

BETHEL LOCAL HAS SAME SET OFFICERS

BETHEL, Jan. 4.—The officers of the Bethel local of the Farmers' Union were re-elected for the coming year at the closed meeting held Monday night: W. L. Crooch, president; E. A. Rhoten, vice-president; Irvin Bartels, secretary-treasurer.

A. L. Schulz and H. H. Boles urged all farmers to attend the legislature, and by their presence and interest help to get legislation that will better conditions. The members took up the matter of the high rate charged by the telephone company for central service for the rural phone lines. The meeting went on record as favoring cutting off the rural phone lines at the city limits if the rates are not drastically lowered.

It was decided to do away with the initiation fee for Bethel local, and only charge the membership dues. This has been on trial for six months and is now to be discontinued indefinitely. Roy Marchand, A. C. Spranger and George Bahnsen are the committee on a membership drive.

Farmer Union members were urged to attend the county convention and election of officers to be held next Saturday with Sidney-Talbot local.

FRIENDS TOGETHER AFTER MANY YEARS

JEFFERSON, Jan. 4.—Mrs. H. C. Homyer accompanied Mrs. Edna Allen to Plainview Tuesday morning, and spent the day with old-time friends, the Olson family. They had not seen each other for 18 years. The Olsons are former Jefferson residents. Mrs. Homyer returned to Miss Anna Klampe's Tuesday night.

Garry Barna, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barna, underwent an appendix operation Saturday at Albany.

George Wilson returned to Portland Monday morning after spending the vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson. George is a student at the Portland Bible institute.

Fred Seebale of Oregon City spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bilyeu. Mr. Seebale is a brother of Mrs. Bilyeu, and is employed by the Southern Pacific company.

IN HOSPITAL HERE

HAYESVILLE, Jan. 4.—Berns Christopherson underwent a major operation at the Deaconess hospital early Monday morning. Mrs. Ethel Parr of Seattle was at Claxtar during the past week looking after business interests.

PARTED BY TEMPERAMENT

Temperament, the bugaboo blamed for the crash of most Hollywood romances, is announced as the grounds for the impending divorce of Janet Gaynor, screen star, from Lydell Peck (inset), former lawyer and now a film executive, according to a statement issued by Miss Gaynor's lawyer. They were married in 1929. Miss Gaynor, a leading box office attraction, has been in films for ten years.

Kansas Visitor at Shelburn Postponed; School Returned;

SHELburn, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Effie Haller of Kansas, who has been visiting with her brother and sister, C. D. Trexler and Mrs. C. D. Osborn, has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Trexler of Arlington, Wash., came down to spend a few days with Mrs. Haller before she left. A trained nurse is in attendance at the W. R. Kuiken home. Mr. and Mrs. Kuiken and son Lester are all ill.

Influenza Strikes at Home in Suver Area

SUVER, Jan. 4.—The flu seems to have taken a spite at this vicinity as there are and have been several cases of it here for the last two weeks. Mrs. Lora Arrell and son Frank of Eugene spent Monday at the John Ridders home. Mrs. Stack who is staying

POPCORN RESIDENTS HOLD ANNUAL EVENT

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Jan. 4.—Owing to the inclement weather, many who had planned to attend the annual home coming at Popcorn, Sunday were absent. However, more than 50 were seated at long tables in the school house basement where a potluck dinner was served. The following program was given in the afternoon. Words of welcome by Mrs. J. B. Best; short reminiscence talks by L. D. Gibson, Lot L. Pearce and Otis Wait; singing of old melodies led by J. P. Smart; group of vocal numbers by members of the Southwick family, Mrs. M. A. Schneller, Burnham Southwick, Blaine Southwick and Charles Roy; a paper, "Memories," written by Mrs. J. B. Smith and read by Mrs. John W. Simmons.

Among those present from away were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Porter, James Porter, Mrs. Goy Miller and daughters, Barbara and Beverly all of Junction City, Blaine Southwick of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Gibson and Lot L. Pearce of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wait and Otis Wait of Rekrall.

This affair observed yearly was sponsored by the Orchard Heights Women's club.

Growers' Club Has New Year's Party; Attendance Large

WEST STAYTON, Jan. 4.—The Growers' club gave a New Year watch party at the schoolhouse Saturday night. Special program features included readings by Ruth Kohl, Mrs. John W. Nipple, Mrs. Frank Kohl; short addresses by Fred Comstock, president, and Owen Lacy, vice-president; music numbers by Mrs. Elmer Asche and daughter Dorothy, song by Marvin Lacy, violin solos by Vern Irish accompanied by Mrs. Harry Rishel, and music by the local orchestra.

There were several invited guests and a large crowd in attendance. The party was given by the women for the men.

Keithleys are Hosts For Saturday Party

NORTH SANTIAM, Jan. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Keithley were hosts for a watch party at their home Saturday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Arden Hammer, Mina Keithley, Willis Keith-

"HEIR" HELD

Unable to furnish $10,000 bail, Thomas Patrick Morris, erstwhile claimant for the millions of the late Ella Wendel, is shown in court at New York as he was held on four indictments charging fraud. The aged house painter pleaded not guilty. Morris claimed he was the son of John G. Wendel and produced documents in support of his contention, but the court ruled them forgeries.

Senior Scholars At Independence Get Highest Rate

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 4.—The honor roll of the high school came out Tuesday afternoon. The seniors proved to be the highest in citizenship, and they also were highest in scholarship. The honor roll was:

No grades below one: Georgia Jones, Elizabeth Baker, Doris McGowan, Clara Syverson and Zora Berry. Ones and twos: Olga Syverson, Phillip Sperling, Glen Hardman and Joe Komolo. No grades below a two: Maxine Foster, Maxine Carey, Maurice Hunsbitt, Catherine Taylor, Maxine Hunsbitt, Lora Arrell, Edna Grover and Mildred White.

PRIMARY STUDENTS GET MORE VACATION

GRAND ISLAND, Jan. 4.—The primary room in the school was closed Tuesday morning for an indefinite length of time due to the illness of the instructor, Miss Lucille Fisher.

Unionvale Evangelical Sunday school will hold its election of officers for the coming year at the church Friday night. This is the third time a date has been set for the meeting, due to cold and flu conditions.

The election of officers for the coming year in the Grand Island Improvement club will be held during the regular business meeting of the club at the schoolhouse Saturday night. The program will be in charge of Arlo Hill, Adelbert Smith and Harold Anderson.

Aubrey Weems Saturday morning nearly completely severed his first two fingers at the first joint on the right hand while he and Robert Anderson were sawing logs.

Burial Rites Held For James Stoner, Aurora Cemetery

AURORA, Jan. 4.—James Stoner, 47, who died Monday night at the home of his brother, after an illness of only two weeks, was buried in the Aurora cemetery Wednesday afternoon following funeral services under the direction of Miller's Funeral Home, Rev. E. L. Grafious reading the service. He was born in North Dakota in 1886, where he lived until coming to Aurora two years ago, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Stoner and his brothers have been residents for a number of years.

Surviving are a widow and son Clair, his parents, and four brothers, Ben, Rev. Ed and Orville Stoner, all of Aurora, and two sisters, Mrs. Ida Atkins, Oak Grove, and Mrs. Florence Lettenmaier, Evergreen Station.

Big-4 Telephone Group Will Hold Meeting Saturday

BETHEL, Jan. 4.—The Big-4 Telephone company, consisting of rural lines 109-48-47-68-19, will hold the annual meeting and election of officers at the Bethel school Saturday night, Jan. 7, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is strongly urged as important business is to come up. A. L. Schulz will preside. A. E. Marchand of Salem for many years a resident of Bethel district, is seriously ill of pneumonia in a Salem hospital.

IN ACCIDENT

In the national spotlight when he waged the fight for Sacco and Vanzetti, Powers Hapgood (above), Socialist leader, of Indianapolis, Ind., is in a critical condition as the result of being accidentally shot by his friend, William L. Hines, while practicing with a rifle on his farm. Hapgood was Socialist candidate for Governor of Indiana at the last election.

come up. A. L. Schulz will preside. A. E. Marchand of Salem for many years a resident of Bethel district, is seriously ill of pneumonia in a Salem hospital.

Odd Fellows Name Officers for 1933; Teachers at Meet

FALLS CITY, Jan. 4.—Officers for the coming year have been elected and appointed for Luckiamote lodge No. 150, A. F. & A. M. They are: Rova Helm, worshipful master; Tom James, senior warden; Dale Ickes, senior deacon; Frank Brown, junior deacon; Ned Smith, senior steward; Sol Winslow, junior steward; Ira Mohrling, marshal; H. Mather Smith, chaplain; Ira Davis, tyler; E. B. Watt, secretary; M. L. Thompson, treasurer.

Teachers from the local schools attending the Oregon state teachers' convention in Portland last week were Miss Laurens Treat and Miss Irma Locke from the grade school and Prof. D. J. Ickes from the high school. Miss Locke went as delegate from Polk county.

DOGS DISCOVERED AT SHEEP KILLING

BETHEL, Jan. 4.—Two dogs were found at daylight Tuesday morning destroying a flock of pure bred Hampshire sheep on the A. L. Boff farm.

When Ernest Bower reached the pasture one sheep had been killed outright and several others were injured and torn. The dogs escaped but were seen plainly and can be identified. The sheep were chosen ewes that had been selected from the other flocks and placed in the home pasture.

Former Resident Of Monmouth Is Called by Death

MONMOUTH, Jan. 4.—Word was received here Tuesday of the death of Miss Maude Rice, 26, which occurred January 1 in Eugene at the Rice home. Miss Rice lived in Monmouth for several years and attended the training school and high school. She was born in Central City, Ia., May 26, 1896, and came with her parents to Monmouth in 1914. The family moved to Eugene in 1921.

Miss Rice was graduated from a nurses' training school in Eugene and was a member of the Resident Nurses' association there. Surviving are her mother, Mrs. Ella M. Rice; a brother, Emmet A. Rice of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and two sisters, Margaret and Mary of Eugene. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. in Eugene with burial in Rest Haven park.

Basement Flooded So Vacation Longer

SALEM HEIGHTS, Jan. 4.—On account of the severe storm Sunday the machinery and furnace was under two feet of water in the school basement. F. M. Erickson, chairman of the board, stated that school will not take up until Monday, as it will take several days to remedy conditions. Many people had basements flooded for the first time during this storm.

By WALT DISNEY

Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

A crossword puzzle grid with numbers 1 through 65 indicating starting positions for words.

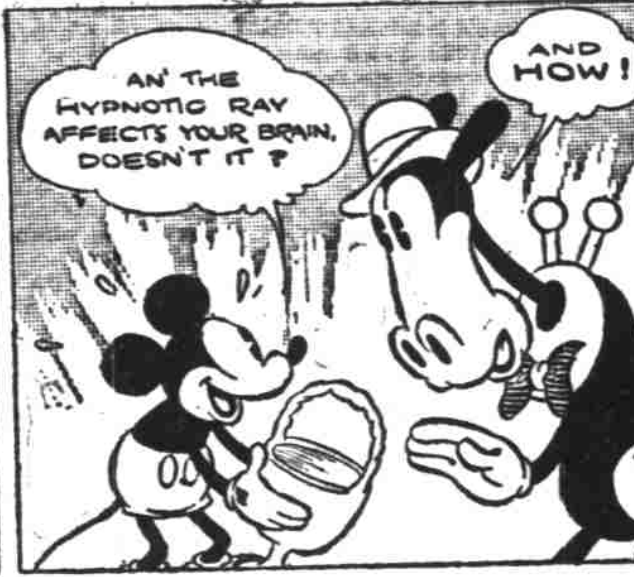

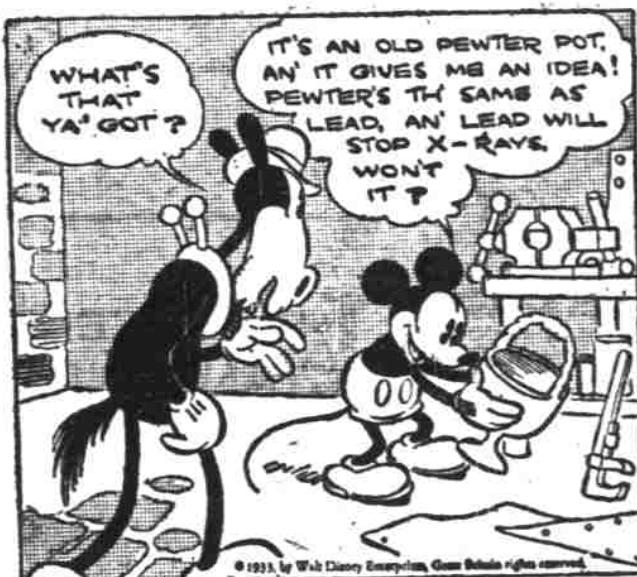

- 1-Domesticated ox of Tibet
2-Girl's name
3-Covering for the head
4-Historical period
5-Which state once went "hell bent for Kent"?
6-Unit
7-Who wrote "The Descent of Man"?
8-Unit
9-Classic
10-Uppermost part
11-Color
12-Dry; said of wines
13-Encircling band
14-Flowers
15-Lowbred presuming person
16-Fish eggs
17-Part of "to be"
18-Who thought that "war is hell"?
19-Figure pronoun
20-Wager
21-Night before a holiday
22-Boundary
23-Sensitive to pain
24-Consumed
25-Throw
26-Ancient
27-Penetrates
28-Which president of the U. S. succeeded Polk?
29-Ran in suddenly
30-Be indebted to
31-Upright piece of a step
32-Beverage
33-Being in the most abstract sense
34-Remain
35-Place

- 11-Writing implement
12-What English poet, author of "Come down to Kew in lilac time," is visiting the U. S.?
13-Steal from
14-Conceal
15-Snatches
16-What character in Shakespeare was the son of Montague?
17-Rotating piece on a wheel
18-What king of France was known as the "lost dauphin"?
19-Examinations
20-Feminine pronoun
21-Split pulse
22-Girl's name
23-Saltpeper
24-In what city of northeastern France, on the Seine, was an important treaty signed in 1420?
25-Human
26-Cloth measure
27-Wager
28-Finished
29-Girl's name
30-Allowance for weight of a container
31-Digit
32-Small pointed process
33-Prominent ridge in cloth
34-Highest tone in Guido's scale
35-Former governor of Algiers
36-Note of the musical scale

Herewith is the solution to yesterday's Puzzle.
DELEGATE DUAL
AFTER SOW ONCE
TENANT E BODIES
FRIT ALLERIES
LINED GASPAN
ARTS FIIG OGRE
ANTARIO IRLAND
ANONGRELL
SPINAL SON LALE
SPIALIRREGALM
REIN AME ANON
SERE RESORTED

- 1-Still
2-Exist
3-In what state is the second largest livestock market in the world?
4-Arabian chieftain
5-Endures
6-Chinese measure
7-Consumption
8-Tidy
9-What English romantic poet referred to himself as "the stricken deer"?
10-Bird of the cuckoo family

MICKY MOUSE

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

Now Showing—"The Cheer Leader"

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

"All Aboard!"

By DARRELL McCLURE

TOOTS AND CASPER

"Within An Ace Of Exposure"

By JIMMY MURPHY

