

FAMILY REUNIONS FEATURE HOLIDAY

For Folks of Victor Point; Many Attend Festivities Elsewhere

VICTOR POINT, Dec. 27—Christmas day brought many family gatherings at Victor Point. Among these were:

At the Phillip Fischer home where the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dell Alexander and children, Phillip and Patricia Ann of Albany, Miss Elva Fischer of Salem and Miss Myrtle Rabens of Silver Creek Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Savage had as Christmas season guests Mr. and Mrs. Royal Condit of Portland and Weyland Savake of Seattle.

At the M. M. Gilmour home for the Christmas holiday were Mr. and Mrs. Argus Pearson, Donna and Mavis Pearson of Ostrander, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Quayley, Valley View, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mulkey, Victor Point, and George Lovett of Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Darby were hosts at a Christmas dinner to Miss Marie and Elizabeth Krenz, Ivan Darby, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Darby, Marvin, Jimmie, Wesley and Arnes Jean Darby.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, Miss Bernita and Carl Jones entertained a group of relatives that included Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lang and daughters Dorothy and Jo Ann of Silver Creek Falls, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Krenz, Laurel and Richard Krenz, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Humphreys, Miss Thelma and Robert Humphreys.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bogert went to Portland where they were guests of relatives over the weekend. On Christmas day they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Locke.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doerflinger and family have moved into the new house recently built on their farm one mile west of Victor Point. They formerly lived in the Glenn McClellan house.

Roy Brant and family spent the weekend with his sister, Mrs. E. B. Stroud, also Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bzell of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Trick gave a Christmas dinner Monday for relatives and friends Monday. The following were guests: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott and Pearl Scott, Lloyd Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian of Springfield, Rev. Darlow Johnson, Miss Ruth Kitchen, Paul and Leland Scott, Ormel Trick, from Elkton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott of Salem.

W. E. Cox of Portland will begin some special meetings at the church Tuesday night.

DONALD MARSHALL RITES ARE TODAY

SILVERTON, Dec. 27—Funeral services for Donald Marshall, 20, who died here Saturday have been set for Wednesday at 2 o'clock from the Ekman chapel. Interment will be in the Silverton cemetery. Members of the Orange-men, of which he was a member will be active pall bearers while members of the Oregon National Guard will be honorary pall bearers.

Marshall was born in Idaho, May 9, 1912. He was very active in school athletics in the Silverton high school.

He is survived by his father, William Marshall and by the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Pearl Barnhart and Dorothy Marshall of Dallas; Mrs. Grace Hely of Dixonville, Robert and Ralph of Silverton and Mrs. Cora Brown of Corvallis.

GIVE CIRCLE PROGRAM
HUBBARD, Dec. 27—Miss Mathilda Gilles, the teacher at the White school, arranged a splendid program with her pupils for the Social Circle Thursday night at child present.

MT. ANGEL'S NEW $36,000 CREAMERY

Here's the new home of the Mt. Angel Cooperative Creamery, which will be dedicated today as an unusual feature of the annual patrons' meeting. The creamery is one of the finest in the northwest, can produce five million pounds of butterfat annually.—Cut courtesy Mt. Angel News.

the school house. There was a tree, an exchange of gifts among the pupils, and popcorn balls for everyone of the large crowd that attended. The Social Circle furnished a treat.

MANY YULE GUESTS VISIT JEFFERSON

ROSEDALE, Dec. 27—Most of the people of the Community gathered at the school house Friday night, to hear the Christmas program given by the school children directed by their teacher, Miss Minnie Rostrack Saturday. Children gave their Christmas program at the church. A group of young people went out caroling after the program. A. J. Haldy and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cole spent the holiday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bogert went to Portland where they were guests of relatives over the weekend. On Christmas day they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Locke.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doerflinger and family have moved into the new house recently built on their farm one mile west of Victor Point. They formerly lived in the Glenn McClellan house.

Roy Brant and family spent the weekend with his sister, Mrs. E. B. Stroud, also Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bzell of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Trick gave a Christmas dinner Monday for relatives and friends Monday. The following were guests: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott and Pearl Scott, Lloyd Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian of Springfield, Rev. Darlow Johnson, Miss Ruth Kitchen, Paul and Leland Scott, Ormel Trick, from Elkton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott of Salem.

W. E. Cox of Portland will begin some special meetings at the church Tuesday night.

Marshall was born in Idaho, May 9, 1912. He was very active in school athletics in the Silverton high school.

He is survived by his father, William Marshall and by the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Pearl Barnhart and Dorothy Marshall of Dallas; Mrs. Grace Hely of Dixonville, Robert and Ralph of Silverton and Mrs. Cora Brown of Corvallis.

GIVE CIRCLE PROGRAM
HUBBARD, Dec. 27—Miss Mathilda Gilles, the teacher at the White school, arranged a splendid program with her pupils for the Social Circle Thursday night at child present.

the school house. There was a tree, an exchange of gifts among the pupils, and popcorn balls for everyone of the large crowd that attended. The Social Circle furnished a treat.

ROSEDALE, Dec. 27—Most of the people of the Community gathered at the school house Friday night, to hear the Christmas program given by the school children directed by their teacher, Miss Minnie Rostrack Saturday. Children gave their Christmas program at the church. A group of young people went out caroling after the program. A. J. Haldy and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cole spent the holiday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bogert went to Portland where they were guests of relatives over the weekend. On Christmas day they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Locke.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doerflinger and family have moved into the new house recently built on their farm one mile west of Victor Point. They formerly lived in the Glenn McClellan house.

Roy Brant and family spent the weekend with his sister, Mrs. E. B. Stroud, also Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bzell of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Trick gave a Christmas dinner Monday for relatives and friends Monday. The following were guests: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott and Pearl Scott, Lloyd Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian of Springfield, Rev. Darlow Johnson, Miss Ruth Kitchen, Paul and Leland Scott, Ormel Trick, from Elkton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott of Salem.

W. E. Cox of Portland will begin some special meetings at the church Tuesday night.

Marshall was born in Idaho, May 9, 1912. He was very active in school athletics in the Silverton high school.

He is survived by his father, William Marshall and by the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Pearl Barnhart and Dorothy Marshall of Dallas; Mrs. Grace Hely of Dixonville, Robert and Ralph of Silverton and Mrs. Cora Brown of Corvallis.

GIVE CIRCLE PROGRAM
HUBBARD, Dec. 27—Miss Mathilda Gilles, the teacher at the White school, arranged a splendid program with her pupils for the Social Circle Thursday night at child present.

the school house. There was a tree, an exchange of gifts among the pupils, and popcorn balls for everyone of the large crowd that attended. The Social Circle furnished a treat.

ROSEDALE, Dec. 27—Most of the people of the Community gathered at the school house Friday night, to hear the Christmas program given by the school children directed by their teacher, Miss Minnie Rostrack Saturday. Children gave their Christmas program at the church. A group of young people went out caroling after the program. A. J. Haldy and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cole spent the holiday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bogert went to Portland where they were guests of relatives over the weekend. On Christmas day they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Locke.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doerflinger and family have moved into the new house recently built on their farm one mile west of Victor Point. They formerly lived in the Glenn McClellan house.

Roy Brant and family spent the weekend with his sister, Mrs. E. B. Stroud, also Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bzell of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Trick gave a Christmas dinner Monday for relatives and friends Monday. The following were guests: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott and Pearl Scott, Lloyd Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian of Springfield, Rev. Darlow Johnson, Miss Ruth Kitchen, Paul and Leland Scott, Ormel Trick, from Elkton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott of Salem.

W. E. Cox of Portland will begin some special meetings at the church Tuesday night.

Marshall was born in Idaho, May 9, 1912. He was very active in school athletics in the Silverton high school.

He is survived by his father, William Marshall and by the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Pearl Barnhart and Dorothy Marshall of Dallas; Mrs. Grace Hely of Dixonville, Robert and Ralph of Silverton and Mrs. Cora Brown of Corvallis.

GIVE CIRCLE PROGRAM
HUBBARD, Dec. 27—Miss Mathilda Gilles, the teacher at the White school, arranged a splendid program with her pupils for the Social Circle Thursday night at child present.

the school house. There was a tree, an exchange of gifts among the pupils, and popcorn balls for everyone of the large crowd that attended. The Social Circle furnished a treat.

ROSEDALE, Dec. 27—Most of the people of the Community gathered at the school house Friday night, to hear the Christmas program given by the school children directed by their teacher, Miss Minnie Rostrack Saturday. Children gave their Christmas program at the church. A group of young people went out caroling after the program. A. J. Haldy and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cole spent the holiday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bogert went to Portland where they were guests of relatives over the weekend. On Christmas day they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Locke.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doerflinger and family have moved into the new house recently built on their farm one mile west of Victor Point. They formerly lived in the Glenn McClellan house.

Roy Brant and family spent the weekend with his sister, Mrs. E. B. Stroud, also Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bzell of Portland.

PLAYLETS FEATURE MILL CITY PROGRAM

MILL CITY, Dec. 27—Two social functions occupied the attention of Mill City people during the week, the annual Christmas meeting of the Woman's club and the annual community Christmas tree and program by the school children.

The community tree was placed in the Hammond hall Wednesday and that evening the usual program was presented with the hall being filled to capacity. Two playlets were presented, one, "In the Land of Doubt" by the pupils of the first, second, third, and fourth grades, and the other, "The King's Gift", by the pupils of the upper grades.

For the meeting of the Woman's club Mrs. W. W. Mason was hostess with about 25 members of the club present to enjoy the evening. A beautifully decorated tree occupied one corner of the living room, greenery and lighted tapers added to the spirit of the Christmas tide.

During the evening Christmas carols were sung by the entire group with violin accompaniments by Mrs. Sven Eliassen and Mrs. Arthur Bates and piano accompaniment by Mrs. Robert Schroeder. Other numbers on the program were violin solos by Mrs. Eliassen accompanied by Mrs. Schroeder at the piano; reading, "The Other Wise Man," by Mrs. Vivian Albert; piano numbers by Mrs. Albert, Miss Helen Mason and a charade.

Gifts were then exchanged by the members and extra gifts were found on the tree and were taken to the children at the Farm Home near Corvallis. Each year the members have been in habit of sending gifts to these children.

Mrs. Stoltzheise Entertains Class At Christmas Feast

SALEM HEIGHTS, Dec. 27—Mrs. P. F. Stoltzheise entertained her Sunday school class at her home with a Christmas dinner. The class assisted in the preparation and serving and had an enjoyable time. Those present were: Robert Zinsler, George Skelton, David Ling, Lattimer Chambers, Orville Beardsley, Francis Rothweiler, Paul Jones and George Cogswell.

The Salem Heights Sunday school classes held their Christmas program at the community hall after Sunday school with an outstanding Christmas program Thursday night.

Children taking part included Marlon Walling, Norman Merrick, Richard Madsen, DeWayne Galloway, Robert Madsen, Naomi Merrick, Marilyn Boyd, Edrudell Boyd, Garlon Wallace, Kenneth Edwards, Verl McKinney, Perl McKinney, Arthur Durham was Santa. As an additional number, Alvin Madsen Sr., sang, accompanied by Mrs. Madsen.

TAKES SANTA ROLE
VALSETZ, Dec. 27—A number of persons here, and especially children of families where the father has not had employment, were made happy at Christmas time through the many kindnesses of Mrs. D. A. Grout.

MICKY MOUSE

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

TOOTS AND CASPER

Cross - Word Puzzle

Cross - Word Puzzle grid and word list. The grid is a 11x11 grid with some cells shaded. The word list includes: 1—matrimonial, 2—flowers, 3—affirm, 4—hostility, 5—distribution of gifts, 6—contradict, 7—help through the nose, 8—cyprinoid fish, 9—fuss, 10—boring-tool, 11—wine vessel, 12—evil, 13—wrist into threads, 14—sooner than, 15—a fish, 16—a legal claim, 17—printer's measure, 18—a horse-shoer, 19—land-measure, 20—wading-bird, 21—skill in performance, 22—consumed, 23—former Russian ruler, 24—lifetime, 25—beverages, 26—Greek letter, 27—a unit, 28—winglike part, 29—cloth, 30—propelling implement, 31—forces air through the nose, 32—a saurel, 33—ostrich-like bird, 34—wine vessel, 35—one who fishes for eels, 36—accumulates, 37—sea-cow, 38—a salutation, 39—to entertain sumptuously, 40—Turkish decree, 41—solemn wonder, 42—musical note, 43—unusual, 44—thus, 45—exclude, 46—a portable chair, 47—foxy, 48—preposition, 49—pronoun, 50—a barrier, 51—monkey, 52—traces, 53—to hinder, 54—title of respect, 55—seriform fluid, 56—to leave, 57—pinaceous tree, 58—vexation, 59—withstands, 60—bleat of a sheep, 61—warnings of danger, 62—harass, 63—land-measure, 64—century-plants, 65—flinker, 66—indefinite article, 67—short poem, 68—total, 69—to unite, 70—morindin dye, 71—parent.

PROGRAM GREETED BY BIG AUDIENCE

NORTH SANTIAM, Dec. 17—In spite of the bad weather and so much illness a large and appreciative audience filled the North Santiam church Friday night for the following Christmas program, sponsored by members of the North Santiam Bible school, was given:

Scripture reading by Glenn E. McClellan; male quartet, A. F. Keithley, R. A. Hammer, L. C. Keithley, Glenn E. McClellan; reading, Byron and Burke Rhoades and Raymond Scotland; tableau, with song; reading, Mrs. O. Wigle; tableau, Betty Ryan singing with violin obligato, W. Keithley; reading, Mrs. George E. Rhoades; male quartet, Charles Wigle, Arden Hammer, Willis Keithley, Leland Keithley; reading, Waldo A. Riches; instrumental selection, Charles Wigle, W. Keithley; play, Mrs. H. B. Scotland, Mrs. D. Wigle, Gladys Wigle, Betty Ryan, Mrs. G. E. McClellan, Opal Tripp, Raymond Scotland, Burke and Byron Rhoades.

Christmas day passed quietly here with the usual number of family dinners and family going elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. McClellan were guests at a family dinner at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. L. Neal in Silverton. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McAlvin were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lansing in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Howard had as their dinner guests Mrs. Howard's mother and brother, Mrs. R. W. and Earl R. Van Nuys of West Stayton. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin entertained with a family dinner. Present were Mrs. McLaughlin, Darwin Calfe, Walter Weinehl, Mrs. and Mrs. Roy E. Maple and children Stanley and Ona Beryl, Portland.

Outstanding Yule Program is Given At Lincoln School

LINCOLN, Dec. 27—The Lincoln school house was comfortably filled when the pupils gave an outstanding Christmas program Thursday night.

Children taking part included Marlon Walling, Norman Merrick, Richard Madsen, DeWayne Galloway, Robert Madsen, Naomi Merrick, Marilyn Boyd, Edrudell Boyd, Garlon Wallace, Kenneth Edwards, Verl McKinney, Perl McKinney, Arthur Durham was Santa. As an additional number, Alvin Madsen Sr., sang, accompanied by Mrs. Madsen.

"A Brother Act"

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Windsor entertained with a Christmas dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. John Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Harley McKinney of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McKinney, Mary and Lucille Hackett, Irene, Doris and Vernon Windsor as dinner guests.

COMMUNITY ENJOYS HAPPY YULE EVENT

SPRING VALLEY, Dec. 27—The Spring Valley school and Community club held its Christmas program at the school house Friday night with a good attendance present in spite of sickness. The following program was given under direction of the teacher, Mrs. Ethel Sohn.

Children participating in song, music, skits and other features of the program were: Marjorie Matthews, Ella Bella Sohn, Julian Stratton, Retta Ebbert, Gladys Crawford, Blossom Counts, Doris Winslow, Ila Marie Versteeg, Lawrence McClure, Marvin Cook, Luanna Counts, Clair Counts, Dorey Wilson, Helen Cook, Gladys Crawford, Owen Counts, Marjorie Matthews, Dorothy Wilson, Cloydine Davidson, Lucille Hackett, Eldon Cook, Retta Ebbert, Arthur Yuzen, Lawrence McClure, Marlon Cook, Henry Anderson, Ronald Hoven, Jessie Counts.

Mrs. Hugh Craig accompanied by Mrs. Donnel Crawford and her mother, Mrs. J. C. Zinsler left by motor Wednesday for Los Angeles and Long Beach. They plan to spend about 10 days away.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Windsor entertained with a Christmas dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. John Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Harley McKinney of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McKinney, Mary and Lucille Hackett, Irene, Doris and Vernon Windsor as dinner guests.

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Dec. 27
The public, and especially all those who have known and loved the Popcorn neighborhood are invited to be present Sunday, January 1, at the annual homecoming sponsored by the Orchard Heights Women's club. A good program of a reminiscent character will be given in the afternoon. All are requested to bring contributions to the potluck dinner which will be served at 12:30 o'clock in the schoolhouse basement.

Mrs. H. R. McDowell and children with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fisher of Portland drove Sunday evening to Junction City where they were entertained Monday at a post-Christmas dinner by the parents of Mrs. McDowell and Mrs. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edgar were here for dinner Christmas day. Covers were placed for their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Zach Ekkins of Portland, Kenneth Edgar, Donald Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar.

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Dec. 27—Christmas day was celebrated in many homes in the good old-fashioned way of home gathering and family reunions in West Salem Sunday. At the Lyle Thomas home were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Akers and son, Tommy, Mrs. L. A. Rees, Miss Ruth Thomas, Miss Luella Rees and Billy Thomas and hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Thomas. Music and games were enjoyed after the pleasant Christmas dinner.

Wednesday afternoon the members of the Women's Foreign Mission Society will meet for their regular December meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Forrester.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Hill spent the two day holiday with Mrs. Hill's mother, Mrs. Laura Moss of Gladstone, and upon their return Monday evening they brought Mrs. Hill's sister, Mrs. R. C. Riegan home with them to visit a week.

The R. J. Kettermans spent the day at the Lou Swelgart home near Monmouth, guests of her folks. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore visited at the Delbert Moore home at Portland and the Fred Gibbons were Christmas day guests at the parental home in South Salem with the L. D. Gibbons.

Harold Davis vacationed with the Donald Davises at Eugene, where Donald is completing his last year in the University of Oregon.

Members of the Standard Bearers are requested to bring pieces of cotton prints with them when they come to their meeting place Thursday for their all-day meeting and covered dish luncheon.

One of the biggest Christmas day crowds gathered at the Emmett Dickson home with a family reunion numbering 30 parents and sons and brothers and their families. Following the turkey dinner the family tree and gift exchange was conducted with those participating in the jolly event including Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rierison, Mrs. Charles Wurm, Mr. and Mrs. George Lathrop, Oscar, Merle, Wilson Ray and John Phillip, Mrs. Martha A. Rierison, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips, Thelma and Carl Wurm, Estaline and Joe Rierison, Roland, Roy, Iris and Audrey Phillips, Shirley, Bonnie and Bobby Dickson, Kenneth and Wayne Lathrop and in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hathaway and daughter, Delore.

Workmen are making the improvements on Cascade drive that were voted at the last meeting of the council and already about 30 yards of gravel or crushed rock have been spread and some ditching done. This will be a fine improvement and was badly needed.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuhn was the scene of a very happy homecoming Sunday when all but one of their children returned for the day. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Kuhn and children, Betty and John of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lawrence and children, Joan and Davy of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kuhn and son, Donald, of West Salem, Ross and Ruth Kuhn of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boudy and children, Bob, Davis and Bonnie of McMinnville, and the parent-hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuhn. The one absent member of the family resides at Yakima and was unable to attend.

N. W. Robofson, who suffered a slight paralytic stroke last week is somewhat improving.

COMMUNITY ENJOYS HAPPY YULE EVENT

SPRING VALLEY, Dec. 27—The Spring Valley school and Community club held its Christmas program at the school house Friday night with a good attendance present in spite of sickness. The following program was given under direction of the teacher, Mrs. Ethel Sohn.

Children participating in song, music, skits and other features of the program were: Marjorie Matthews, Ella Bella Sohn, Julian Stratton, Retta Ebbert, Gladys Crawford, Blossom Counts, Doris Winslow, Ila Marie Versteeg, Lawrence McClure, Marvin Cook, Luanna Counts, Clair Counts, Dorey Wilson, Helen Cook, Gladys Crawford, Owen Counts, Marjorie Matthews, Dorothy Wilson, Cloydine Davidson, Lucille Hackett, Eldon Cook, Retta Ebbert, Arthur Yuzen, Lawrence McClure, Marlon Cook, Henry Anderson, Ronald Hoven, Jessie Counts.

Mrs. Hugh Craig accompanied by Mrs. Donnel Crawford and her mother, Mrs. J. C. Zinsler left by motor Wednesday for Los Angeles and Long Beach. They plan to spend about 10 days away.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Windsor entertained with a Christmas dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. John Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Harley McKinney of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McKinney, Mary and Lucille Hackett, Irene, Doris and Vernon Windsor as dinner guests.

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Dec. 27
The public, and especially all those who have known and loved the Popcorn neighborhood are invited to be present Sunday, January 1, at the annual homecoming sponsored by the Orchard Heights Women's club. A good program of a reminiscent character will be given in the afternoon. All are requested to bring contributions to the potluck dinner which will be served at 12:30 o'clock in the schoolhouse basement.

Mrs. H. R. McDowell and children with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fisher of Portland drove Sunday evening to Junction City where they were entertained Monday at a post-Christmas dinner by the parents of Mrs. McDowell and Mrs. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edgar were here for dinner Christmas day. Covers were placed for their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Zach Ekkins of Portland, Kenneth Edgar, Donald Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar.

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY

4-H CLUBS FORMED AT MARION SCHOOL

MARION, Dec. 27—The teachers of the Marion school gave treats of candy and nuts to the children Friday afternoon with the usual exchange of presents among the children. The three teachers, Miss Peheerson, Miss Hudson and Mrs. Sloan, left Friday evening for their homes till after the holidays.

Two 4-H clubs have been organized in the school. The Handicraft and Sewing club, under the leadership of Miss Francis Barber, and Miss Clara Schromacher. Those of the former club are, Betty Alison, Hazel and Wilma Larson, Ala Mae Moran, Luella Mae Morgan, and Ruth Overhauser of the latter, Catheryn Schmidt, Ethel Shirwood, Genevieve Larson, Luella Mae Rogers, Janet DeLauch, Lillian Christensen, Rosaire Barrette.

In spite of the stormy night approximately 275 people attended the annual Christmas tree and program Thursday night sponsored by the Community club and two churches. The president, Emil Schumacher, secretary-treasurer, Lester Colgan and Miss Rose Hutton, chairman of program, deserve great credit for the excellent presentation of the three-act play, "The Empty Room".

POPCORN TO HOLD 1933 HOMECOMING

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Dec. 27
The public, and especially all those who have known and loved the Popcorn neighborhood are invited to be present Sunday, January 1, at the annual homecoming sponsored by the Orchard Heights Women's club. A good program of a reminiscent character will be given in the afternoon. All are requested to bring contributions to the potluck dinner which will be served at 12:30 o'clock in the schoolhouse basement.

Mrs. H. R. McDowell and children with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fisher of Portland drove Sunday evening to Junction City where they were entertained Monday at a post-Christmas dinner by the parents of Mrs. McDowell and Mrs. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edgar were here for dinner Christmas day. Covers were placed for their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Zach Ekkins of Portland, Kenneth Edgar, Donald Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar.

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY