Mrs. Kenneth Waters was hostess to the Bono Tempo club at her home Thursday afternoon. A delightful tea hour followed cards.

Scholarship Loan Tea Planned

MUCH interest is displayed each year by the Salem Woman's club and its many friends in the annual Scholarship Loan tea which is sponsored by the clubs of the State Federation of Women's clubs over the state.

This tea is for the purpose of raising funds to add to the scholarship loan fund maintained by the state organization, a fund which never has had sufficient reserve to meet the demands made upon it by meritorious girls of the state, struggling to secure an education without necessary funds.

The tea this year will be an event of January 25 at the home of Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr. It comes under the head of the applied education department, of which Mrs. David Wright is chairman and Mrs. J. N. Devers sub-chairman. Mrs. Devers is in charge of the scholarship loan work. Her committee includes Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Walter Winslow and Mrs. U. G. Shipley.

Other plans are to follow as rapidly as they are developed.

American Lutheran Guild to Install

The Ladies Guild of the American Lutheran church will meet Wednesday afternoon in the church rooms at 2:30 o'clock. The main feature of the meeting will be the installation of officers for the coming year.

Mrs. William Hagedorn will preside as president this year; Mrs. J. A. Sholseth, first vice-president; Mrs. Herman Tasto, second vice-president; Mrs. Elton Thompson, secretary; Mrs. Carl Bahlborg, treasurer; Mrs. M. M. Trindle, financial secretary; Mrs. Claude Glenn, leader of mission study.

Mrs. Ruth Bedford will present a musical program and this will be followed by a tea hour. Hostesses for the tea hour will be Mrs. B. A. Kolbe, Mrs. R. A. Horn and Mrs. P. L. Trommlitz.

Social Afternoon Club to Meet

The social afternoon club of the Order of Eastern Star has planned an interesting program for the regular meeting for Tuesday afternoon. Talks will be made by Mrs. Lena Cherrington, charter member of the lodge, and by Mrs. Stella Henry and Mrs. Lena Beecher.

Special music will be presented by William McGilchrist, Sr.

Salem Garden club will hear a discussion of fertilizers by R. V. Sluman of Portland and of spraying by S. H. Van Trump at the regular meeting Monday night at the chamber of commerce rooms. The public is invited.

Mrs. William Spiers will entertain members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee church at her home Wednesday afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. E. J. Williams will lead the devotions and Mrs. Gordon Black will have charge of the lesson.

Salem Matrons Make Plans To Compliment Visitors In City

WITH the advent of legislature come many prominent women of the state to remain in Salem during the time that their distinguished men of the family are busy with the state's affairs. Each session means a renewal of many friendships and much formal and informal entertaining.

One of the first large gestures of welcome to visiting friends is on the part of the Monday night dancing club which will dance Monday night at Castilian hall and which has a number of the visitors in Salem on its list of special guests for the attractive formal dance.

Another large gesture of social friendliness on the part of Salem matrons will be the tea given by the Salem Woman's club at the clubhouse January 28 at which time women in Salem for the legislative session are especially invited guests.

Several of the legislative visitors will be asked to assist with the scholarship loan tea which is being given January 25 at the home of Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr.

Among the prominent visiting women who have been in Salem this past week are Mrs. Fred Kiddle, Mrs. Earl Snell, both at the Royal Court apartments; Mrs. Harry Corbett, Mrs. Lynn Jones, Mrs. James Chinnock, and Miss Vinton Scott, Mrs. R. M. Waltz, Mrs. C. B. Spencer, Mrs. Elmer Wooten, and Mrs. George Lewis.

Mrs. Bert Ford entertained her club which usually meets on Monday at her home Saturday afternoon. Luncheon was followed by an afternoon of cards.

Alpha Phi Mothers To Meet Tuesday

Members of the Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers will be the guests of Mrs. Mason Bishop and Mrs. J. D. Foley for the regular meeting of the club Tuesday afternoon at the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority home.

The meeting is called for 2 o'clock. An informal social afternoon is being planned.

Mrs. Joe Lane entertained members of her club Thursday afternoon at her home on Center street.
