JUNIOR RED CROSS HELPS WITH NEEDY

MT. ANGEL, Dec. 14.—The American Junior Red Cross of this community is busily preparing to make Christmas happy for the needy families hereabout. The eighth grade members are collecting food and clothing this week, which the relief committee of this town will then distribute to those in need. The seventh grade is devoting its spare time to collecting and fixing up old toys that will be sent to the children at St. Agnes baby home.

Last year, the first year St. Mary's pupils were enrolled in the Junior Red Cross, the eighth grade used the money they would have spent in an interchange of gifts among themselves, to buy pencils and tablets for the poor children of Marion county. These were distributed through the county school superintendent's office. The third grade gave toys to the children of the county hospitals.

ARRIVAL OF ITALY'S NEW OCEAN PRIDE

The palatial new Italian liner, Conte di Savoia, is shown as she got her first glimpse of New York's famed skyline as she steamed majestically into the harbor to complete her maiden voyage. Left insert is Captain Antonio Lena, commander of the vessel; and at right is Gennaro Amatruda, hero of the liner's first voyage. When in mid-ocean a dynamo valve broke loose just below the vessel's waterline, Amatruda was lowered over the side and clung to the boat.

SKATING POPULAR FOR MANY PLACES

VALSETZ, Dec. 14.—Saturday and Sunday many skating parties were enjoyed on the pond of Cobbs and Mitchell. Amos Denno gave several lessons in fancy ice skating. Mr. Denno is a good teacher, having played in many ice hockey games in the east.

Old timers say this is only the second time in 10 years the pond, covering 850 acres, has been frozen enough for skating.

BRUSH CREEK, Dec. 14.—A skating party was enjoyed at Elton's pond here Monday night. Wilma Kneiss, eight-year-old Brush Creek newcomer, delighted the group with her ability to cut circles around everyone else on the ice. A bonfire on the banks of the pond added to the evening's enjoyment.

WEST SALEM, Dec. 14.—Ice hockey and skating continue to be favorite amusements by day and with the light and comfort of a bonfire in the evenings on the pond at the foot of Kingwood Terrace. A skating party and marshmallow roast for the fifth grade pupils and teacher was held Tuesday afternoon after school.

MARGARET BIXEL DISCOVERED DEAD

AURORA, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Margaret Bixel of Donald was found dead at her home Monday morning at 9 o'clock. She had visited the R. O. Johnson home Friday evening, when leaving she remarked that she would go home, build a good fire and warm up the house, where she lived alone.

On Monday, the neighbors, not having seen her in the meantime, became alarmed. Upon investigation the house was found locked, and through a window she was seen lying on the floor. She had prepared for bed, and apparently had dropped upon a couch in the bedroom from which she had rolled, showing evidence of having had a struggle.

She leaves two daughters, one in Seattle and one in California. The funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at Miller's parlors. Interment will be in the Yorgen cemetery near Donald.

Two Persons Hurt While Skating at Pond Near Hubbard

HUBBARD, Dec. 14.—The pond on the Braden and H. L. Carl farms is the scene of much ice skating since the cold snap. Marlon Carl fell and cut his forehead and although he had to keep his head bandaged in the basketball game with Independence Tuesday night, it did not cramp his usual fine style.

Mrs. Hills Braden fell on the ice Sunday while skating and cracked her nose.

Branch Stores

"You Can Have Them" I'm Getting Rid of Mine!

I am Discontinuing My Eugene Store!

TODAY AT 9 A. M.—I WILL START A SALE TO LIQUIDATE: (FIRST) ALL EUGENE STORE MERCHANDISE. (SECOND) 50% OF MY SALEM STORE STOCK. THIS SALE WILL BE HELD AT MY SALEM STORE, 279 NORTH COMMERCIAL STREET.

My secret ambition to play Hamlet has ruined the act of many a good buck and wing dancer. But, after all, the desire to step out of character is a Human Failing. I know. I tried it. Back in booming 1929, I cherished the idea of being a chain store operator. I believed—as did other merchants—that by establishing branch stores in populous cities, I could increase my business, reduce my costs and thereby improve my values. I tried it. I opened Branch stores. I increased my stocks. I got the increase in business all right. In fact I transacted a volume big enough to have satisfied any merchant. But the costs went up instead of down. When the increased costs reached the point where they threatened to undermine the basic principle of this business—which is to sell at the smallest margin possible—I decided to return to my original role—Fast. This decision involves two Drastic Actions.

I am discontinuing my Eugene store Today! I am reducing my Salem stock. COME—STOCK UP—AT THE LOWEST PRICES AT WHICH MY MERCHANDISE HAS EVER BEEN SOLD

Today all this merchandise will go on sale at the lowest prices at which the Army & Navy Goods Store ever have been offered. This sale will be held at 279 North Commercial Street.
