the marion county grange council concluded a satisfactory session. Twenty-three voting members were present. The next meeting will be held at Chemawa the third Wednesday in February, when new officers will be elected.
Mrs. Daisy Bump, Mrs. W. H.

Dallas and Mrs. Carrie Tyler were named on a committee to investigate the John Bradford school plant and report at the Pomona meeting at Fairfield in January. Roswell Wright, Mrs. Harry Martin and Helen Wiesner were asked to draft a recommendation to the Pomona grange asking for an evening session, and the committee on drainage laws, Ellis Stevens, Ed Overlund and Roswell Wright, was retained for further reports.
The general objects of these grange councils are helpful and advisory. They organize visits, promote picnics and social meetings, increase memberships, promote interest in degree teams, work for better publicity, and good will and assist in solving local grange problems.

Music Feast For Schools Will be 21st

RICKREALL, Nov. 17.—Monday night, November 21, the three rural training departments of the normal school will hold a joint music festival at the Rickreall school, each school to furnish a part of the program. Community singing of families and old favorite songs will also have a place in the entertainment.
Each school has some musical organization among the pupils, either orchestra, harmonica band or glee club, and performances by these are being stressed.
The upper grades of the Rickreall school under Mrs. Pence have an orchestra which includes pupils from each of the grades: Violins, Mary Oliver, Katie Whaley, Helen Brown, Wilma Ellis, Eleanor Bechtel, Jean Crippen, Katherine Lowry, Dale Crippen, Donald Letteken, Dick White; cornets, Jeanne Coville, Robert Brown, Leroy Burson, Paul Burson; baritone horn, Virgil Parker; saxophone, Hal Fox; melophone, Armand Brown; clarinet, John McCrow; trumpet, Daryl Ross, Miss Van Nuy, student teacher, at the piano.
The critic teachers at Rickreall are Mrs. Dew and Mrs. Pence; at Greenwood, Mrs. Dempsey, and at Oak Point, Miss Eyre.
