Lovely Tea Exhibit At Leslie School Today

Some 90 invitations to especially interested Salem teachers and school officials have been issued for the Japanese tea and art exhibit for which Mrs. Ida Andrews will be hostess at Leslie junior high school this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A blue color scheme is being emphasized with blue candles in brass candelabra furnishing a bright note. A portion of the Oriental effect will be secured by the use of pastel chrysanthemums about the room. A collection of Japanese color prints which Mrs. Andrews has in Salem for a short time will be shown about the rooms. In addition other interesting and beautiful types of Japanese art will be illustrated by various pieces of work.

Lillian Scott will sing a Japanese love song and Opal Stewart will play a piano solo. A short talk on Japanese art will be another feature of the afternoon's program.

Singing will be Frances Maeda, Jesse Fukuda, Lois Kumerl, Jerry Jo Patterson, and Lucretia McLane. Four of the girls will be dressed in genuine Japanese costumes. Mrs. D. Hatfield will be in charge of the serving.

Mrs. O. L. Clark will receive with Mrs. Andrews, Miss Gretchen Kreamer, and Mrs. Clara Pomroy will assist about the room.
