Salem Visitors Are Honored Guests

One of the inspiring motives for the holiday festivity has been the number of visitors in Salem. Three who prove to be always popular are Miss Euna Sterling of Seattle, now a guest at the Paul Wallace home, Mrs. Frank Jordan of Seattle and a guest now at the Henry W. Meyers home, and Mrs. Robert Kinny of Astoria, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores.

Miss Elizabeth Lord will entertain this afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock at her attractive new home on Mission street complimenting Mrs. Kinny. Intimate friends of the guest of honor have been asked to call.

A holiday color scheme of red and green used in charming official way by the decorative note for the next room where Miss Lord and Mrs. Kenny will receive. Miss Mabel Robertson will preside at the urns and Mrs. Frank Spears and Miss Edith Schryver will assist in serving.

Invited to give Mrs. Kinny are Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Arthur Rand, Miss Eleanor Plamondon of Seattle, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Dr. Helen Pearce, Miss Winifred Byrd, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. E. V. McMechan, Mrs. Chester Cox, Miss Ellen Thiesen, Mrs. Sheldon Sackett, Mrs. Frank Spears, and Miss Mabel Robertson.

Wednesday afternoon Miss Lord and Miss Edith Schryver entertained complimenting Mrs. Jordan and Miss Sterling. A one o'clock luncheon was served at a long table cleverly arranged. At one end of the long table was a silver bowl containing green and white wax fruit. At the other end of the table was a flat mirror flanked by crystal holder holding green tapers. Centering the table was a triangle of red cellophane edged with sprays of holly and sprigs of mistletoe. Favours of tiny and ferocious wool tigers bore the place cards.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Jordan and Miss Sterling and for Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. B. O. Schucking, Mrs. George Waters, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Lord and Miss Schryver.

Mrs. W. Al Jones, Miss Mabel Creighton and Creighton Jones are expected to return from Medford Friday where they have been holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter.

Writers Enjoy Holiday Meeting

An exceptionally interesting program was produced at the December meeting of the Writers section of the Salem Arts League when it met Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford on Ferry street. The December session at the Clifford home has become an established custom with the writers, and the event revealed unsuspected surprises.

Among the interesting features was a letter from Wesley Gordon, former member of the section, and former Willamette student, to Dr. Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, which was read by Mrs. Franklin. Mr. Gordon was interested in dramatics while in the university and reports from his home in California that the Hill Valley community theatre has produced a three-act play of his entitled "Los Gringos." This play will also be mentioned in a coming number of the Theatre Arts Monthly.

Dr. F. G. Franklin produced three poems written in Chinese by a former Willamette student, Mr. Wang, for which he obtained a translation. The poems were written in Salem and concerned themes relative to Oregon.

Dr. Mary Rowland presented pictured studies of deep sea fishes and also read a dox story entitled "Foster." Mrs. Gertrude Robinson Ross, whose poems have been read over the radio recently by Anthony Turner, was present for the first time after a long absence from the sessions of the section, and read several sonnets.

Others on the program were Prof. W. E. Lawrence, with two poems, "Death's Calendar" and "Rebirth." Mrs. Blanche Jones with a Christmas verse and another episode of her "Autobiography of a One-time Boy;" Mrs. Jessie Singleton, with an article, "The Shopper," Mrs. Edna Daily, with a rhymed playlet, "Sing a Song," Mrs. F. G. Franklin, with a review of recently discovered letter of James R. Lowell; Mrs. J. C. Nelson, with three poems, "Attic Salt," "The Loveliness of Things," and "To Christmas;" Professor M. E. Peck, with a narrative, "The King's Clemency." The poems read by Mrs. Ross were "Goodness, You Will Understand," "Sonnet," "I Think the Saddest of All Women," and "I'd Like to Be a Faithful Wife."

Other members present were Mrs. W. E. Lawrence, Mrs. Ora McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Cromemiller, Miss Lucy Higgins, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. M. E. Peck, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. E. R. Morse of Oswego, Perry Belmont, the leader, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford.

Merry Go Round Club Meets Tonight

One of the gayest of the winter parties enjoyed by the Merry Go Round club this year will be the winter picnic for which Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. Frank Snedecor, and Mrs. William B. Gordon will be hosts tonight at the Boise home.

The basement of the Boise residence has been reconstructed into a forest effect. Here under the imported trees a long picnic table has been arranged and supper will be served at 7 o'clock.

Following this card will be in play in the living rooms of the home.

Cloverdale—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kunke entertained at their home with a dinner, Christmas day. Covers were laid for Mrs. Myrtle Links and Ernest Kunke, Portland, Mrs. J. Fillet, Oscar and Palma Fillet, Chemawa, Joyce and Gordon Kunke and the hosts Mr. and Mrs. Kunke.
