YULE DECORATIONS FOR TOWN PLANNED

Garden Club Taking Lead in Beautification of Woodburn Home

WOODBURN, Nov. 18. - Plans to create interest this Christmas season in having the city specially decorated for the holidays were brought forward Wednesday night when the Woodburn Garden club held its meeting in the social rooms of the public library. The Garden club is urging that there be a wreath or some other appropriate decoration on display in every home this Christmas sea-

A committee of Mrs. Settlemie: and Mrs. Richard Yates was appointed to further the plans and to stir up interest in special Christmas decorations in the schools. It is expected that the American Legion post will also aid in the town beautification campaign.

A shrub and flower sale is to be given by the club November Former 26. On the sale committee are Mrs. H. F. Butterfield, Miss Della Webb and Miss Ina Bonney, Moner derived from the sale will be used to beautify one of the grade schools by setting out shrubs and
