State Conference Date Set

At the executive board meeting held by the state O. A. R. organization Wednesday, the date for the biennial conference, the state conference dates were set for the last three days of March. Following this, April 1 will be the state meeting of the Children of the American Revolution. Salem will be represented at this meeting by Champeole chapter.

Mrs. W. H. Byrd and Mrs. A. E. Austin were representatives of Champeole chapter of Salem at the board meeting.

Woodburn.—A short but interesting program was given Wednesday afternoon for the Women's club. Rev. Katherine Powell, librarian, told of the books in the public library. In comparing modern books and works of the Victorian age, Mrs. Powell said that the present books leave nothing untold, while the older books took care to tell nothing. Mrs. Muir, principal of the Lincoln grade school told what is being accomplished with hot lunches served at the school without cost.

Joan Freeburg gave the recitation "The Highwayman." Mrs. V. D. Bain announced that the next meeting of the club, to be held February 1, will be held at the high school. High school students will give the program.

Hostesses were Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Miss Carrie Waterbury, Mrs. Paul Mills, Mrs. A. C. Nelson, Mrs. Ida Parr and Mrs. M. L. Hendricks. Members of the hospital committee were Mrs. W. J. Wilson and Mrs. J. J. Hall.

Monmouth.—Sunbeam circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, installed officers at the Tuesday night meeting. Mrs. C. E. Price was installing officer. Mrs. Agnes Hoag will be guardian neighbor again this year.

Other officers are: Mrs. J. F. Moreland, P. G. N.; Mrs. Anna Hinkle, adviser; Mrs. Nora Mason, clerk; Mrs. Ed Hamar, banker; Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Sadie Waller and Mrs. Ben Pollan, managers; Mrs. Harry Sharrow, magician; Mrs. R. E. Derby, I. S.; Mrs. Alice Yeater, O. S.; Mrs. Minnie White, captain of guards; Eria Mae Murdock, flag bearer; Mrs. C. J. Stanton, musician; Mrs. Adeline Calbreath, correspondent.

Mrs. Hoag and Mrs. Calbreath presided at the refreshment table which was attractively arranged in the lodge living room.

P. L. E. and F. Club Enjoys Meeting

Mrs. Laura Johnson assisted by Mrs. Maggie Knighton, entertained members of the P. L. E. and F. club at her home for the club's regular meeting this week.

A potluck luncheon was served at noon and the afternoon was spent in sewing new curtains for the clubroom. Mrs. Ella Lansing will be the next hostess to the group at her home, 1335 North Cottage street.

Present for the afternoon were Mary Ratcliffe, Francis Greenwood, Ella Lantz, Lettie Hanson, Hester Hogan, Jennie Gould, Ruth Johnson, Della Schelberg, Ella Lansing, Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg, Azel Hixon, Lorain Patterson.

C. A. R. Plan Active Program

Active plans for the future were being developed at the regular meeting of the Children of the American Revolution Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Sprague. The group will wait word from the D. A. R. chapter as to what part they may take in assisting with the chapter's next regular meeting in February.

Miss Ruth Geer gave a talk concerning the "Evolution of the Flag," and Miss Ola Clark gave instruction as to the correct use of the flag. These talks were followed by round table discussion.

A social hour with refreshments served by Mrs. Sprague assisted by Miss Martha Sprague concluded this meeting.

Woodburn.—A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Richards at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, January 1, when their daughter, Julia Agnes, was united in marriage to Charles A. Gould of Sheridan.

The bride was beautifully gown-ed in beige and carried pink carnations. Howard E. Richards, brother of the bride, was best man.

The impressive ceremony was read by Rev. M. V. Whetzel of Portland, who was the bride's pastor in Oklahoma.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, Miss Laura Boye, cousin of the bride, sang "O Promise Me." Following the ceremony a breakfast was served.

Mrs. Gould is a graduate of the Oklahoma state normal, and also of the Seattle Pacific college, and has been a student teacher in Oregon for the past nine years. Mr. Gould is in the furniture business at Sheridan. The couple will be at home after January 15 at Ballston.

Monmouth.—Mrs. M. M. Mings and Mrs. J. F. Santee entertained the Social Hour club Wednesday afternoon at the former's home. A large number of members and guests enjoyed the affair. A program of music, arranged by Mrs. William Riddell and Mrs. G. Guthrie included a short talk on the origin of musical instruments by Mrs. R. D. Elliott.

A vocal trio composed of Mrs. M. J. Butler and Mrs. Ellen Davis of Independence, and Mrs. D. A. Hoag of Monmouth pleased with several numbers. Mrs. Loren Mort of Independence gave a violin solo. Mrs. Elliott accompanied both groups at the piano.

Silverton.—Silverton friends are interested to learn of the marriage of Brenda Bowen-Wilson to Thomas J. Wilson on New Year's at Portland. Mrs. Wilson had been living with her mother, Mrs. C. L. Bowen for a number of months. The Wilsons are living at Portland.
