Sorority Formal Planned for Saturday

One of the very smart events of the school year for the sororities of Willamette university arthe formal banquets given. On such affair will be that of Saturday night at which time Delta Phi sorority will entertain at the Marion hotel.

This formal banquet will begin at 7:30 o'clock and as planned now covers will be placed for about 100 guests. A program will give added interest to the affair. Patrons and patronesses for the affair include Mrs. Lillian R. Hagman, house mother of the sorority, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Keene, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Miss Midge Hewett, general chairman, Miss Phyllis Denison, decorations, and Miss Elizabeth Clement, program.

Mrs. Ronald Craven Is Complimented

One of the most attractive parties of the week was that for which Miss Velleda Ohmart entertained Tuesday evening at her home complimenting Mrs. Ronald Craven.

The guest rooms were artistically arranged in pastel shades and here for the early evening hours informality reigned and sewing was enjoyed. Just before the coffee hour Mrs. Craven was presented with a shower of surprise gifts. Miss Ohmart was assisted in serving by Mrs. Ruth Versteeg.

Guests in compliment to Mrs. Craven included:

Mrs. Everett Craven of Portland, Mrs. Ruth Versteeg, Grace Elizabeth Holman, Carolyn Par- Spades Hearts Diamonds Clubs ker, Margaret Stevenson, Eleanor Moore, Irene Breithaupt, Barbara Ames, Gertrude Cheney, Helen Breithaupt, Margaret Dumas, Betty Elofson, Hanna Eymann, Elizabeth Hughes, Margaret Knapp, Laura Cheney, Ida Hazel Shutt, Lois Loretta Varley, Lo Rayne Haag, Blanche Grentzenberg, Mildred Judson, Helen Mc-Elroy, Madge Reid, Bess Noland. At this time the Ladies' Aid is doubled contracts. sponsoring its annual bazaar and picnic supper at the church. The bazaar will open at 1:30 o'clock.

Pattern

You'll never have a more practical rig to wear about the home than the apron frock with reversible fronts. And a prettier model than this would be hard to find. Dainty, frilly ruffling of sontrast trims the neckline and kimono sleeves, and adds a decprative touch to the pocket. The low placed skirt flare creates pleasant animation, A cotton fa-bric is just right to use, especially if you choose a gay one.

Pattern 2370 may be ordered only in sizes 16 to 20 and 34 to 44. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards $6 inch fabric and 1/4 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step lewing instructions included with this pattern.
