

LIQUOR LAWS BOTHER DADS

Silverton Attempts to Re-vamp to Conform to Federal Regulation

SILVERTON, Dec. 6.—Ordinance 255 relating to intoxicating liquor, occupied the greater part of the time at the meeting of the city council Monday night...

Asks Use of Lot Another matter which brought out some discussion was the request of Otto Pattenger to use a city lot next to his home...

Request from Ward Terry and others to use the city rock quarry for the newly formed rifle club was read...

Fire Matter Up Again Ordinance 256 was passed at its first and second reading. The ordinance pertains to the fire department answering calls within a mile outside of Silverton...

The Pythian lodge was allowed a refund on a license bought for two benefit dinners...

Mayor Eastman reported that a special session of the city council would be held before the holidays to clear up all unfinished business possible...

In January Earl Garver becomes mayor of Silverton. Garver is serving on the council at the present time and his term is not as yet expired...

Canney is Talked For Bean Growing Area Near Stayton WEST STATTON, Dec. 6.—The bean growers of West Stayton and vicinity met at the Darcy office Saturday night to have a discussion about a cannery...

Voget is Mayor of Hubbard Again; Flu Closes High School HUBBARD, Dec. 6.—Garfield Voget was re-elected mayor of Hubbard at the city election held Monday...

Christmas Party Is Slated Today For 4-M Members MACLEAY, Dec. 6.—The Christmas party of the 4-M club will be held Wednesday at the Macleay hall with each member to bring a ten cent present...

Clara Dickson Files Papers for Divorce DALLAS, Dec. 6.—Clara J. Dickson filed a suit for divorce from Carl F. Dickson here Monday on a charge of cruel and inhuman treatment...

FLU IS PREVALENT LIBERTY, Dec. 6.—Flu and grippe is prevalent in the community at present. School attendance has been cut down quite materially the last week, as many pupils are ill.

56 Children Get Pins For 4-H Projects

MT. ANGEL, Dec. 6.—Achievement pins and certificates were awarded to 56 4-H club members of St. Mary's public school who completed their projects for the club year ending October 31.

Certificates for the second year of completed work went to: Theresa Eberle, Rose Schmitz, Leona Heffer, Carl Smith, Evelyn Hasler, Laura D. Smith, Arthur L. Smith, Lawrence Bialy, Thomas Krasner, Eleanor Hasler, Agnes Skonstein, Joseph Buchheit, Viola M. Smith, Donald H. Smith, Henry Galtzoff, Emma Ewert, Angelo Bielemeier, Charles Elmer, Dolores Aspin, Laura Bartlett and Margaret Gilles.

No members were enrolled for the fourth year, but Anna Bigler, Delphine Ebnor and Dolores Ullman received the gold pins given for five years of club work.

MRS. SEXTON RITES HELD AT WOODBURN

WOODBURN, Dec. 6.—Funeral services for Mrs. Louisa Adaline Sexton were held Monday afternoon from Hall's mortuary, with burial at the Belle Passi cemetery. Mrs. Sexton, 76, died Thursday at the home of her son, N. W. Tunnel, of Portland.

Rev. Willard of Portland officiated. Mrs. Fred Holcomb sang, playing her own accompaniment. Louisa Adaline Pentzer was born November 2, 1856, at Hillsborough, Wyanotte county, Ill.

She also leaves a brother, William Pentzer of Chamite, Kan., 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Mrs. Sexton was a member of the Baptist church until 1915, when she joined the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints.

School Program is Voted for Yule at Liberty Gathering

LIBERTY, Dec. 6.—At the special meeting of the Community Club Saturday night was voted to sponsor a school Christmas entertainment. The teachers have planned to present a pageant and will pay the $5 royalty upon it themselves.

The Liberty library will again open to serve the public here. It is again being sponsored by the Community club with Mrs. E. A. Free and Mrs. W. W. Westerman in charge. Books will be loaned for several week periods.

Hubbard is Mayor of Hubbard Again; Flu Closes High School HUBBARD, Dec. 6.—Garfield Voget was re-elected mayor of Hubbard at the city election held Monday...

Commercial Club Meets Wednesday; League is Formed AMITY, Dec. 6.—The regular meeting of the Amity Commercial club will be held Wednesday at noon in the Christian church.

Foreclosure Suit is Filed by T. Edwards DALLAS, Dec. 6.—A suit to foreclose the interests of certain defendants in regard to certain lands was filed in the clerk's office here Monday in case of Thomas J. Edwards and Orli Arcona Edwards, his wife, against A. H. Cedargreen, Ellen Cedargreen, A. E. Otis, and others.

Frank McLench is Buried Near Home Of Childhood Days SPRING VALLEY, Dec. 6.—Frank G. McLench, who died at a Salem hospital, was buried at the Zena cemetery December 5. Mr. McLench was 79 years of age and was born in Spring Valley on the place now owned by Ival R. Utterback.

Health Clinic Held For Mt. Angel Pupils MT. ANGEL, Dec. 6.—The health clinic for the pupils of the Mt. Angel schools was held Tuesday at St. Mary's public school. The basketball teams of Mt. Angel academy will be examined for gold and heart and the second dose of toxoids given to the children of the public school. Members of the 4-H Health club will be given a physical examination.

CHILD HAS JAUNDICE SILVERTON, Dec. 6.—Denzel Legard, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Legard, is suffering from yellow jaundice. Denzel is a first grade pupil and will be forced to miss two or three weeks of his school work.

GIROD'S BROTHER INJURED IN CRASH

Zielinski Entertain With Card Party; H. E. Club Meets Today

QUINABY, Dec. 6.—Word has been received here of an accident in Paris, France, in which Julius Girod, only brother of Arthur Girod who now lives in Salem, lost the sight of both eyes and suffered two broken ribs. The accident, which involved three automobiles and in which 15 persons were injured, occurred about a month ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Zielinski entertained with a card party Saturday night. Four tables of 500 were in play. High scores were won by Frances Ganiard and John Evans and low score by Mrs. Harry Bressler and Robert Diem.

The Chemawa H. E. club is to meet at Mrs. Albert Girod's home Tuesday evening at 2 p. m.

Friends of Albert Girod dropped in on Sunday evening to surprise him and wish him happiness and health for his birthday. Mrs. Girod served supper and the evening was then spent in visiting.

Those present were Fred McCall, H. W. Bowden, Tom Maddox, J. C. Ackerman, Lester Evans, Harry Bressler, Roy Smith, John Ziem, Robert Diem, Hal Keeler and Albert Girod.

WOODBURN, Dec. 6.—Funeral services for Mrs. Louisa Adaline Sexton were held Monday afternoon from Hall's mortuary, with burial at the Belle Passi cemetery.

WALDO HILLS CLUB BAZAAR IS FRIDAY

WALDO HILLS, Dec. 6.—Following the regular meeting of the Waldo Hills club Friday night, December 9, a bazaar will be held. There will be fancy and useful articles for sale and also a candy booth and fish pond.

Five girls that comprise the 4-H sewing club of the Evergreen district met Friday after school at the home of their leader, Ethel Knight.

Rev. Charles L. Dark, who was taken to a Salem hospital the first of last week suffering from a gathering in the head, was able to be brought home Monday.

The Rose Rambler Cooking club which proved so successful last school year, has just now received pins and achievement certificates. Those receiving first year pins were: Myrtle Bliven, Le Roy Albin, Ernest Ogden, Jesse Owre, and David Rickard.

City water extension was made to the home of the George Buefins on Fifth street, the first of the week by officials.

The organization banquet being sponsored by the members of the proposed Kingwood Legion Post and Auxiliary to be held in the Community Hall will be Wednesday evening, Col. H. K. Weiderfeld is to act as toastmaster and something different and interesting is promised.

Unionvale Sunday School's Election Thursday Evening GRAND ISLAND, Dec. 6.—The Unionvale Evangelical Sunday school will hold its annual election of officers Thursday night in the church auditorium.

Jefferson Grange Officers Will be Installed Dec. 17 JEFFERSON, Dec. 6.—There was a large attendance of members at the last meeting of the Morning Star Grange, with 20 additional guests.

Wood Cutting Done By Men of Church To Purchase Paint NORTH SANTIAM, Dec. 6.—A group of men met Saturday at the church here and cut several cords of wood. The wood will be sold and the proceeds used to repair and otherwise repair the church.

St. Luke's Bazaar To be Held Sunday At Community Hall WOODBURN, Dec. 5.—Sunday, December 11, is the date set for the annual bazaar given by St. Luke's parish.

Commercial Club Meets Wednesday; League is Formed AMITY, Dec. 6.—The regular meeting of the Amity Commercial club will be held Wednesday at noon in the Christian church.

Foreclosure Suit is Filed by T. Edwards DALLAS, Dec. 6.—A suit to foreclose the interests of certain defendants in regard to certain lands was filed in the clerk's office here Monday in case of Thomas J. Edwards and Orli Arcona Edwards, his wife, against A. H. Cedargreen, Ellen Cedargreen, A. E. Otis, and others.

Frank McLench is Buried Near Home Of Childhood Days SPRING VALLEY, Dec. 6.—Frank G. McLench, who died at a Salem hospital, was buried at the Zena cemetery December 5. Mr. McLench was 79 years of age and was born in Spring Valley on the place now owned by Ival R. Utterback.

Health Clinic Held For Mt. Angel Pupils MT. ANGEL, Dec. 6.—The health clinic for the pupils of the Mt. Angel schools was held Tuesday at St. Mary's public school.

CHILD HAS JAUNDICE SILVERTON, Dec. 6.—Denzel Legard, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Legard, is suffering from yellow jaundice. Denzel is a first grade pupil and will be forced to miss two or three weeks of his school work.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Dec. 6.—Mrs. Elizabeth Breckenridge will be the hostess for the members of the Kingwood Tea and Talk club Thursday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Smith are being congratulated over the arrival of a son Monday morning. He has been named Leon Ellis Paul, weighed seven and three-fourths pounds and has one broother and three sisters, two of whom were born in China while the Smiths were resident missionaries to that country.

Leonard Capps and Euel Needham of West Salem motored to Hood River the last of last week and brought home a truck load of fine Hood River apples, returning Monday afternoon.

Rev. Charles L. Dark, who was taken to a Salem hospital the first of last week suffering from a gathering in the head, was able to be brought home Monday.

The Rose Rambler Cooking club which proved so successful last school year, has just now received pins and achievement certificates.

City water extension was made to the home of the George Buefins on Fifth street, the first of the week by officials.

The organization banquet being sponsored by the members of the proposed Kingwood Legion Post and Auxiliary to be held in the Community Hall will be Wednesday evening, Col. H. K. Weiderfeld is to act as toastmaster and something different and interesting is promised.

Unionvale Sunday School's Election Thursday Evening GRAND ISLAND, Dec. 6.—The Unionvale Evangelical Sunday school will hold its annual election of officers Thursday night in the church auditorium.

Jefferson Grange Officers Will be Installed Dec. 17 JEFFERSON, Dec. 6.—There was a large attendance of members at the last meeting of the Morning Star Grange, with 20 additional guests.

Wood Cutting Done By Men of Church To Purchase Paint NORTH SANTIAM, Dec. 6.—A group of men met Saturday at the church here and cut several cords of wood. The wood will be sold and the proceeds used to repair and otherwise repair the church.

St. Luke's Bazaar To be Held Sunday At Community Hall WOODBURN, Dec. 5.—Sunday, December 11, is the date set for the annual bazaar given by St. Luke's parish.

Commercial Club Meets Wednesday; League is Formed AMITY, Dec. 6.—The regular meeting of the Amity Commercial club will be held Wednesday at noon in the Christian church.

Foreclosure Suit is Filed by T. Edwards DALLAS, Dec. 6.—A suit to foreclose the interests of certain defendants in regard to certain lands was filed in the clerk's office here Monday in case of Thomas J. Edwards and Orli Arcona Edwards, his wife, against A. H. Cedargreen, Ellen Cedargreen, A. E. Otis, and others.

Frank McLench is Buried Near Home Of Childhood Days SPRING VALLEY, Dec. 6.—Frank G. McLench, who died at a Salem hospital, was buried at the Zena cemetery December 5. Mr. McLench was 79 years of age and was born in Spring Valley on the place now owned by Ival R. Utterback.

Health Clinic Held For Mt. Angel Pupils MT. ANGEL, Dec. 6.—The health clinic for the pupils of the Mt. Angel schools was held Tuesday at St. Mary's public school.

CHILD HAS JAUNDICE SILVERTON, Dec. 6.—Denzel Legard, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Legard, is suffering from yellow jaundice. Denzel is a first grade pupil and will be forced to miss two or three weeks of his school work.

WALDO HILLS CLUB BAZAAR IS FRIDAY

WALDO HILLS, Dec. 6.—Following the regular meeting of the Waldo Hills club Friday night, December 9, a bazaar will be held. There will be fancy and useful articles for sale and also a candy booth and fish pond.

Five girls that comprise the 4-H sewing club of the Evergreen district met Friday after school at the home of their leader, Ethel Knight.

Rev. Charles L. Dark, who was taken to a Salem hospital the first of last week suffering from a gathering in the head, was able to be brought home Monday.

The Rose Rambler Cooking club which proved so successful last school year, has just now received pins and achievement certificates.

City water extension was made to the home of the George Buefins on Fifth street, the first of the week by officials.

The organization banquet being sponsored by the members of the proposed Kingwood Legion Post and Auxiliary to be held in the Community Hall will be Wednesday evening, Col. H. K. Weiderfeld is to act as toastmaster and something different and interesting is promised.

Unionvale Sunday School's Election Thursday Evening GRAND ISLAND, Dec. 6.—The Unionvale Evangelical Sunday school will hold its annual election of officers Thursday night in the church auditorium.

Jefferson Grange Officers Will be Installed Dec. 17 JEFFERSON, Dec. 6.—There was a large attendance of members at the last meeting of the Morning Star Grange, with 20 additional guests.

Wood Cutting Done By Men of Church To Purchase Paint NORTH SANTIAM, Dec. 6.—A group of men met Saturday at the church here and cut several cords of wood. The wood will be sold and the proceeds used to repair and otherwise repair the church.

St. Luke's Bazaar To be Held Sunday At Community Hall WOODBURN, Dec. 5.—Sunday, December 11, is the date set for the annual bazaar given by St. Luke's parish.

Commercial Club Meets Wednesday; League is Formed AMITY, Dec. 6.—The regular meeting of the Amity Commercial club will be held Wednesday at noon in the Christian church.

Foreclosure Suit is Filed by T. Edwards DALLAS, Dec. 6.—A suit to foreclose the interests of certain defendants in regard to certain lands was filed in the clerk's office here Monday in case of Thomas J. Edwards and Orli Arcona Edwards, his wife, against A. H. Cedargreen, Ellen Cedargreen, A. E. Otis, and others.

Frank McLench is Buried Near Home Of Childhood Days SPRING VALLEY, Dec. 6.—Frank G. McLench, who died at a Salem hospital, was buried at the Zena cemetery December 5. Mr. McLench was 79 years of age and was born in Spring Valley on the place now owned by Ival R. Utterback.

Health Clinic Held For Mt. Angel Pupils MT. ANGEL, Dec. 6.—The health clinic for the pupils of the Mt. Angel schools was held Tuesday at St. Mary's public school.

CHILD HAS JAUNDICE SILVERTON, Dec. 6.—Denzel Legard, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Legard, is suffering from yellow jaundice. Denzel is a first grade pupil and will be forced to miss two or three weeks of his school work.

MISSION SOCIETY CONDUCTS BENEFIT

CLEAR LAKE, Dec. 6.—The Ladies Missionary society is putting on a program and supper at the Clear Lake church Friday night, December 9, with proceeds to go to Rev. Scheuerman.

The literary program was attended by a large crowd. It was decided to have the next literary program on the next time would come too near Christmas.

Club Continues Job Of Clearing Debts On School's Piano RICKY, Dec. 6.—The community club is determined to clear up the debt on the school piano and is sponsoring a dance and lunch at Macleay hall Thursday, December 8, to raise funds.

Thompson-Glutch OPTOMETRISTS 333 State St.

COMMUNITY CLUB TO MEET MONDAY

TURNER, Dec. 6.—The Community club will meet Monday night, December 13. The program will feature Christmas and other miscellaneous numbers.

The Methodist Men's Brotherhood met Monday night with President Ivan Hadley presiding. Devotions were conducted by the chaplain, H. S. Bond.

The Methodist Ladies Aid society will hold the December silver tea at the home of Mrs. I. H. Small Friday afternoon, with friends welcome.

W. C. T. U. TO MEET LYONS, Dec. 6.—The Local W. C. T. U. organizations are invited to attend an all day rally at the Mill City Christian church Wednesday.

Your Eyes Deserve the Best of Care We give you the double service of optometrist and practical optician at the one cost.

Thompson-Glutch OPTOMETRISTS 333 State St.

Every Article Guaranteed! PUBLIC AUCTION SALE! We Are Not Going Out Of Business

Burnett Bros. Public Auction SALE OF JEWELRY ENABLES YOU TO BUY THE GIFTS YOU WANT TO GIVE AT THE PRICE YOU WANT TO PAY

Two Auctions Daily 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. Burnett Bros. S. L. STEVENS, Auctioneer Ted W. S. Wilson, Assistant 457 State St. Salem, Oregon