A most beautiful Christmas scene that you should not miss is on the south wall of Miller's store. The picture, with its coloring makes one almost think that it is real. You should see it. R. E. Keith, advertising manager for Miller's estimated that more than 2,000 people visited their store Wednesday.

The state capitol building was built in 1876. The dome reaches the height of 137 feet. The supreme court building was erected in 1914 and the state office building in 1927.

LARGE HOP SALE IS MADE AT 28 CENTS

Eugene Grower Predicts $1 Hops if Prohi Repeat Goes Through

Sale of 200 bales of hops by Livelees to Seidenberg at 28 cents was made here yesterday, and was the only exchange noted, although talk of 30-cent options persisted. So far, growers and dealers here have been quite conservative in their estimates of the limit on the hop price, judging from optimism reported by the Eugene Register-Guard to be held by J. W. Seavey, prominent Eugene grower.

Seavey is quoted as saying that hops will jump as high as a dollar a pound if the repeal goes through. Eugene hops are handled through local and Portland dealers largely, and since the post-election boom started virtually no hops have been released by growers in that section.
