F. & W. GRAND OPENS STORE HERE FRIDAY

New Management, Stock And no Connection With Old Company, Said

With entirely new management, new administration and a new stock of goods, the F. & W. Grand stores open for business here Friday morning in the Roth building, 132-134 North Liberty street. A score of clerks have been busy this week preparing for the opening which is to be made, the management says, on the belief that Salem and its trading territory face a steady improvement in business conditions.

sort to clumsy flashlights for illumination. Their invention consists simply of a box, cigar box size, containing two flashlight bulbs, equipped with a switch and covered with a glass top. The bulletins are clipped over the glass, illuminated from the lights within. The contrivance is clamped to the column beneath the steering wheel. Southwick and Mogan have applied for a patent on their idea and expect to manufacture the device on a large scale if it meets the approval of police leaders.

BILL ROOM SAVING TALKED BY SOLONS

No raw tobaccos in Luckies

—that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
