

Thanksgiving Spirit Lends Festive Hue to Social Calendar of Week

Thanksgiving's Festive Mood Will Inspire Dances and Gay Family Reunions

This Week Three Large Dances red Letter the Calendar and Plans Are Already Many for Entertaining Guests and Families

THIS is the festive week of Thanksgiving. Already letters have been exchanged between families that are scattered and plans have been made for those who can possibly "get home for Thanksgiving". And what plans! Home and Thanksgiving and the glad and jolly family gatherings make of this American holiday one just a bit more intimate and precious than any other unless it be Christmas and even that is hardly the "family" day that Thanksgiving is. Fortunate are those who will gather in large family groups this Thursday and enjoy the many family reminiscences and greet the favorite dishes that have come to be set apart for that particular day in each particular family.

Coming home from college and university, coming home from country and city, it is all the same. They will be coming home. Many university people will leave Salem and many more will come back from schools afield.

Dances for the evening of Thanksgiving and for the week are always most popular for theirs is a gayness that combines brilliantly with the festiveness of the holiday.

Salem will have its share of dancing parties to augment the many family parties. Wednesday night Chadwick chapter order of Rainbow will entertain with a smart Thanksgiving dance in the Masonic temple. To this special guests are invited and the Order of DeMolay are special guests.

Judge Browns Are Dinner Hosts

Miss Marie Stutesman is chairman of the arrangements which will include smart innovations. Patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henry and Mr. and Mrs. David Wright.

Thursday night the annual Thanksgiving dance given by the halled students of Mrs. J. H. White will be an event at Castilian hall.

Patrons and patronesses for this affair include Dr. and Mrs. Burton Myers, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Berger, Mr. and Mrs. James Teed, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kline.

Saturday night the Subscription club will entertain with its Thanksgiving dance in the ballroom of the Masonic temple. This will be a formal dance and will be one of the ultra smart events of the club's season.

Mrs. O. W. Emmons, Mrs. J. J. Tallman and Mrs. Lillian R. Hageman entertained women of Dakota club at the Emmons home Friday afternoon. There were 16 present to enjoy the interesting afternoon of informal conversation and sewing. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Kelley at her home on South Liberty street.

Anton Piers Will Present Art Display During Week of November 28

ANTON PIERS whose studio is in Portland but who has given much time to the advancement of art interest in Salem will show about 20 new pictures this year at an exhibit to be sponsored by the Salem Arts League, the exhibit opening Monday, November 28, and continuing open to the public for a week, in the fireplace room of the Salem public library.

It is planned to have Mr. Piers give a series of talks concerning such subjects which will be of most interest to the visiting public. Those who remember the exhibit of last year will remember the keen interest displayed by all who were fortunate to be present on those evenings when Mr. Piers was present and discussed his pictures in an informal talk. Mr. Piers has been in the Willamette valley for the past year and not only brings to us his impressions of the old world but his impressions of our own west and particularly the Willamette valley.

The paintings which have been set aside for the Salem exhibit are large and small and cover mountainous subjects in which are shown the varying aspects of scenes at Sunrise, peculiar light effects, Solitude, Desolation, Summer, Simplicity and Colorfulness. Furthermore, scenes of Paris, Amsterdam near Liege, Canada, the Yellowstone, Glacier park, the English coast, Oregon Summer is shown, Sunset on the Willamette, and a number of small sketches which have the same quality as the larger work.

B. and P. W. Plan Activities

Business and Professional Women are busy with social affairs for the next two weeks. This Tuesday night the regular dinner at 6:30 o'clock will be observed at the Marion hotel, with an especially interesting speaker to be featured.

Miss Avis Lobdell, member of the Portland Business and Professional Women's club and head of the women's welfare and public relations department of the Union Pacific railroad, will be the speaker. She attended the conference for the cause and cure of war, in Washington D. C. last winter as a representative of the B. and P. W. club of Portland.

Reservations for this interesting meeting are to be made with Miss Ruth McAdams, at 7279, not later than Monday night.

A second event being planned by the club is the benefit card party and antique jewelry exhibit to be an event of December 2 at the home of Miss Juana Holmes.

In addition to being a prettily appointed card party according to the plans of the committee there will be an unusually interesting feature in the jewelry exhibit. Mrs. J. F. Gilroy of Portland is bringing her collection, which is English and over 100 years old—the latter requirement is necessary in order that the jewelry be admitted free of duty, and it seems most of this was.

Plans for these two affairs will then keep the B. and P. W. club members well occupied. Reservations for the card benefit are to be made with Lois Ohmart, Lillian Cadwell or Juana Holmes.

Mrs. John Bertelson Is Auxiliary Hostess

Mrs. John Bertelson entertained with a delightful afternoon of entertaining members of Hal Hibbing, Mrs. E. S. Via, Mrs. M. A. White, Mrs. Ella Woodward, Mrs. Charles M. Greene, Mrs. B. W. Miss Marian Ross Hostess to Group

Miss Marian Ross entertained at her home Friday night complimenting members of her Sunday school class of the Calvary Baptist church and the teacher of the class, Mrs. E. S. Via.

The group met at the home of Miss Ross for the business session, which was presided over by Miss Caroline Hunt. Following the business meeting the group retired to the home of Mrs. George Rhoten where a social evening was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Present were Opal Brown, Helen Miller, Marjorie Miers, Wilma Stortz, Caroline Hunt, Florence Foster, Alice George, Jewell Howell, Claudine Ferguson, Doris Schunke, Marian Ross and Mrs. Willis.

Pretty Luncheon Compliments Maid

Miss Emyln Griggs entertained Saturday afternoon with a charming luncheon complimenting the birthday of Miss Flavia Downs.

Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. David Bennett Hill and Mrs. Victor Griggs assisted the young hostess. Covers were placed for Miss Downs, Miss Charlotte Hill, Miss Barbara Pierce, Miss Cora Edgal, Miss Sally McLellan, Miss Edith Morehouse, Miss Virginia Cross and for Miss Griggs.

The luncheon table was artistically arranged with a gay hued fruit effect arranged in a pumpkin. Yellow tapers in silver holders added to the effectiveness of the decorative scheme.

Bridge Afternoons Will Form Highlights for Maids and Salem Matrons

BRIDGE afternoons were among the most brilliant events of the very numerous social activities of the weekend. The largest of these was that for which Mrs. D. X. Beechler, Mrs. Harry Crawford and Mrs. Lou Grote were hostesses at the lovely country home of the Grotes, Friday afternoon.

Chrysanthemums in many shades were used in artistic profusion about the guest rooms where bridge was in play for the afternoon hours. Winning scores were held by Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. Charles Pratt and Mrs. R. C. Hunter.

Tea was served at the small tables following cards. Additional guests called at the tea hour. The guest list for the affair included Mrs. L. Barrick, Mrs. Herbert Hauser, Mrs. Charles McCarter, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. E. W. Peterson, Mrs. Ralph Allan, Mrs. C. L. Bladgett, Mrs. A. E. Oley, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. Charles Pratt, Mrs. Mose Adams, Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, Mrs. James Imlah, Mrs. Ray Binsegar, Mrs. Ross Clark, Mrs. Herald Phillip, Mrs. C. C. Gabriel, Mrs. Elmer McKee, Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. Harris Lietz, Mrs. R. C. Hunter, Mrs. V. L. Gibson, Mrs. Elmer Cook, Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. William Ellis, Mrs. Cleo Cashatt, Mrs. B. B. Flack, Mrs. M. C. Peetys, Mrs. Wayne Henry, Mrs. V. L. Kuhn, Mrs. Ida Niles, Mrs. Howard Hulsey, Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mrs. Lynn Purvine, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. R. Wirth, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. A. S. Hussey, Mrs. Anna Wood, Mrs. J. O. Russell, Mrs. Miller Hayden, and Mrs. Ed Pratt.

A second large bridge affair was that for which Miss Evelyn Millard and Miss Dorothy Murphy were hostesses at the Millard home Friday night.

The guest rooms were arranged in a lovely effect of pink and white chrysanthemums. The small tables at which refreshments were served at a late hour were centered with bronze button chrysanthemums in low bowls.

Mrs. E. B. Millard, Miss Lola Millard and Mrs. Murphy assisted the hostesses at the refreshment hour. Winning scores were held by Miss Betty Smith, Mrs. Martha Bergon, and Miss Florence Utter.

Guests included Miss Harriet Hansen of Portland, Miss Betty Bonnell, Miss Betty Smith, Miss Barbara Kurtz, Miss Dorothea Corey, Miss Edna Savage, Miss Marguerite Smith, Miss Laneta Bellingier, Miss Florence Utter, Miss Ann Tartar, Clarice Kolby, Miss Julia Johnson, Miss Helen Worth, Miss Martha Bergon, Miss Martha Sprague, Miss Margaret Hauser, Miss Frances Ellis, Miss Marjorie Kinsling, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Margaret Drege.

Chatter of Many Guests Over Tinkle of Teacups Make Week End Gay With Sociability

Many Visitors in Capitol City for Willamette University Home Coming, and Church tea Create Busy Weekend

TEA cup chatter was afloat in gay abandon Saturday afternoon as maids and matrons of Salem met in various places for a cup of tea, a few gay words and then on to other things.

The largest tea was that given by the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church at the home of Mrs. George A. White. The affair was a silver tea in compliment to the past presidents of the church guilds.

Beautifully appointed were the guest rooms at the White home into which guests were received by Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Homer G. Oulet, Junior guild president, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, and Mrs. W. H. Lytle. Little Janet Ri'e received the guests in charming fashion at the door.

Polk Federation Meets at Buena Vista

Buena Vista—One hundred members of the federation of rural women's clubs of Polk county attended the all day meeting held at Buena Vista club Friday with the Buena Vista club as hostess. Mrs. Forrest Martin, president, presided at the business meeting beginning at 10:30.

A large amount of canned fruit was collected at this meeting to be sent to Doernbecher hospital. The usual business routine preceded conference of president of all clubs represented.

New officers elected were Mrs. A. E. Utley of Brush College, president, Mrs. George Van Santen, Dallas, vice president and Mrs. V. L. Gibson, Brush College, secretary.

Following the 12:30 pot luck dinner Mrs. Sadie-Orr Dunbar, executive secretary of State Tuberculosis association and secretary of National Federation of clubs conducted a round-table discussion of Christmas seal sales which the rural women's clubs are sponsoring this year.

The Buena Vista club representative, gave a humorous reading. Mrs. Forrest Martin, past president and Mrs. George Van Santen, secretary, were presented with bouquets as a token of appreciation from the club. An invitation was extended and accepted by the clubs from Ellendale and Dallas communities the February meeting.

Drama Guild Group Is Busy With Plans

The Drama Guild of the First Methodist church is doing some interesting work this winter in the productions which they are presenting. One has been given and the second, "The Prodigal Son," is ready for presentation November 27.

The guild is divided in groups and each has a particular development to make to the play. Last week the stagecraft group spent the class period gliding Hebrew lamps; the costume group is working on 18 Hebrew costumes for the banquet scene; the construction group has built a new stage floor, and the worship group is engaged in working out a suitable service with which to open the dramatization, while the acting group is working hard on presentation.

During the last general session of the Guild Miss Margaret Stevenson, director, gave a talk suggesting essentials in good acting, and concluded this was an excellent reading.

Rebekahs Plan Program

The Rebekahs will meet at 7:30 Monday evening for their regular business meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Mrs. Elsie Townsend will act as chairman on the program committee, with Flora Turnbull, Hazel McElroy and Gus Erickson assisting her with the program. After the program refreshments will be served in the dining room, Mrs. Luella Engstrom as chairman, Mrs. Josephine Erickson, Myrtle McClay, Edith McElroy and Evelyn Bremmer helping about the rooms.

Smart Dinner At Livesley Home

ONE of the smart affairs of the week end was the formal dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley were hosts at their home on Fairmount hill Saturday night.

Following the dinner hour contract was in play in the beautifully appointed rooms of the Livesley home.

Covers were placed at the dinner table for Mr. and Mrs. William Walton, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lamport, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Livesley.

Breakfast Club Will Meet Tuesday

Another meeting of the Breakfast club established recently by Salem business women will be an event of Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock in the Marion hotel.

A feature of the meeting will be the "gift box" into which food supplies that are staples will be placed, each contribution not to exceed 25 cents in value. The total gifts will be turned over to the Red Cross for Thanksgiving charity work.

Miss Helen Louise Crosby will be the speaker for the program part of the Breakfast club meeting.

Mrs. Don Hendrie Is Hostess

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hendrie will be hosts tonight to the Ace High club. This interesting club holds part of its monthly meetings in the afternoon with the women as guests and then meets for the next time in the evening with the husbands for special guests.

A supper party at the Hendrie home will precede several hours of bridge. Club members and husbands include Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Hendrie.
