JEFFERSON TO CALL ACCREDITED AUDITOR

JEFFERSON, Jan. 7.—The city council met Tuesday night in the library for a called session. The outgoing mayor, W. L. Jones, had charge of the unfinished business of 1932. After much discussion, it was decided to have the city of Jefferson's books audited, and the recorder was ordered to ask the county court to appoint an accredited auditor to audit the books.

Mayor Jones then turned the meeting over to the newly-elected mayor, Mrs. Edna Allen, placing in her possession the bond of the city recorder. Mrs. Allen was already in possession of the city charter. City Recorder Howell was sworn in and the other new officers, the mayor, and Nettie Reeves as a member of the council, had previously been sworn in.

The new mayor gave an interesting talk, and stated that the committees remain the same for the present. A motion was carried that hereafter the council will meet in the Cobb Manufacturing plant on Second street, on the second Monday night of each month.

HIGHWAY WORKER SUFFERS INJURIES

AURORA, Jan. 7.—Bernard Cole is suffering from injuries sustained while moving buildings off the right of way of the highway. While removing gas tanks on a two wheeled trailer from Stone's garage the trailer broke loose from the towing car and turned over, throwing Bernard into the air, hitting the pavement when he descended. While the injuries were painful, no bones were broken.

The "Top O' the Hill" lunch rooms, camp grounds and dining station was transformed this week by Dyer and Boyd to William Strogg who has been living in Canby and whose house was recently burned at that place. The lunch room has been a favorite eating place for local people as well as tourists.

Harley Teller, working at moving the Andrew Miller house out of the highway right of way, suffered a broken arm while on the job.

Rev. H. F. Grafious is convalescing from a severe illness and expects to attend his church duties Sunday.

Officers Assume Jobs at Special Meeting, Council

SUBLIMITY, Jan. 7.—A special meeting of the town council was held Tuesday night, when the officers elected November 8, assumed their duties as follows:

Councilman, John Zuber, N. R. Lulay, L. M. Doerfler, Al Hassler, Philip Wagner; recorder, J. A. Lulay; treasurer, J. P. Ditter; marshal, E. A. Ditter.

Councilman John Zuber was elected mayor by the council. Routine business was taken up as also was other matters requiring attention of city officials.

F. A. Boyington Joins Salem Realtor Staff

STATTON, Jan. 7.—F. A. Boyington, who has been devoting his time between his poultry farm above Mehama and his real estate office here, announces that he has formed a connection with Sears & Tucker, Salem realtors, and hereafter will handle all listing through that firm. He will close his Statton office.

REVIVAL HEAD

Rev. W. E. Cox of Portland, who is starting his third and last week of revivals today at the Rosedale Friends church, south of Salem. Cox is assisting with the music.

Thursday Thimble Club Has Meeting With Mrs. Kelley

RIVERVIEW, Jan. 7.—The Thursday Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Russel Kelley, with Mrs. Anna Holt as joint hostess. Due to the many ill with flu only 15 members were present. A committee for the quilt to be made for the harvest festival next fall was appointed: Mrs. Ralph MacDonald, Mrs. John Gardner and Mrs. Paul Bartink.

The kitchen gift exchange and birthday fund was discontinued. Under new business a motion was made to remove the names from the roll of those who had not paid their dues for a year's time, or attended club in that time, without reasonable excuse. Hereafter each member must entertain the club as her turn comes or give some plausible excuse or her name will be removed from the roll. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Margaret Kelley with Mrs. Anna Bertling as joint hostess January 19.

DODELE HUNT GOES ON BUT NO SUCCESS

Albany man Missing Since December 28; Was Transferred Here

MONMOUTH, Jan. 7.—Continued efforts to find George Dodele of Albany, missing since the morning of December 28, have failed despite the $500 reward offered. Mr. Dodele, a middle aged man, had been ill for some time, and returned home Christmas eve from a hospital in San Francisco where he had been receiving medical treatment. At the Christmas dinner table at his home in Albany he became so ill that a physician was summoned. He rallied, and went out for a walk the morning of December 28 and was last seen by a child in their neighborhood, crossing a cemetery.

Mr. Dodele was born and reared at Wells, Polk county, about 12 miles south of Monmouth, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Dodele. He had lived in Albany for about 23 years, and for more than 20 years had been in the employ of the Southern Pacific company. He leaves his widow, his mother, a daughter, Miss Pearl Dodele, who teaches in Myrtle Point, and one son, Fernal, a junior at Albany college.

He recently had been transferred to Salem, but owing to the state of his health had not moved there. He is a brother-in-law of Miss Ida Bush, Frank and Simeon Bush, who live between Monmouth and Independence, who believe he was suffering from mental derangement as result of his illness.

Statton Has 58 New Arrivals, 38 Deaths

STATTON, Jan. 7.—Mrs. Margaret Schaefer, registrar of vital statistics here, reports that in the year of 1932 there were 58 babies born in Statton and surrounding territory, 34 girls and 24 boys. The number of deaths amounted to 38, with 23 males and 15 females. Four of the deaths were accidental, caused by autos, and four were suicidal.

IVERSON FAMILY MOVES

SPRING VALLEY, Jan. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Iverson and their children, Elmer, Corinne, Lois Jean, Bertram and Billie, and Mrs. Iverson's mother, Mrs. Mary Lewis, have moved from their farm here, the former Frank Smith place, to Salem. A family by name of Bender has moved in.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Jan. 7.—Mrs. Bertha Englehorn and her family were recent guests at the home of her daughter and family, the Chris Burritt at Hoquiam, Wash., remaining for a number of days and upon their return to West Salem the daughter, Mrs. Burritt accompanied them home for a visit.

J. R. Brown cut his left hand quite severely while cutting wood one day the last of the week. The first meeting of the executive committee and official board of the community club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William L. La Due Thursday night to discuss club projects for the coming year. Lloyd Miller is the newly elected president and Mrs. Robert Pattison the secretary-elect. Mrs. Jack A. Gossler will be chairman of the entertainment committee for the next meeting.

J. Duncan, who recently opened the Farmers' Trading Post on Edgewater street with the help of his musical troupe, broadcast a good program from station KWJL, Portland, Friday noon, advertising West Salem and producing some fine music.

MUSICAL PROGRAM MAKES GREAT HIT

LABISH CENTER, Jan. 7.—A musical program given by nine students from the Chemawa Indian school which made a distinct hit with the capacity audience and a short address by E. L. Moore, president of the Marion county federation of community clubs, were high lights of the local club's meeting Friday night at the schoolhouse.

During the business session, presided over by J. F. Pugh, the club voted to hold a pie social in connection with next month's meeting; both whole pies and single pieces being auctioned off following the women's program in the rivalry series. Mr. Moore outlined three of the federation's competitions: attendance, club or community history, and beautification.

The program consisted of numbers by a string ensemble: steel guitar, Woodrow Ball; chorder, Charles Butler; ukuleles, Francis Thomas, Collins Anderson, and Louis Pitt. The male quartet, whose personnel included Oscar Braden and Joe White, first and second tenors, and Louis Pitt and Peter Levay, basses, sang groups of negro spirituals and plantation numbers. Numbers in a popular vein were sung by Eddie Nanpooya and Oscar Braden.

Committees for the men's March program are: program, Harry Boehm and Harry Bennett; refreshments, Harry Lovre and Horace Bibby.

Corvallis, Cop Smith and Victor Mandy of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knapp of near Florence, parents of Mrs. Donald Endicott, returned to their home the last of this week.

Frederick J. Birch, janitor of the school buildings, has cleaned the basement rooms that were flooded with water, washed them out and dried and waxed the cement and the buildings are now ready for the reopening of school next week.

Mrs. Myrtle Johnson was called to Mill City to be at the bedside of her six mother, Mrs. Johnson. Dinner guests at the Lyle Thomas home Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Savage, teachers in a school near Klamath Falls. The Savages and Thomases were schoolmates at Monmouth a few years ago.

Rev. and Mrs. John Evans entertained Rev. and Mrs. Robt. Allison of Eatonville, Wn., this week. Clean Out Sewers

At the instigation of the street committee and the committee on sanitation and health, the holes of the city were flushed and cleaned thoroughly the last of the week, after the drainage of water from basements in the hopes that it will be better for all since the high water.

At the instigation of the street committee and the committee on sanitation and health, the holes of the city were flushed and cleaned thoroughly the last of the week, after the drainage of water from basements in the hopes that it will be better for all since the high water.

KIWANIS CLUB HAS FIRST 1933 MEET

DALLAS, Jan. 7.—The Dallas Kiwanis club held its first meeting of the new year Friday noon at the El Centro cafe with a total of 23 members and guests attending. W. L. Soehren, newly-elected president, gave a talk dealing with the plans for 1933.

An announcement was made regarding changes in the lineup of the committees. E. J. Page replaces J. R. Allgood on the program committee and K. E. Burke replaces Page on the inter-club relations committee. Mr. Page, as secretary of the club, read the 1932 financial report.

Guests were Carl Graves, new county clerk; Frank McGee of King's Valley and E. M. Hayes of Portland. Frank Farmer and A. V. Oliver, former members of the club, were welcomed back to the group.

Following the regular meeting, President Soehren called a meeting of the directors of the club to decide on several matters of importance. The main matter which was settled was the reelection of E. J. Page as secretary of the club. The newly elected directors are C. L. Crider, N. L. Guy, Maurice Dalton, Walter Williams, Hugh G. Black, E. J. Page, Cecil Riggs and J. R. Allgood.

HOME TALENT IS PROGRAM FEATURE

SWEGLE, Jan. 7.—The Swegle community club held its regular meeting Friday night. After the business of the evening was disposed of the meeting was turned over to John Whitehead, who had charge of the entertainment. The program was local talent and was thoroughly enjoyed. It follows: Song, Carol Schaffer, accompanied by her sister Bernice; piano and cornet, selections, Mrs. K. K. Adams and son, R. Adams and Warren Biggestaff; song, Charlotte Knight; reading, Mr. Oglesby; old-time music, violin and piano, J. Marshall and William Kroepelin; Russian folk dance, L. Lovelace; tumbling, Gertrude Seguin; song, Mrs. Simpson accompanied by Mrs. Isherwood.

J. Marshall and Dr. K. K. Adams were appointed to represent the club at the legislative session; Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Swingle and Mrs. Simpson were appointed on the refreshment committee and Mr. Biggestaff on the entertainment committee; R. A. West, Mrs. Edwin Imig and Mr. Swingle, sick committee.
