MacDowell Chorus Program Much Anticipated

The first program of the year to be presented by the Salem MacDowell club is being anticipated by a large share of Salem public for December 13.

Miss Mary Schultz is the soloist for the program which this year will present both men and women in choral numbers which bear the stamp of the beauty of Christmas music.

Miss Schultz spent 12 years in New York city where she studied, taught and engaged in concert work. For three years she appeared in one of the Sunday afternoon radio broadcasts of the Federation of Churches of Greater New York over the NBC network. She was director also of a trio which broadcast over the Columbia system.

Last spring Miss Schultz was asked to appear as guest artist with the Portland MacDowell club and before the well-known Derthick club of Oregon City.

Her work has merited praise from papers both in the east and west. From the New York Herald-Tribune comes this comment: "Miss Schultz has distinct gifts as a violinist and played with a delicate precision of tone and technical assurance. And from the Nassau Daily Star, Long Island, "Miss Schultz immediately established herself as an artist of rare and remarkable ability—revealing musicianship, depth of feeling, and warmth of sympathy."

Her reception from her audience for the coming program will be one of splendid anticipation.

Rehearsal Proves Gala Evening

The rehearsal in the studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. F. Roberts, of the MacDowell club chorus Tuesday night proved a delightful one with the entire group of both men and women present for practice of the program which will be presented December 13 at the Grand theatre. The chorus was assisted Tuesday night by violin, piano and pipe organ.

Following the rehearsal hour Miss Tartar acted as hostess for an informal social evening. Mrs. W. S. Levens presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Harris-Lietz, Miss Billie Cupper and Miss Margaret Heitzel assisted in serving.

Mrs. Harriett Stephens of Los Angeles will be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Thomas for over the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Stephens has many friends in Salem.

Miss Helen Breithaupt and Miss Irene Breithaupt will be speakers before the Independence Garden club meeting Friday night.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Paris approves the utter simplicity of this afternoon frock... a fashion that will prove becoming to every type of figure. With soft cowl to flatter the face, puffed sleeves for chic and interesting seaming for slimness... it is a gem. Perfect for those lovely rough crinkled crepes or satins in one of the delectable new shades.

Pattern 2479 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 39-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and pattern number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED.

The fall and winter edition of the Anne Adams catalog is ready! Charming, flattering models—32 pages of the newest and best home, street and formal frocks—cleverly designed styles for large figures—and beautiful, practical models for juniors and kiddies. Lovely lingerie patterns, and suggestions for gifts that can be easily and inexpensively made, are also included. Send for the new catalog. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents. Address all mail orders to Statesman Pattern department, 343 W. 17th street, New York City.

Rebekahs Enjoy Special Program

After the regular business meeting Monday night the Rebekahs were entertained by Brother Rebekahs, under the direction of Thomas McLeod.

Hawaiian musical numbers were given by Joe Schaefer, Russ Eberly and Percy Cooper; solo numbers by Orvil Malm; french harp and piano numbers by Gus Erickson and Charles McElroy; a radio broadcast speech by Robert Hendrickson; old-time musical numbers by Hollywood Pioneers orchestra, George Forzard, Leonard McLeod and Ralph Branch.

At a late hour after the third degree had been conferred upon those elected, refreshments were served by the Brothers in the beautifully decorated dining room of the I. O. O. F. hall.

Kingswood—Tuesday afternoon was spent at sewing for a needy family of West Salem when members of the Laurel Social Hour club met at the E. W. Emmett home where work will be completed at the K. P. Mobbly home this week at a special meeting of the club.

Mrs. E. M. Saunders of Salem contributed to the enjoyment of the afternoon with a group of piano numbers and Mrs. Coffel gave several violin selections. Four special guests were Miss Viola Jennings, Mrs. Ivan Schuyler of Dallas, Mrs. Saunders and Miss Eral Saunders.

Plans were completed for the annual Christmas party and dinner which will be given Thursday, Dec. 20 at the K. P. Mobbly home.

Mission Bottom.—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Townsend entertained at dinner recently honoring Paul Jones and son Stanley who celebrated their birthdays jointly. Following the dinner hour additional guests bidden to the Townsend home were Mr. and Mrs. P. Felton, Duane and Velle Felton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. M. Landers, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jelders, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Watts and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Barnett, Mrs. H. H. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. William Meitloff and children, Miss Evelyn Cain, Betty Landers, Dorothy Elaine and Ruth Townsend, Paul Jr. and Evans Jones, and Arminia, Darrell and Bertha Jean Jones.

Hubbard.—Susie Moore was elected most excellent chief when the Pythian Sisters held their annual election Tuesday night at the Pythian hall. Other officers elected were: Senior, Amanda Dimick; Junior, Lenore Scholl; M. of R. & C., Caroline Smolinsky; M. of F., Catherine Will; manager, Marie de Lespinasse; protector, Wilma Lettler; guard, Orva Barrett; installing officer, Wilma Lettler; pianist, Edith Painter; captain of the degree staff, Corbie de Lespinasse; press correspondent, Orva Barrett.

Mountain View.—Mr. and Mrs. William J. Schwartz were hosts Saturday night with a "500" party. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. William Knower, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Clarke and Lester Lippert. Mr. and Mrs. Knower won high score and Mrs. Gibson and Roscoe Clarke consolation.

The executive committee of the auxiliary to the State Medical society will meet today in Portland at the home of the new president, Mrs. Wilson Johnson. Two members of this committee are from Salem: Mrs. Vernon Douglas, district vice-president, and Mrs. Burton Myers, membership chairman and local club president.

Women of Salem Dakota club will meet Friday with Mrs. C. F. Lilly at her home, 437 South Liberty street, for a social afternoon.

HOW TO RECAPTURE BEAUTY

Good looks are often a matter of good health. Sparkling eyes and a smooth complexion are outward signs of an abundant vitality.

To be charming, conserve your health. Guard against constipation. It so often brings wrinkles, sallow skins, dull eyes, pimples.

Try the pleasant "cereal way" to protect yourself from constipation. Science has proved that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron, which helps build up the blood.

The "bulk" in this delicious cereal is much like that of lettuce. How much safer than abusing your system with pills and drugs—so often habit-forming.

Two tablespoonsfuls daily will correct most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Music Teachers Party Delightful

An outstanding meeting of the year for the Salem Music Teachers association was that for which Mrs. Joy Turner Moses was hostess at her home Tuesday night. The occasion was the regular meeting of the group and the observation of the annual Christmas party.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Moses in German peasant costume and were ushered into guest rooms gay with two decorated Christmas trees and much holly and mistletoe about in effective arrangement.

A brief business meeting was presided over by Miss Dorothy Pearce and at this time the name of Miss Lois Riggs was presented and accepted into membership of the association.

Following the business meeting the program consisting of legends of Christmas in foreign lands was given. Mrs. Moses gave that of Germany, Mrs. P. F. Thomas that of the Swedish, Christmas, Mrs. Robey Ratcliffe told of the origin, fall and rise of Christmas in England, and Mrs. Frank Churchill gave the legend of "The Little Fir Tree" as characteristic of the American Christmas.

Guests were seated at small tables, upon which glowed red tapers, at the coffee hour. During the social hour Miss Elma Weller played Christmas carols and the guests sang. P. F. Thomas acted as Santa Claus and distributed gifts amid much gaiety.

The next meeting will be in January at the home of Miss Dorothy Pearce and at this time Dorothy Vinton Scott will speak on China and will show motion pictures to illustrate his talk.

Guests Tuesday night included Miss Elma Weller, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Robey Ratcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moses, Mrs. David Eason, Mrs. Mrs. Lena Waters, Mrs. Walter Denton, Mrs. Henry Lee, Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps, Mrs. Jessie F. Bush, Mrs. Ethel Roberts and Miss Margaret Hoag.

Highland Church Revival to Close Sunday Night

Next Sunday night will be the closing service of the Sunday school revival at the Highland church. A special effort is being made that the remaining services may be even better than those that are past. Children's services are being held each afternoon until and including Friday under the direction of Mrs. Rinard. Friday evening the junior choir will sing and Saturday evening the quartet of the Bembo boys class will sing.

Special music is also planned for the other services. Rev. Rinard will preach at the 7:15 services upon the following themes: Thursday, "The Dark Hour"; Friday, "The Sign of the Hour"; Saturday, "A Disputed Fact."

CUSTOMER-BANDITTS GET STORE'S CASH

PORTLAND, Dec. 7.—(AP)—While hundreds of homework bound shoppers and office workers were surging past on the sidewalk outside, two men held up the clerk in a downtown shoe shop and escaped with a pair of new shoes and an undetermined amount of money last night.

One of the two ordered a pair of shoes from Russell Kish, the clerk, who was alone in the store. When Kish had placed the shoes on the man's feet and laced them up, the "customer" suddenly whipped out a revolver and ordered the clerk to a rear room. The robbers tied his hands and feet. Then removed the day's receipts from the cash register.

Two customers who entered the store as the robbers were leaving released Kish from his bonds.

Another pair of holdup men bought a package of gum from H. W. Cameron, clerk in a downtown drug store tonight, then confronted him with a revolver, and stole $30 from the cash register. Four streetcar operators were held up just before dawn today in various parts of the city.
