INDEPENDENCE, Dec. 30 the new novel by Lloyd The Independence charity committee has been very busy about their work these last two weeks. Although they find that the need for charity work is not much greater here than it was last year, many children have been found almost destitute. During the Christmas holidays over 35 baskets of substantial food were distributed to needy familles. The committee has established a store on C street, where donations are received and from where the supplies are meted out. Some families who will work for them later in the spring. Independence
