

STUDENT DEBATES GROW IN INTEREST

SILVERTON, Dec. 8.—Debates have held the center of the Silverton junior high school the past week. The question under debate was Resolved, That Admiral Byrd has added more to science and our knowledge of the world than any other living aviator.

Taking the affirmative in room 26 were Miriam Mulkey and Lucille Wood against Irene Nafziger and Florence Hallett from room 34. The judges, Eleanor Moeen, Charles Hogland and Miss Olivia DeGulre, gave the decision to the affirmatives.

The negatives won from room 4 over the affirmatives from room 3A. Here the latter were Jean Tomlinson and Cerul Sypher with Esther Lockren and Verna Gilstrom upholding the negative side. Judges were Norman Paulson and Miss Ruth Lawrence.

The affirmatives again won when room 7, represented by Ruth Lewis and Orpha Leslie won over Alma Tostenson and Walter Morhan taking the negatives from room 5. Judges were Doris Moseng, Louise Holm and Mildred Wharton.

Room 4, affirmative, represented by Arline Marquand and Helen Lockren, won over room 3, negative, represented by Harold Odman and Eitel Hardie.

The affirmative again won when Bob Arthur and Grover Lichty of room 34 defeated Helen Canada and Virginia Bilyeu of room 38. Judges were Hilda Pounder and Howard Morrison.

Two negative groups who won were Marjorie Anderson and Maxine Morgan from room 8 debating against Ruth Shepard and Lucille Archibald from room 2. Alma Rostenon and Walter Morgan upholding the negative against Robert White and Olive Green of room 5. Judges in the first of these two matches were Alice Miles, Celia Hannan and in the last were Opal Bolme and Elaine Clower.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Dec. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Hill are entertaining Mrs. Hill's mother, Mrs. Laura Moss, her brother, Robert Moss, and an aunt, Mrs. Tillie Chase of Gladstone, for a few days. Mr. Moss, who is a government employe during the summer months at Orofino, Idaho, has been very ill but is now able to be up and about again.

Building permits were issued by the city recorder this week to Mr. and Mrs. Millard A. Price to erect a residence to cost $1000 on Cascade drive, and to Mr. and Mrs. George Buffin of Fifth street to cost $100. N. T. McCoy, who is moving this week into the James residence recently vacated by the Mrs. Rupert Parks family, 1362 Plaza, has the contract for the erection of the Dr. Price home. Both residences are now under construction.

A glee club of mixed voices has been organized in the West Salem public school, with some of the teachers directing it.

Miss Helen Butler, sister of Miss Ruth Butler, third grade teacher here, is her guest this week. Miss Butler taught in the public schools of Dallas for a number of years and this year began her teaching in Corvallis, but was taken ill and had to give it up for this semester.

At the business meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Ford Memorial church held at the home of Mrs. Edward Brock Wednesday afternoon a number of financial matters were brought up and settled. Mrs. Frank Forrester had the leading of devotionals and Mrs. W. D. Phillips conducted the meeting. The women decided to purchase a new range instead of having the old one at the parsonage repaired and a committee of three composed of Mrs. W. D. Phillips, Mrs. John Evans and Mrs. J. I. Miller was named to purchase one.

There will be a Christmas silver tea held at the home of Mrs. Clarence A. Guderian on Riverview drive and Cascade on Kingwood terrace the afternoon of December 21, with Mrs. C. A. Guderian, Mrs. Eugene Krebs, Mrs. Donald Kuhn and Mrs. Lloyd T. Hill joint hostesses for the affair.

Teacher, Pupils Meet
Surprise guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Austin were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nolte of Klamath Falls. About 30 years ago at Des Moines, Ia., Mrs. Austin was the teacher of Mrs. Nolte, then a schoolgirl in the third grade, and this former pupil this week looked up her teacher of long ago, when she and her husband came to Salem to attend an insurance convention. The Noltes now have three grown children.

As the snow flurries began and the mercury began to drop Wednesday, J. L. Austin began to blanket his bees. Each year as the cold winter weather approaches he covers his many stands of bees with tar paper and burlap sack. Inasmuch as the bees usually winter well, it is probably advisable, though there is a novelty in the procedure.

Pratum Farmers to Grind Wheat Free If Brought Today

PRATUM, Dec. 8.—Friday afternoon, December 9, both Claud Ramsden and Fred de Vries will grind all wheat free of charge that is brought to either place to be used for breakfast food for needy families in Salem. All that is asked is that the wheat be delivered at either place by Friday noon. It will be ground into whole wheat breakfast food and delivered at Salem.

Since money has become almost extinct as a medium of exchange, other sources are resorted to. Fred de Vries exchanged a load of hogs for a load of beef cattle yesterday. The trade was made with Mr. Dow at Middle Grove.

NEW YEAR'S DINNER IS VOTED FOR CLUB

AUMSVILLE, Dec. 8.—The regular community club meeting was held at the school house Tuesday night, with John M. A. presiding. It was voted to have the annual New Year's day community dinner again this year, but it was voted to discontinue the monthly dinners.

Written questions on the poultry business were discussed. A similar discussion will be held at each meeting on the various farm projects of this community.

A short interesting program followed: Community singing, violin solos, Miss Mabel Kullander accompanied by Miss Nera Ham; reading, Mrs. Elin Englund; songs, high school girls' glee club; play by Louise Hieberger, Mabel Kullander, Wayne Ransom and Virgie Bradley, directed by Miss Gladys Burgess.

The DeMoss Concert company from Olympia, Wash., will give a concert at the school Tuesday night, December 13. The DeMoss company has traveled all over the United States and abroad.

Free Program For Woodburn People

WOODBURN, Dec. 8.—A free musical program and entertainment will be presented Thursday night, December 15, in the auditorium of the high school. A feature of the program will be vocal music by members of the high school glee clubs, who are to sing at the county music program the next night, December 16.

The girls' glee club, the girls' quartet, Daisy and Hazel Shook, Vera Culp and Helen Woodfin, and the boys' quartet, Carroll Olson, Wesley Eby, Dennis Froenke and Peter Larson, will furnish music. There will also be a song and dance number by Helen Woodfin and Carroll Olson, and a short play by students in the expression classes of the school.

It's The Smart Thing!

THE OTHER DAY ONE OF OUR CUSTOMERS ASKED TO HAVE A PACKAGE OF SUGAR WEIGH IN HIS PRESENCE—the PACKAGE WAS WEIGHED FOR HIM AND THE SCALES SHOWED HIM HE WAS GETTING FULL WEIGHT. WHILE WE HAVE ALWAYS BELIEVED THE BUYING PUBLIC SHOULD WEIGH THEIR PURCHASES VERY FEW PEOPLE DO SO. WE DO NOT MEAN TO INFER THAT THERE ARE STORES INTENTIONALLY GIVING SHORT WEIGHT, THO WE DO HEAR A LOT OF RUMORS ABOUT SHORT WEIGHTS. BE THAT AS IT MAY, ITS WELL ENOUGH TO WEIGH YOUR PURCHASES SO MUCH FOR THAT—NOW WE MAKE THIS STATEMENT NOT AS A BOAST EITHER, THAT YOUR MONEY WILL BUY AS MUCH OR MORE FOOD DAY IN DAY OUT AT THE MARKET THAN CAN BE HAD ANYWHERE IN THE NORTHWEST. WHILE ITS DESIRABLE TO MAKE A PROFFIT AT ALL TIMES. WE WOULD NOT FEEL IT FAIR TO ASK THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE SO GENEROUSLY SUPPORTED US IN BETTER TIMES, TO EXACT OUR POUND OF FLESH NOW — ESPECIALLY WHEN WE ARE NOT FORCED TO DO SO BY A BOSS LIVEING IN SOME DISTANT CITY WITH NO OTHER INTEREST IN THE COMMUNITY THAN THE PROFFIT RECEIVED FROM IT.
