

PAGEANT IS BIG CHURCH EVENT

For Stayton Group; Union Program Held by Methodist, Baptists

STAYTON, Dec. 23 — Stayton churches planned elaborate programs for Christmas this year, perhaps the most extensive of which is the pageant at the Christian church.

This year the Methodist and Baptist churches united in giving the following program Friday night at the Methodist church: piano prelude, Marie Harold; song by congregation; prayer, Rev. T. Klingsporn; tableau, primary group; instrumental number, Charlie and Naomi Tobie, piano and Mrs. E. R. Olds and Max Brown; violin solo, Mrs. Edith Jorda; Max Brown and Rev. Klingsporn; vocal solo, Felix Wright; Christmas carol, young folks choir; violin solo, Max Brown; song by congregation; Manger service, primary department; anthem "There Were Shepherds"; choir.

Pageant Personnel

Christmas night at the Christian church, the Christmas pageant, "The Heavenly Host," by Lyman R. Bayard will be presented by 45 players and associates. The old story of the Christ child will be told through the inspiring stage pictures and uplifting music. The pageant is under the direction of the pastor, W. H. Lyman, who has been ably assisted by the stage and property manager, Bob Ross; the costume director, Mrs. B. A. Schaefer and the two electricians, Earl Sandner and Mike Wendt. Miss Sylvia Stupka is the unseen, but highly important pianist.

The pageant players include W. H. Lyman, Ben Schaefer, Floyd Crabtree, Alton Vernon, Bob Ross, Eldon Champ, Angus Leffler, Floyd Harold, Dale and Roe Crabtree, Glen Vernon, Vern Davis, B. A. Schaefer, Willis Keithley, Charles Waggle, C. A. Booker, Marvin Lacey, Chas. Schaefer, Eldon Champ, Darrel Lewis, Mrs. W. H. Lyman, Mrs. B. A. Schaefer, Edith Bowman, June Keyes, Mrs. W. Apple, Mrs. Mike Wendt, Lucille Christian, and Linore Inglis.

The angel chorus is composed of Neva Titus, Della Titus, Mrs. Wm. Poole, Eulalia Saty, Eunice Temple, Ruth Humphreys, Beulah Snadner, Lucille Frough, Mabelle Marphy, Vera Burmeister, Loraine Snace, Margert Kimprough, Nea Edgar, Gweneith Milke, Mrs. W. W. Crabtree and Jewel Cunningham.

Catholic Services

Rev. Father Jos. Scherbring has announced the local Catholic church as follows: 5:30 a. m., high mass and communion; 8 a. m., low mass and communion with special music by the children's choir; 10:30 high mass.

The regular choir under the direction of Geo. Spaniol, has prepared beautiful mass music for both the early and high mass, at 10:30.

SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR HOLIDAYS

Programs Mark Last Days Before Christmas; Church Plans Events

DALLAS, Dec. 23.—Dallas city schools closed Wednesday afternoon for the Christmas holidays and will reopen Tuesday, January 3.

Christmas programs were held at all the schools with the students and many friends attending. At the senior high school the program was in the form of a radio broadcast with Santa Claus reading news of the world and others presenting stories and short plays.

The programs at the junior high school and grade school followed the usual custom of presenting short plays dealing with the Christmas spirit and the singing of Christmas carols. A group from the two Dallas high glee clubs accompanied their director, Miss Alice MacBride, on a tour of the city Tuesday evening, singing Christmas carols at the homes of many of their teachers and friends.

CLEAR LAKE, Dec. 23.—There will be a Christmas pageant at the United Evangelical church Saturday night, starting at 8 o'clock. Characters are Mary McCall, Irene Holden, Martha Robertson, Maxine Beckner, Ross Chapman, Neva Smith, Bruce Jones, W. P. Collard, Pearl Jones and Lullabelle Chapin; musician, Mrs. Klodhege; director, Mrs. A. L. Girod.

GERVAIS, Dec. 23.—The community Christmas exercises were given at the auditorium Wednesday night. All schools in the high school district took part in the program, which was reported by those who attended to be most excellent. J. H. Tumbleton, principal, announced the numbers. Santa Claus distributed sacks of candy.

MIDDLE GROVE, Dec. 23.—The Christmas program of the church which was to have been given Wednesday night has been postponed because of illness of those in charge until Sunday morning, December 25. The annual school Christmas entertainment, consisting of entertainments, songs and a pageant, "The Nativity," was held Friday night.

Leslie's Carolers Will Sing Tonight For Many Shut-ins

The homes of the shut-ins and the aged of the Leslie Memorial church membership will be visited Christmas eve by carolers from the Leslie and Asbury league groups of the church.

Both groups will end carolers will meet at the church at 7 o'clock for final organization and instructions. A small group will start out in the late afternoon, going into the country and to homes far removed from the church.

Both groups will end their rounds at the E. A. Rhoten home as guests of the Rhoten family for a social hour and light refreshments.

This observance of Christmas eve is an annual custom of long standing in Leslie church and is greatly enjoyed both by those who listen to the carols and by those who sing.

VICTOR POINT, Dec. 23.—The community Christmas tree and program was held at the schoolhouse Friday night, sponsored jointly by the Parent-Teacher association and school.

NORTH HOWELL, Dec. 23.—Marked by the singing of beautiful old Christmas carols, appropriately planned and presented Christmas stories and lesson and with readings and music suited to the pleasant occasion, the school program given Friday afternoon at the North Howell schoolhouse was decidedly successful.

Mrs. Minnie Beckett and Mrs. Susie Pruitt, teachers, ably directed the youthful students and were assisted at the piano by Lois Coomler. Earlier in the afternoon the pupils exchanged gifts and enjoyed a Christmas party.

Many pupils have been absent from school the past week because of illness.

ZENA, Dec. 23.—An interesting Christmas program and tree was sponsored by the Zena school Friday afternoon at 1:30. The rooms were prettily decorated with Christmas greens.

Program numbers, interspersed with songs by the various grades, included:

A dialogue, Ardon Shepard, Sylvia Wiedeman and Raymond Stephens; reading, Betty Truxall; reading, "Footsteps to Peace," Henry Van Dyke, by Joan Truxall; short play, "The Jolly Christmas Toy" by the school; story, "The Empty Christmas Stocking," Myrtle Kennedy; pantomime, in which characters were Sylvia Wiedeman, Raymond Stephens, Chester Merrick, Jack Truxall, Joe Shepard, Emmett Johnson, Leroy Pettit, Jessie Worthington.

Miss Dorothy Bork, teacher of the Zena school, left Friday night for Monmouth where she plans to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bork.

ROSEDALE, Dec. 23.—The school children had their Christmas celebration and exchanged gifts Thursday afternoon and the Christmas program was held Friday night.

The Sunday school will give a "white gifts" Christmas program Saturday night. At the close opportunity will be given to all who wish to bring their white gifts (preferably eatables) and pile them around the tree. A silver offering will also be taken.

MT. ANGEL, Dec. 23.—Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson was the honor guest at the eighth grade Christmas program given in the schoolroom, Thursday. Mrs. Fulkerson brought with her R. J. Maaska, state supervisor of rural education. Both guests talked to the class and declared themselves pleased with the program. The boys and girls felt very proud when Mrs. Fulkerson told them she had left the state teachers' examinations to be present at their program and that this was the first time in the 12 years she had been superintendent that she had let anything interfere with the examinations.

The socialized method, Mrs. Fulkerson's new method of teaching, is being used in the eighth grade at St. Mary's public school, taught by Miss Theresa Dehler.

The program included the following:

Announcements, Jack Baselius; Christmas customs, mistletoe and holy, Rose Kraemer; jule log, Francis Eitler; Christmas tree, Michael Walton; Christmas aspirations, Harold Bourbonnais; "What 'Lies Matter' Broke to America," Leo Hansen; "The Four Christmases Shopping Early," a play, Agnes Greljakovic; Mary, Ida Wenger; "The Christmas After," Chas. W. Chubb; Irene Berning; records; recitation, Madeline Kober; oral Christmas reports, members of class; "The First Christmas in Story and Song," class.

HUBBARD, Dec. 23.—The school gave a splendid Christmas program Thursday at the city hall. Brownies, fairies and miniature Santas gaily with each other for important places in the scene. The orchestra under the direction of Dr. de Lespinasse played several numbers and the girls' glee club, under the direction of Adeline Fields sang Christmas carols. The harmonica band, directed by Elwood Lehman, played carols.

Santa appeared and distributed, with the help of the glee club, a treat furnished by the Woman's club.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Dec. 23 — A general assembly was held in the school Friday with singing of Christmas carols and a brief interesting program after which the various rooms held their individual gift exchanges and exercise, which closed school until January 3. At present there is quite a wave of illness, mostly colds and it is to be hoped that the 10-day vacation will enable the pupils to recuperate.

Mrs. Jennie Waymire of Amity, mother of Mrs. Ray E. Anderson, who has been visiting at the Anderson home and with another daughter in Salem for a month, left for her home Wednesday, so as to be able to spend Christmas at home. Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Canfield and family returned the first of the week from a trip to Toledo where they were guests of Mrs. Canfield's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Farrington, and will be guests for Christmas at the home of her folks, the A. E. Battles of Salem Heights.

Give Aid to Needy

The matrons of the Ladies' Aid society, the Sunday school and the Standard bearer are uniting in helping to provide food and clothing for a number of needy families and the donations received Friday will be packed and distributed by volunteer helpers.

B. A. Short left early Thursday morning for Spokane, Wn., on a business trip. He will endeavor to be home by Christmas day.

Dr. M. A. Marcy will give an address following the brief interesting program at the West Salem Sunday school Christmas morning. There will be no services held later in the day.

Men Back to Work

The regular freight train picks up logging flats that are loaded on beyond Corvallis three times a week and brings them to Winona to the log dump where the logs are dumped into the river, and the extra traffic entails extra work for
