Wisteria Club Will Hold Dance Friday

An anticipated event in this week is the December dance of the Wisteria club which will come Friday night at Castilian hall and which will be the annual Christmas dance.

The committee in charge, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gabriel, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Pilcher, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Halik, have elaborate plans worked out for the success of the decorations.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
A frock must be just right to create the "can-do-without-it" feeling as this one does. Pointed seamings that always achieve a graceful silhouette are ever so smart here. Other important notes are the low armholes with full sleeves, a fluttering higher soft necklines and tucked details on both bodice and sleeves. You might use a new crepe silk or satin for smart results.

Pattern 2475 may be ordered only in sizes 16 to 20 and 34 to 42. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coin or stamps (no cash orders) for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED.

The fall and winter edition of the Anne Adams Pattern catalog is ready! Contains 100-125 pages of the newest and best home, street and formal frocks, cleverly designed styles for large figures—and beautiful, practical models for juniors and kiddies. WORTHLESS CHECK PASSER IS BALKED

Story of Mutual Friends Fails to get by two Shop Keepers

SLIVERTON, Dec. 5.—Mrs. C. Schlador, manager of the Women's Specialty shop, has a peculiar experience Friday afternoon when a woman tried to pass a check, which Mrs. Schlador took to be worthless.

The woman, good looking and well dressed, appeared in the store about 1 o'clock and speaking in an affected manner, said she had come from Lebanon on the recommendation of a friend of Mrs. Schlador's.

The woman said that the "doctor," who was evidently supposed to be her husband, gave her an allowance of $50 a month and that she was trying to get something "very nice" for her "dear little niece" who was staying with her. She finally chose a frock, hose and handkerchiefs amounting to $9.95. She informed Mrs. Schlador that she was a little short of cash and was in a hurry to get back to Roseburg. Before offering her check, which was made out for $20.95, she told Mrs. Schlador that she had played bridge at a large party at Roseburg recently and in the group was a friend of Mrs. Schlador's whose name was Mrs. Foster. Mrs. Schlador explained that she recalled no one by that name and the purchaser said that she believed Mrs. Foster was but recently married and had lived here before her marriage.

Mrs. Schlador offered to take the proffered check to the bank to cash it but the stranger said that she herself would take it out to cash it and would return in a half hour. She never returned.

It was learned later that she had been at Peggy's shop and began the same story but when Mrs. W. E. Davis, manager, remarked that she had a sister at Lebanon, the woman seemingly lost interest and left.

7 COUNTIES ASKED IN ON MARION CASE

Seven counties of Oregon were asked yesterday by Judge John Siegmund of this county to join in an appeal of the test case recently tried here over the legality of the court's paying money for a deputy attorney and a stenographer. The case was decided favorably to the county's position by Circuit Judge Arlie G. Walker but the county court wants the case carried before the supreme court to obtain a final decision.

Estimated cost of the appeal is $450. Counties asked to join include Polk, Benton, Linn, Lane, Yamhill, Tillamook and Clackamas. In his letter to the county judges in the seven counties, Judge Siegmund pointed out that all counties paying deputies in the district attorney's offices have a vital interest in a supreme court decision on the legality of the action.

The county court's actions were bitterly criticized by Judge L. H. McMahon before the test case was brought. After Judge Walker's decision, McMahon followed with criticism of the manner in which the test case was tried.

Everybody has days when every waking hour is packed with zest of living. Why not make every day like this?

A frequent drawback to fitness is constipation. It may dull your energy, steal your appetite, lower your vitality. Yet it is so easy to overcome.

Try eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Science shows this delicious cereal supplies "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to promote appetite, and tone the intestinal tract.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. How much safer than taking patent medicines—so often harmful.

Two tablespoonsful daily will correct most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

It's great to feel fit!

ALL-BRAN has iron for the blood. At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
