Marriage Announced In Portland

A number of Salem people motored to Portland Monday night to attend the reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Russell White complimenting Mr. and Mrs. William Glen Ledbetter, nee Grace White.

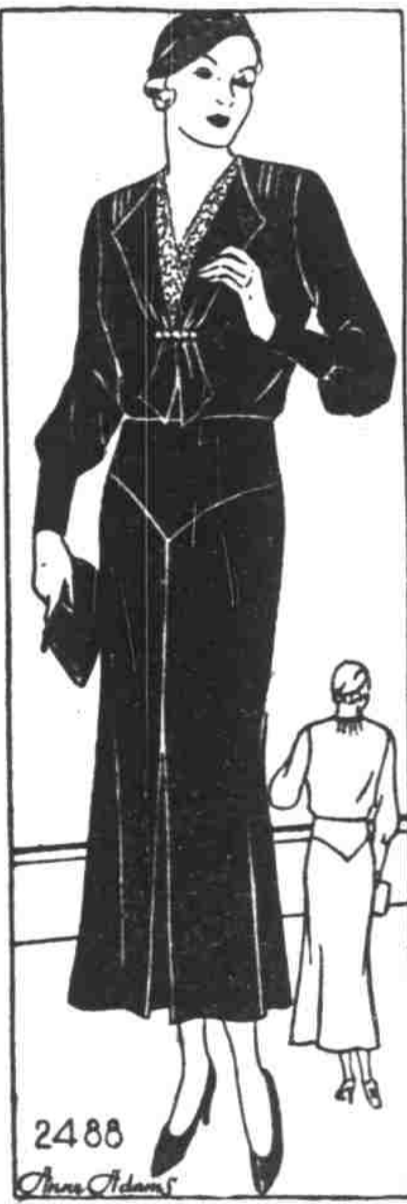

Guests did not know the affair was given in compliment to them until the announcement of their early fall marriage was made during the reception hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledbetter are both graduates of Willamette university, where Mrs. Ledbetter was a member of Beta Chi sorority and Mr. Ledbetter was affiliated with Alpha Psi Delta. They graduated with the class of 1929.

Motoring down from Salem were Miss Louise Nunn, Miss Roby Laughlin, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle and Miss Florence Power.

Mr. and Mrs. Will May entertained with a Christmas dinner at their Capitol street home with covers placed for Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McBride, Elma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Elber E. May and son Billie and Mr. and Mrs. Will May. Mrs. McBride is the daughter of Mr. May. The same party were entertained Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elber E. May. Mr. and Mrs. McBride motored back to their Washington home Tuesday.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
The matter of "knowing how" is shown here in a perfect frock for the matron who is no longer slim. Flattering revers set off by a dainty lace vestee dominate the bodice while the skirt boasts slenderizing seaming with inverted pleat, just to be "different." A snug hip yoke and unbelted waistline are doubly becoming and, of course, the frock wouldn't be complete without a new sleeve treatment. Lovely for satin or crepe.

Pattern 2488 may be ordered only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 requires 4 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 3/4 yard 18 inch lace. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED.

The fall and winter edition of the Anne Adams Pattern catalog is ready! Charming, flattering models—32 pages of the newest and best house, street and formal frocks—cleverly designed styles for large figures—and beautiful, practical models for juniors and kiddies. Lovely lingerie patterns, and suggestions for fits that can be easily and inexpensively made, are also included. Send for the new catalog. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents. Address all mail orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 W. 17th street, New York city.

"FIRST LADY" SHOPPING FOR YULE

DeMolay Order Observes Christmas

DeMolay Commandery No. 5 Knights Templar held its Christmas observance Monday evening in Masonic temple. Commander J. O. Russell welcomed the visitors and conducted the observance. Rev. William C. Kantner, prelate of the Commandery, read the scriptural lesson and offered the prayers. Several selections were given by the Commandery quartette consisting of Dr. H. A. Gueffroy, Glenn C. Niles, Albert Gilie and Adolph A. Gueffroy accompanied by Miss Gussie A. Niles.

Responses were given by Edwin L. Wiesler, grand commander of the Grand Commandery of Oregon; D. Bruce Stuart, grand high priest of the grand chapter of Oregon and Rex W. Davis, past grand master of the grand lodge of Oregon. The observance was arranged by a committee consisting of Milton L. Meyer, J. O. Russell and Lloyd F. LeGarde.

Miss Ruth Reynolds Is Wedded

Miss Ruth Reynolds, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reynolds, became the bride of H. Bert Simpson at a beautiful home wedding Christmas eve at 9 p. m. at the bride's home north of Salem. Rev. S. Darlow Johnson read the ceremony.

Presiding the ceremony, Mrs. A. M. Johnson, sister of the bride, sang "O Promise Me". She also played "Mendelssohn's Wedding March" as the bridal party took its place before a beautifully lighted Christmas tree and an improvised altar of holly and poinsettias.

The bride was lovely in a gown of taupe romaine crepe and carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley. Miss Carol Reynolds, the bride's only attendant, wore a gown of cherry red with cream colored lace and carried an arm bouquet of Tallasman roses. Harry Fowler acted as best man for Mr. Simpson.

At the reception which followed Mrs. J. H. Turnbull of Portland, sister of the bride, presided at the urn and Mrs. A. M. Johnson cut the loaves. Mrs. H. A. Reynolds and Miss Carol Reynolds assisted with the serving.

Besides the above mentioned, the guests who left for Portland, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reynolds, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eckstaff, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil O'Neill, Mrs. O. Monson and daughters, Agnes and Olga, Mrs. E. A. McCall, Miss Marie Bruley, Lester Evans, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Johnson, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Way and son Allen of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turnbull, Donald Fawcett, Cyril D. Reynolds, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reynolds of Independence.

Mrs. Simpson is a graduate of Salem high school and Mr. Simpson is a draftsman in the state highway department.

Following the reception the young couple left for Portland and coast points. They will be at home at 970 No. 14th street, Salem, after December 28.

Monmouth — At a simple service yesterday, Miss Bess Sharrow became the bride of Alfred Allen at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sharrow. Dr. C. A. Hadley of Portland read the service before a small group of immediate relatives and friends. Miss Sharrow wore an attractive ensemble of dark blue georgette and simple corsage of flowers.

The bride was for several years appointment bureau secretary for the Oregon Normal school here. Mr. Allen is manual training instructor in Monmouth high school. After a short trip they will be at home in Monmouth.

Rev. Hadley who officiated, performed the same service for Miss Sharrow's parents at the time of their marriage. Plans for a large wedding yesterday were cancelled due to illness of many family members in the epidemic of influenza.

Orchard Heights — Mr. and Mrs. William McDowell were Christmas dinner hosts for Mr. and Mrs. Guy McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDowell, their daughter, Ora and son, Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDowell and children, Armon and James Herman. Miss Dorothy Baker who has just returned from a year and a half spent in Chicago where she was engaged in newspaper work, Miss Ethel McDowell, Chester C. Baker of Salem and Harold Cobb of Pratum.

Zena — Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Higgins had as their guests at their afternoon Mrs. E. A. Smith and daughter, Mrs. Lorena Thompson, two granddaughters, Miss Helen May Thompson and Miss Mary Antrim, and a friend, Miss Virginia Scriber. Miss Thompson is taking a two year Bible course in a Seattle school. She is at home on a week's vacation.

New Year's holidays will be spent by Robert Hemming in Albany with his daughter, Mrs. Rocky Conser.
