Art Exhibit Event Of Today

A Japanese art exhibit and silver tea will be held at Leslie Junior high school this afternoon between the hours of three and five o'clock.

Mrs. I. M. Andrews, art instructor, has just received an interesting collection of Japanese pictures, about 75 prints of good size and 150 smaller prints all in color.

They were published in Tokyo by a house established 200 years ago and are entirely hand-blocked on mulberry paper from cherry wood blocks. The colors used are made from vegetable dyes.

Many of these prints are reproductions of famous masterpieces by Hokusai, Hiroshige, and many other Ukiyoe artists as well as prints designed by the leading contemporary Japanese artists.

Mrs. Laoline Clark and Mrs. D. J. McLellan will pour. The Misses Frances Maeda and Jessie Fukuda, two Willamette students will serve, dressed in Japanese costumes.

An invitation is extended to parents and all art lovers to avail themselves of this opportunity.

The program which will feature the regular Friday night lobby program of the Y. M. C. A. this week will be one to call forth much attention.

A one act play, Irish in character, will be presented by Miss Genevieve Thayer and Bruce Spaulding, and special vocal numbers will be given by Miss Josephine Albert and Miss Rosalind Van Winkle will give special piano selections.

The program of Miss Albert and Miss Van Winkle follows: Miss Albert will sing "Ombra Mai Fu" from the opera "Xerxes by Handel"; "Come to the Fair".

Martin: "Ah, Love but a Day", poem by Robert Browning and music by Mrs. H. H. Beach. Miss Van Winkle will play "Reflexes dans L'eau", Debussy; "El Buffon", David Segalier; "Chanel Winds", Bergh.

The public is invited to this program as to all others of the Y. M. C. A. programs.

Miss Lelia Rigdon who has been spending the past few months in the south visiting with relatives and friends will return to Salem in the course of the next three weeks. Her nephew, W. C. Clarke left Salem this week for the south by motor to meet Miss Rigdon and accompany her home. Miss Rigdon has been a guest in Los Beach, at Los Angeles, with Miss Elva Nelson, sister of Walter Winslow, who is teaching as special instructor to small actors and actresses who must be in school even though they are working, and in San Diego with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Townsend, former residents and cousins of Miss Rigdon.

West Salem—Mrs. E. L. Miller was hostess to the Ace High card club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Plans were formulated for the Christmas party, to be a no-host affair.

A unique feature of Mrs. Miller's hospitality was the individual wicker roast at the cozy fireplace that accompanied the delightful cafeteria luncheon.

High score went to Mrs. Don Hendrie and others present were Mrs. Al Ulman, Mrs. Ralph Curtis, Mrs. Mark Wilbur, Mrs. Loren Howe, Mrs. Burdette, Mrs. Murray Wade and Mrs. E. L. Miller.

Willing Workers Enjoy Meeting

The Willing Workers class entertained at the home of Mrs. W. B. Macy Thursday afternoon and at the business hour officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. Effie Cole will serve as president; Mrs. Lee Schomaker, vice president; Mrs. Ava Lind, assisting secretary; Mrs. Rose Poe, treasurer.

Following the business meeting a program was given with Mrs. Hugh McCallum, a guest presenting a short talk, and Mrs. N. Reasonor, a group of solos. At the refreshment hour Mrs. Macy was assisted by the committee of hostesses, Mrs. V. R. Hickethier, Mrs. A. L. Keaton, M. Frank Jirak, Mrs. C. R. Lee and Mrs. Glen Hunter. Guests included Mrs. K. Smith, Mrs. D. A. Schomaker, Mrs. Albert Cox, Mrs. A. J. Arnett, Mrs. C. L. Reasonor, Mrs. E. J. Reasonor, Mrs. Guy Drill, Mrs. Rich Reimann, Mrs. Hugh McCallum, Miss Ina Fishback, Mrs. J. D. Sears, Mrs. C. E. Bowen, Mrs. C. J. Emrick, Mrs. W. H. Gardner, Mrs. T. L. Lind, Mrs. C. R. Pritchard, Mrs. E. A. Stinke, Mrs. O. F. Wegner, Mrs. E. W. Cooley, Mrs. D. B. Simpson, Mrs. C. C. Cole, Mrs. Irene Wirt, Mrs. Will May, and Mrs. J. A. Murphy.

Jefferson—Mrs. Joseph Knox was hostess to the women of the Millersburg Wednesday Embroidery club Wednesday, at an all day quilting party. Bouquets of fall cut flowers were placed about the room. The annual Christmas tree and exchange of gifts will be December 14.

Those present were Mrs. L. W. Drager, Mrs. Thomas Farlow, Mrs. James Gourley, Mrs. L. K. Conser, Mrs. James E. Arnold, Mrs. Dale Arnold, Mrs. Harold Fisher and daughters, Helen and Lavonne, Mrs. Raymond Fisher and daughter Betty, Mrs. H. F. Warren, Mrs. Virginia Daniels, Mrs. L. L. Harrison, Mrs. Harley Burke and the hostess, Mrs. Knox.

Mill City—An all-day meeting was held by members of the Marion county W. C. T. U. Wednesday with the members of the Mill City Union as hostesses. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Among the speakers were Mrs. Buck, Mrs. Layman and Mrs. Lyle all of Salem. Mrs. Buck is vice president and Mrs. Layman is assistant of the county union. Mrs. R. C. Rundt is president of the Mill City Union.

The meeting was well attended and much interest is being taken by the local members.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
It's too cunning for words... this little kiddie frock. It has a demure yoke, which they all love, and captivating pleats neatly topstitched, to animate the skirt. There are long puffed sleeves, and bloomers, too, mind you. Of course, to correspond perfectly the back of the dress is the same as the front. Use one of those gay cotton prints and you'll have bewitching results.

Pattern 2229 may be ordered only in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 4 requires 2 1/2 yards 36-inch fabric and 2 1/2 yards binding. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED.

The fall and winter edition of the Anne Adams Pattern catalog is ready! Charming, flattering models—32 pages of the newest and best house, street and formal frocks—clearly designed styles for large figures—and beautiful, practical models for juniors and kiddies. Lovely finger patterns, and suggestions for gifts that can be easily and inexpensively made, are also included. Send for the new catalog. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents. Send all mail orders to Statesman Pattern department, 248 W. 17th street, New York City.
