PRICE OF GOBBLERS AT PORTLAND FALLS

PORTLAND, Nov. 21—(AP)—The turkey market appeared to break here today when one large store advertised No. 1 stock to consumers at 19c pound. This price and even better had been paid by retailers generally for turkeys. The market slumped quickly on receipt of the news and some leading buyers quit the market entirely while others offered down to 15 and 16 cents a pound for the best birds.

Receipts have not been extremely heavy but apparently there has been sufficient movement to care for the demand for shipping and for the increasing pre-holiday local consumption.

The big call has been for small hens or small toms. No. 2 turkeys have been quoted around 13 to 14 cents, with medium sorts and large toms, even of quality, no higher than 16 to 18 cents generally.

There is a fair movement of ducks and one small shipment of dressed geese, the former ruling to 18 and 20 cents a pound, and the latter at 14 to 16 cents.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will receive sealed bids until 7:30 o'clock p.m., Monday, December 5th, 1932 for the construction of cement sidewalks in the City of Salem, Oregon, as follows:

On the East side of CHURCH STREET between Highland Avenue and Spruce streets, along Lot 8, Block 11, Highland Add., Res. No. 2692;

Lots 9 and 10, Block 11, Highland Add., Res. No. 2693;

On the North side of MADISON STREET between Fairgrounds Road and Summer Street, along that property covered by Volume 208, Page 591 of Deed Records for Marion County, Oregon. Res. No. 2694.

Plans and specifications may be had at the office of the city engineer, city hall. Each bidder will be required to file with his bid a vertified check, or bid bond, payable to the City of Salem, in the amount of five per cent of the amount of bid, which will be forfeited to the city in case the bidder shall fail or refuse to enter into contract for the construction of the sidewalks if awarded the bid. Bids must be made out on forms secured at the city engineer's office and must show the resolution numbers and description and location of property.

The right is reserved by the Common Council to accept any or to reject all bids in the interest of the City.

MARK POULSON, City Recorder, Salem, Oregon.—N.19-20-22-23-24.

DEBT SITUATION IS OPIATE TO MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—(AP)—Wall street's crystal gasers today were evidently unable to conjure up any clear-cut pictures of what was likely to happen in the foreign debt situation this week and security markets were again all but neglected.

Radio's extreme reaction of 2 points was cut to 1 3-8 net. Radio accounted for a liberal percentage of the day's turnover which aggregated 611,716 shares. The Preferred issues also were weak. Westinghouse was up 1-8 net and General Electric lost 3-8.

American Tobacco "B" lost a couple of points. New York Central, Allied Chemical and Drug were down a point each, as was Santa Fe railroad. U. S. Steel, American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, Union Pacific, Union Carbide, General Motors, Chrysler, Harvester and Woolworth settled back fractionally, while American Can, National Biscuit, Public Service of New Jersey and Pennsylvania finished somewhat higher. Seaboard Oil made a new 1932 high coincident with the revival of brokers' gossip of merger possibilities.

BID DEMAND LIVENS DEALINGS IN TURKS

Turkey dealings developed the liveliest tone of the season Monday, with local retail dealers stocking up for Thanksgiving demands. Price holds about the same, with the largest wholesale dealer offering 13 cents on dressed No. 1 hens and toms and 10 cents on No. 2 birds.

Buyers offer 13 cents dressed on capons; Pekin ducks, 8 cents live, 10 cents dressed; geese, same as ducks.

Present purchase by retailers indicate that more turkeys will be consumed this holiday than last year, despite cries of depression. This is held due to the lowered price.

Late last week one dealer had 1500 pounds of dressed turkey in storage here, and by Saturday held only 300 pounds, which he considers pretty good movement that far in advance of Thanksgiving.

FRUITS, VEGETABLES ALL CHANGE
CHICAGO GRAIN TAKES NEW DROPS

Tangerines, Navels Arrive; Hogs Take Drop

A whole grist of changes on the fruit and vegetable prices started the week, and will likely hold over the Thanskgiving period. First tangerine oranges of the season were offered yesterday, at 15 cents a dozen. Navels are on the market, too, at prices from 18 cents to 33 cents a dozen, or wholesale from $2.50 to $3.85.

Cranberry supply is good, both as to quality and quantity, with wholesale at $10.75 a barrel. Lemons were cheaper yesterday, to $6.50 wholesale on 360s, and Florida grapefruits are offered retail three for 25 cents.

Brussel sprouts are quoted at 90 cents; cauliflower is down, to 75 cents on top grade; Danish squash are bringing the grower but 15 cents a dazen; sweet potatoes are down 50 cents to $2; celery hearts bring the grower 25 and 30 cents a dozen; beets are up to 15 and 20 cents a dazen; green peppers are up a cent to five cents a pound.

Hogs dropped 25 cents a hundred, to $3.50 for top grades. Lambs continue to hold at $4 on tops.

Pressure on December Settlements Fills Up Elevators

CHICAGO, Nov. 21—(AP)—Renewed pressure to hasten settlement of December wheat contracts, and avoid unwanted big deliveries of grain piled up in elevators, pulled prices down afresh today.

Wheat values dropped as a result to within ½ cent of the all-time record low point. Chicago December contracts aggregating more than 50,000,000 bushels are awaiting settlement, and there was continued liquidation today by holders anxious to let go. The open interest in December wheat here was asserted to be the largest amount ever known at this time of year so close to delivery day.

Wheat closed unsettled, ⅜-⅝ under Saturday's finish, corn unchanged to ⅜ lower, oats unchanged to ¼ off. Today's closing quotations:

Wheat: Dec., 42⅜-⅞; May, 48⅛-¼; July, 49¼-⅜.
Corn—Dec., 24⅝-⅜; May, 29-⅜-⅞; July, 31½.
Oats—Dec., 16-16⅛; May, 18-¼-⅜; July, 18⅛-⅝.

CHEESE BUSINESS REPORTED GAINING

PORTLAND, Nov. 21—(AP)—More or less of a holiday feeling prevailed in the market for cheese at leading United States marketing centers for the period.

Locally the movement of cheese has shown a very material increase during the week. The sale of holiday offerings such as large sized cured stock, has greatly increased total consumption in this territory.

While there was no change in general quotations, the market for butter reflected at least strength. Demand continues chiefly for the undergrades. Butterfat values continue mixed but generally unchanged.

Fresh egg market continues to show strength for all offerings and without price change. Receipts are moderate. Storage stock in very much inclined to drag where it is sold for what it is.

Extreme lowness of the turkey market has caused receivers to discourage live chicken receipts and the present supply is scant. This is the only feature; prices being much the same.

Most of the arrivals of dressed ducks and geese to date have been of poor to ordinary quality. Few really top birds have been available. The best ducks have not been above 14c a pound.

Quite fair stocks of country killed calves were carried over the week end but apparently no weakness was suggested in values. Hogs were inclined to hold steady with ewes and lambs firm.

RADIO DANCE HELD

STAYTON, Nov. 21—About 30 of the younger folks enjoyed a radio dancing party at the Beauchamp hall Friday night. Following some time spent in dancing refreshments were served. It is hoped that a club will be formed and these dances made a regular weekly affair.
