FROZEN PIPES CAUSE TROUBLE

At Least for Time; all Sections Irked at Antics Of Weather

SILVERTON, Dec. 9.—Charles Davis, superintendent of the Silvertown water department, and his helper, T. Blust, enjoyed a cold piece of work early Friday morning. Before 10 o'clock the two men were out at the Abiqua intake, cracking the ice from the settling box, so that the water could flow into the reservoir.

Davis and Blust have been kept busy since the cold weather arrived turning off water and correcting water evils from the frozen pipes.

By Friday afternoon every plumber in town was reported as being "out" when further calls for help arrived. The fire department was called out four times Thursday and once before noon Friday. A late call Thursday was to the Roy McKenstie home at 1128 South Water street, where a lantern, used for thawing pipes, had upset. The Friday morning call was to the J. Gibson home, at 317 West Main street. This was a chimney fire. Not much damage was done at any of the five fires.

LYONS, Dec. 9.—Old Man Winter arrived here in person Wednesday night, bringing with him a terrific east wind and a drop in temperature to 18 degrees above today. Cars are freezing on the highway and everybody is kept busy trying to keep warm. At noon today the thermometer was at 23 degrees with all indications of a much lower drop tonight than Wednesday night.

LIBERTY, Dec. 9.—The sudden cold weather certainly caught everyone unprepared for it. Even the local school furnace was not on the job Thursday. After all manner of stoking and persuasion, the primary room thermometer reached only 50 degrees and the sixth grade room 60 degrees, these being on the north side of the building. Only nine primary pupils were present and they were sent home at noon to avoid catching cold.

FOUR 4-H GROUPS FORMED, MT. ANGEL

MT. ANGEL, Dec. 9.—Four new 4H clubs have been organized at the grade school here for the new club year. Those enrolled for the Health club, under the leadership of Anna Bigler, are: Virginia Kohoe, Harold Bourbonnais, Consuello Grogush, Margaret Frank, Michael Weilton, Wilhelmina Schaffers, Margaret Guitard, Joseph Hettwer, Josephine Blay, La Vita May, Gertrude Schaecher, Virginia Koppes and Catherine Clouse.

Rotary May Erect Cabin for Troop One, Boy Scouts

Decision to sponsor plans for erecting a cabin meeting-place for Boy Scouts of troop one was reached by members of the Rotary club scout committee who met at the market coffee shop yesterday noon. The group determined the cost of the undertaking. Dr. B. F. POUND, Lee M. Unruh, and W. J. Busick, to seek out a suitable building site.

Percentage of Accident Claim Appeals Small

Charges that refusal by the state industrial accident commission to pay many claims filed by injured workmen, had resulted in a material increase in the number of appeals to the courts, were denied Friday by Charles T. Early, chairman of the commission.

Dog Licenses to Be Cut Down to Dollar, Expected

Dog licenses for 1933 in Marion county will probably be reduced to $1 for males and $2 for females with the penalty for late payment after March 1 put at $1 for either class of dog. This was indicated Friday at the court-house by Charles T. Early, county clerk.

Foreclosure on Property Asked

Five actions to foreclose mortgage notes were instituted in circuit court here Thursday. Plaintiffs ask that delinquent taxes, interest and costs be added to the principal sum sought in the foreclosures. Suits filed were: New York Life Insurance company against Florence M. Parr, and others, $2000; K. T. Tye against M. I. C. Arrard and others, $1,000; Union Central Life Insurance company against Herman W. Steinke and others, $1392; Z. J.

JUDGE BEAN GIVEN LARGEST PLURALITY

Roosevelt's Plurality of 77,852 Second Highest Canvass Reveals

The largest plurality of any person on the ballot at the recent general election was polled by Henry J. Bean, non-partisan candidate for reelection to the office of associate justice of the state supreme court, according to the official canvass completed by the state department yesterday.

Bean led Roy R. Hewitt, his opponent, by 77,852 votes. Bean polled a total of 209,819 votes while Hewitt received 132,497 votes.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic nominee for president, secured the second highest plurality, with a lead of 77,852 over Herbert Hoover, his republican opponent. The official vote, as announced by the secretary of state, gave Roosevelt 213,871; Hoover 138,019; Thomas, socialist, 15,450; Reynolds, socialist-labor, 1730, and Foster, communist, 1681.

Rufus C. Holman, republican, obtained a plurality of 49,595 votes over J. W. Maloney, democrat, in the contest for state treasurer. Holman received 137,726 votes as against 138,221 for Maloney. Frederick Steiner, republican nominee for United States senator, led Walter Gleason, democrat, by 49,978 votes. Steiner polled 136,210 votes, while Gleason received 137,337 votes.

Hal E. Hoas, republican, for secretary of state, defeated Ray H. Wiscarver, democrat, by 31-

611 votes. The official canvass credited Hoas with 185,123 votes and Wiscarver 153,512 votes. In the contest for attorney general I. H. Van Winkle, republican incumbent, led Alfred P. Dobson, democrat, by 17,345 votes. Van Winkle received a total of 167,264 votes while Dobson polled 149,916 votes.

Official returns in the congressional contests gave the following:

First district, James W. Mott, republican, 32,442; Harvey G. Starkweather, democrat, 60,066.

Second district, Walter M. Piers, democrat, 30,219; Robert R. Butler, republican, 26,169.

Third district, Charles T. Martin, democrat, 74,397; Homer D. Angell, republican, 40,659.

Benton was the only county in Oregon which was carried by President Hoover. He received approximately 1000 plurality in that county. Close contests for president were reported in Douglas, Hood River and Lane counties. Roosevelt's lead in these counties ranged from 300 to 600 votes.

The vote cast at the general election was the largest in the history of Oregon.

'GRANDMA' THOMAS DIES, WEST SALEM

Mrs. W. F. "Grandma" Thomas, well-known resident of West Salem where she had lived for the past 24 years, died unexpectedly Friday after suffering a paralytic stroke. "Grandma" Thomas preceded her in death last June.

Mrs. Thomas was a member of the Ford Memorial church. She was born in Indiana, later moving to Missouri, then to Oklahoma and Kansas and from there to Oregon in 1903. In Oregon, they settled first near Gaston, then coming to West Salem.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Salem mortuary, with Rev. John Evans of West Salem officiating and interment in the City View cemetery.

Mrs. Thomas is survived by four children: Arthur Thomas of Belfountain, Albert of Salem, L. W. of West Salem and Mrs. Frank Lamb of West Salem.

100 PERSONS WORK IN LOCAL BAKERIES

The 10 bakeries in Salem have a payroll of over 100 employees and manufacture bread and pastries to the value of $240,854 annually, pointed out Ralph H. Kleiting Thursday in the first of a series of short talks to be given at Lions club meetings concerning Salem industries. Kleiting listed specific expenditures of the 10 bakeries each year as follows:

Flour $43,473.17, miscellaneous ingredients $53,357.98, wrapping $18,267.42, miscellaneous expenses $16,201.91, taxes $2745, insurance $3473.46, automobile supplies $19,289.50, and labor $78,907.18.

"Our Lion member, Art Gardner, is sales manager for the Cherry City Baking company," said Kleiting. "This company employs 54 Salem people. The bakery has a capacity of 18,000 loaves of bread. They supply Salem and territory within 50 miles of here. Their plant occupies a full quarter block. They produce a complete line of bakery goods including cakes, doughnuts and 54 different kinds of bread. Gardner has been with the Cherry City Baking company eight years."

Kleiting added that the local bakeries are an important factor in relief work and reported that the Cherry City company donates $200 worth of foodstuffs monthly to charities here.

We Have Just Completed Three Big Deals in Ladies' Silk Hose, Leather Handbags and Men's Sox

Last year we were very fortunate in our buying and gave the greatest values offered in Salem and at that time we were sure we would never be able to approach either the values or our tremendous sales of the month of December. This year after holding out with the manufacturers to the last minute they have come to our terms and we have confirmed orders by wire that will give us the opportunity to offer even greater values than in our record breaking season of 1931.
