Allen-Hoffman Nuptials Told

Miss Louise Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, became the bride of Raymond Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hoffman, in a pretty home ceremony at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. W. C. Kantner read the simple ceremony before an altar of ferns and flowers. An initiate group of friends were present for the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin made in princess lines and her head was circled with a Juliet cap of pearls from which fell a tulle trimmed veil. Her flowers were roses and sweet peas. She was given in marriage by her father, and was accompanied by Miss Jane Jackson, maid of honor.

Miss Jackson wore a gown of blue satin with angelskin lace and wore blue accessories.

Best man for Mr. Hoffman was Paul Allen, brother of the bride. Cris Seeley, violinist, and Miss Barbara Barham, pianist, played "O Promise Me" as a duet before the ceremony, and also played the wedding marches.

At the reception Mr. Hoffman greeted Mrs. Hoffman following the ceremony Mrs. Lowell C. Will and Mrs. Frank Wilcox assisted Mrs. Allen.

Immediately following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman left for a wedding trip of several days and upon their return will make their home at 1335 North 19th street. They will be at home to their friends after January 1. Mrs. Hoffman wore as a traveling costume a tan ensemble with brown accessories.

THE LADIES ARE DISCUSSING

LADY NANCY ASTOR, American born and now British parliament member, talks things over with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, soon-to-be "first lady of the land."

W. C. T. U. Meeting Held Tuesday

The regular meeting of the Salem W. C. T. U. was held in the hall Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Lehman, president, presiding.

The devotional was in charge of Mrs. L. D. Waterman and the Christmas story as recorded in Luke was read. Our thoughts were turned for a moment to the "Bethlehem Road" of "yesterday" and then brought down to "today." Does the Bethlehem Road lead to our hearts making them what they ought to be, humble and Christ-like, with Christ occupying the throne? "Silent Night, Holy Night" was sung in conclusion.

After a short business session, a new member, Mrs. Morris read an original poem written in honor of the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Fessenden introduced Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist and her accompanist, Ted Gordon. Mrs. McGilchrist favored with two Christmas songs, "Gesù Bambino" and "The Birthday a King." They were beautifully rendered and much appreciated by all.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Necha Buck. She reviewed a chapter in Dr. Boole's book "The Crusades," on the crusades and crusaders, or the early days of women's fight against "demon rum." This was very interesting and enlightening to all present. "Courage is our word—carry on."

Presbyterian Choir To Present Cantata

"The Coming of the King," by Dudley Buck, will be sung by the First Presbyterian church choir under direction of Prof. Frank E. Churchill, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Incidental solos will be sung by Mrs. James Teed, Mrs. Henry Mills, Miss Josephine Albert, Miss Helen Brenner, Wendell Robinson, Ralph Scott, Leslie Springer and E. A. Kenney. Mrs. W. F. Foster will be at the organ.

Personnel of the choir includes: Sopranos, Mrs. James Teed, Mrs. Henry Mills, Mrs. Ercei Munding, Mrs. C. E. Siegmund, Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. C. A. Kelly, Mildred Mulkey, Yvonne Smith, Elizabeth Bishop, Mrs. Hull, Virgil Berner and Mrs. Scott; altos: Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. Ira Darby, Miss Elaine Steingrub, Miss Beckley, Mrs. Southmaid, Helen Berner, Josephine Albert, Mrs. Paula Churchill; tenor, Wendell Robinson, Ralph Scott, Frank Tatman, R. C. Davis and Hunt; bass: James Teed, E. A. Kenney, M. J. Stegner, Leslie Springer, Dr. L. E. Barrick, Dick Smart, Don Smith and Mr. Patton.

Mrs. Ida Godfrey Is Hostess

A Christmas party which is remembered and anticipated by a large number of friends is that for which Mrs. Ida Godfrey entertains each year at her home. Her party this year occurred Tuesday night. A dinner with covers placed for 20 guests was followed by an informal dance and a Christmas tree and gifts.

Out-of-town guests for the affair were Mrs. Ray Lucas and son Bobby of Marshfield, and Mrs. Francis Campbell of San Francisco.

Mrs. Ruth Miles of Salem who has been spending some time with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Miles, in Medford, is reported as seriously ill.

Miss Izora Templeton will leave today for Montana where she will spend the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. L. S. Shields is leaving for Harlem, Montana, where she will be a holiday guest.

A guest in Seattle from Salem for the holidays will be Miss Helen Richards.

Mrs. Mary Scott is leaving Friday for Spokane where she will be a guest over the holidays.

Annual Audit of Papers Going On

R. V. Brodie, representative of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, is here this week to make his annual checkup of the circulations of both Salem daily papers which are members of this bureau. Only paid-for circulation is counted and no delinquencies are allowed beyond three months. The figures, when complete, are published in nationally circulated media and are also available for all local advertisers. Many national advertisers insist on so-called "A. B. C." reports before placing any advertising in a newspaper.

Christmas Party is Gala Affair

A gay evening was spent by Rehahs and Odil Fellows and their children Monday evening when they had their annual Christmas tree party.

The tree committee of Lora McGee, Flora Turnbull, Pearl Swanson, Dora Hill and Verda Olmstead had the hall beautifully decorated.

The program committee of Helen McLeod, Anna Hunsaker and Eugenia Seigmund had the following numbers for entertainment. A solo by Aline Moore; a piano solo by Jeanne Cladeck; violin and piano numbers by Barbara Schottelaefer, Georgia Harrington, Alena Bremer and Emily Bremner; an illustrated reading by Erna Moore; piano solo by Mary Dale Cladeck; violin solo by Mary Elizabeth Hunsaker. After the program all the children were served refreshments by the committee.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Ladies Aid society of W. R. C. with Mrs. Louise Koon, 465 Marion street.

Royal Neighbors Sewing club, regular meeting.

Women's Benefit association, 7:30 o'clock, Women's clubhouse; each member bring a gift.

Mrs. R. G. Moorhead Complimented

Mrs. R. G. Moorhead was delightfully entertained upon the occasion of her birthday Tuesday when a group of her younger friends complimented her with a dinner and followed this with a line party.

Covers at the attractively appointed dinner table were placed for Mrs. Moorhead and Miss Yvonne Aufranc, Miss Cleo Casement, Miss Ellen Sirno, Miss Frances Haier, Virgil Moorhead, Jess Walling, Claud Walling, and Donald Jackson.

Ecclesia Club Is Entertained

Members of the Ecclesia club enjoyed its annual Christmas party at the home of G. S. Sutherland Tuesday night with Miss Norma Sutherland, Miss Eleanor Dorrance and Miss Charlotte Horning as hostesses.

Christmas was predominate in the decorative note with a large tree and much mistletoe and holly carrying out the scheme. Gifts were brought and all were given to a charity fund to supply holiday cheer for less fortunate.

An additional guest for the evening was Mrs. G. S. Sutherland.

War Mothers Enjoy Christmas Party

Christmas spirit made the regular social meeting of the American War Mothers Tuesday a more than ordinarily delightful meeting. A Christmas tree and gifts added to the happiness of the afternoon.

In order to send Yuletide cheer from the mothers to the veterans in hospitals a committee was appointed to send letters of greetings from the mothers. About 100 will be sent.

Carols were sung and Mrs. A. A. Lee reviewed "A Christmas Mystery" and Mrs. Elizabeth Waters told of the author of "Silent Night." Games introduced by Mrs. Ada Skiff developed a small donation fund for the "Helping Hand" work being done by the mothers.

Refreshments served by the committee headed by Mrs. L. Rauch concluded the meeting.

Children's Party is Happy Occasion

A happy occasion was the "children's" Christmas party for which Marion post Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars was hostess Tuesday night at the Women's clubhouse. This was the annual holiday party and proved to be unusually jolly.

Members of the post and the auxiliary dressed as children and added to the amusement of the evening. A large Christmas tree held candy and gifts for the small guests and all presents left over were sent to Portland to the Veterans hospital to be given to veterans with children at home to be sent by them to their youngsters.

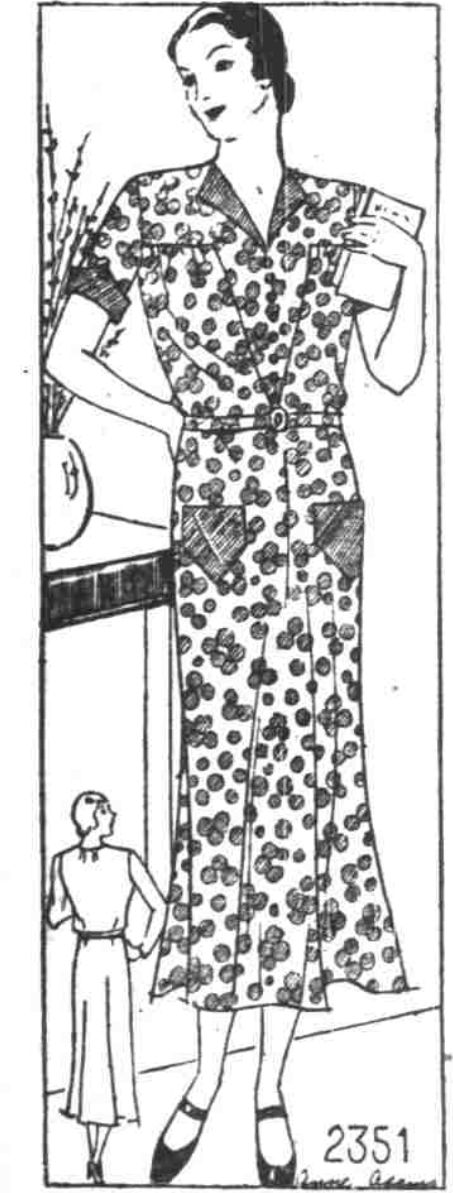

A program was enjoyed following the tree. Presents were presented by the Santa Claus who has been seen much on Salem streets of late and children attending the party were more than ever of the opinion that "there is a Santa Claus".

The committee in charge of the plans for the evening included Mrs. William H. Rush, Mrs. Arthur Hanks, and Mrs. Ward Wolfe.

Holiday Pardons Not Meier's Plan

Governor Meier will not issue any Christmas pardons to persons serving terms in the Oregon state penitentiary or county jails, it was announced here Wednesday. Governor Meier prefers to consider all applications for pardons in their regular order, and not on the basis of holiday sentiment, it was stated. Some former gover-

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Most popular for mornings is the model sketched today. With its winning details... tiny turn back revers, deep yoke, and large handy pockets carefully planned to flatter the larger figure... it will be neat, practical, and tubable if you use a gay cotton print. The contrast, too, proves a delightful variation from the usual. Long sleeves are included.

Pattern 2351 may be ordered only in sizes 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step instructions included with this pattern.

Woodburn - A Christmas Program of Interest

Woodburn - A Christmas program of interest was given Tuesday afternoon when the members of the Federated Women of the Methodist Episcopal church met in the social rooms of the church, with Mrs. James H. Livesay, president in charge of the home missionary society, in charge.

A Christmas pageant, "Jesus, the Prince of Peace", was given. The cast was: S. E. Bruns, Mrs. B. O. Brown, James H. Livesay, Donald Gillanders, George Landon, C. J. Rice, Mrs. Hartong, Freda Hall, Beatrice Brown, and Rev. Glenn Hartong.

Virginia Williams, Betty Lacey and Billy Bladorn, all members of Mrs. Hartong's primary department in the church school, gave Christmas recitations. About 12 fifth graders, under the supervision of their instructor, Miss Georgia Albee, took part in carols.

Mrs. Paul Pemberton sang "The Lord Shall Come" and Miss Carol Minker sang "Silent Night". The piano accompaniment for both singers was played by Joyce Woodfin.

During the business meeting the members agreed to prepare a Christmas basket for a needy Woodburn family.

The church was tastefully decorated with a lighted Christmas tree, wreaths and other decorations in keeping with the season. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. C. J. Rice, Mrs. C. D. Smith, Mrs. Myrtle Hall and Mrs. Theron Finch.

Zena - Mr. and Mrs. Robert Austin Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Austin entertained with an informal mid-time dance in honor of the birthday of Miss Atha Panther of Salem. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Holland and daughter LaVerne, Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Creswell and children, Bessie, Lorraine and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Alfred and son Elmer, Ted Horton, Miss Gertrude Johnson, Miss Easter Olen, Miss Olga Horten, Kenneth Hunt, Frank and Lewis Butler, all of Zena; Mr. and Mrs. George Olsen and children of Bethel and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Miss Atha Panther, Ralph and Fred Robertson, Ralph Waters and Orville Malm, all of Salem.

Gervais - The Hermosa social club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sumner Stevens for the annual Christmas party and gift exchange. They also sacked the candy to be given at the community Christmas tree at the auditorium Wednesday night. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. P. W. Seeley, Mrs. Robert Harper, Mrs. Sam H. Brown, Mrs. F. H. Cannard, Mrs. G. J. Moisan, Mrs. A. DeJardin, Mrs. C. W. Cutsforth, Mrs. M. D. Henning, Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth, Mrs. J. V. Kappinger, Mrs. S. D. Manning and the hostess, Mrs. Stevens. Mrs. Joe Scheible was an invited guest.

Kingwood - Mrs. Karl P. Mobley

Kingwood - Mrs. Karl P. Mobley was a delightful hostess Tuesday afternoon when fellow members of the Laurel Social Hour club gathered at her home for their Christmas party.

A full membership with Miss Viola Jennings as a special guest was seated at the table where a 1 o'clock luncheon was served. Members brought contributions for the poor. The program included reading of the club newspaper and singing of Christmas hymns and old songs with violin accompaniment by Mrs. Arnold Coffel. Mrs. E. W. Emmett will be hostess Tuesday afternoon, January 10.

A jolly party of Tuesday night was that for which members of the Encinitas club entertained for a Christmas party at the Y. W. C. A. Dr. S. B. Laughlin spoke of his experiences in Palestine at Christmas time as a special feature of the evening. Miss Irene Gilson of Portland, Mrs. Helen B. Hamilton, and Mrs. Elizabeth Galaher were special guests for the evening.

Miss Lois Jean Rasch, announcement

Miss Lois Jean Rasch, announcement of whose wedding was made recently to S. Stevenson Smith, member of the University of Oregon staff, was formerly a student of Willamette university where she was popular in university circles. She was a member of Beta Chi sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lindley are receiving the congratulations of their many friends upon the birth of a daughter born December 16 at the Deaconess hospital. The young maid has been named Joan Annette.

The potluck dinner planned by members of the Artisan lodge for tonight has been postponed until a week from tonight. The action was made necessary because of illness.

Mrs. Ella Watt, mother of Ivan Martin, arrived in Salem to be a guest at the Martin home over the Christmas holidays. She makes her home in Oakland, Cal.
