

STATE CREDIT VITAL FACTOR

Must be Preserved at all Costs Declares Upton; Hands Meier Praise

The credit of the state of Oregon must be preserved at all costs, whether new taxes are provided or old ones restored, Jay H. Upton, senator from Bend, told Salem Kiwanis club members Tuesday. Upton predicted that a modified sales tax would be introduced in the regular legislative session. He characterized hopes of raising large sums of revenue from an income tax as a "fantasy." Upton declared real property in Oregon could not stand the burden of additional levies.

The senator praised the Meier administration warmly, saying Governor Meier was unique among governors in the state's history in returning $1,000,000 of legislative appropriations to the general fund of the treasury.

"I did not support the Meier forces two years ago and am not in the councils of the administration now," Upton said, "but I must confess the savings in the last biennium and the greatly reduced budget for the next biennium are decidedly meritorious."

Budget Courageous Kiwanians Are Told

Upton said Henry Hansen's budget was the best ever produced and that Hansen's courage to cut out unneeded departments made him worth many times his salary.

The senator said he was not certain what course the state would take to meet its financial problems. He indicated the state's plight was exceeded by Oregon's counties which were experiencing tremendous tax delinquencies.

The senator said he was impressed by the ardor, the orderliness and the soundness of many of the proposals of the "hunger marchers" who came to a joint session of the legislature Monday. Upton said he would support repeal of the criminal syndicalism act.

Business leaders must pay more attention to keeping men employed, must think less of profits and more of the under man, Upton declared. He said the economic system was unsound when it created starvation in a land of plenty; surpluses in a nation of underconsumption.

40 Days Too Short For Legislative Work

The senator said he was firmly of the opinion 40 days was too short a time for a legislative session with 800 bills to consider. At best many vexing problems must not be touched due to the short time available.

Senator Upton congratulated Marion county residents as people living in the best situated county in the state financially; a state payroll providing a steady income and every indication pointing to a remarkable revival of the hop business. Upton said he stood for the immediate abolition of the 18th amendment.

RECEIVERSHIP FOR CITIES PROPOSED

Legislation authorizing receivership for bankrupt cities was discussed at a meeting of the League of Oregon Cities in this city Tuesday. The draft of a proposed bill was presented by J. L. Hope, Astoria attorney, who asked the league to support the general principal involved.

Hope said that Astoria is $4,500,000 in the red on bond obligations and would be fortunate if by a refinancing plan under receivership it can repay $1,000,000 of this amount. He sounded a warning to other cities which are headed toward a similar financial status.

The bill provides for the appointment of a receivership for any municipality which has defaulted more than six months in bond interest or principal payments. The receiver would be given full control of the city finances through legislative and judicial functions.

Baker Senator Is Honored on 67th Birthday

William H. Strayer, for more than 18 years a member of the state senate and for many sessions the only Democrat in the upper house of the Oregon legislature, yesterday received numerous congratulatory messages on the occasion of his 67th birthday anniversary.

Personal tribute also was paid Senator Strayer by his colleagues in the senate. President Kiddie and Senators Woodward, Staples and Goss thanked Senator Strayer for his many years of conscientious service, lauded his sound judgment and characterized him as the senate's most valuable member.

Hale Appointed Senate Bouncer

Leslie Hale, Portland war veteran and former resident of LaGrande, yesterday was appointed by President Kiddie assistant sergeant-at-arms of the senate. Lois Riggs of Salem and Eryth Eoskins of Stanfield were appointed senate pages.

TO TAKE NORMAL COURSE BRUSH GRIBBE, Jan. 10.—Miss Inga Goplerud, a graduate of the University of Oregon will attend the Mt. Angel Academy, studying the normal course, during the spring months. Miss Goplerud will begin her studies Monday.

The Capitol Incidents and Personalities More or Less Connected With the State Legislature and Its Achievements

CORNELIA Marvin Pierce, wife of the new congressman from La Grande, was having a glorious time at the session yesterday. She wore flowers and carried a corsage. Her face beamed. Used to public office through years of service as state librarian, Mrs. Pierce was obviously delighted to be back in the swim. She and the ex-governor have returned from Roseburg where he inspected the soldiers' home there being constructed by the federal government. Sunday Mrs. Pierce was in Portland where the board of higher education made some drastic cuts in next year's budget. The cuts were well-publicized in Monday morning's papers; the board wanted the ways and means committee of both legislative houses to be fully advised on its action.

Mrs. Pierce made more than 100 speeches for her husband in his campaign last spring and fall. At first she let the word go out that she might run on the republican ticket; the idea won much publicity. When the showdown came, Mrs. Pierce, who claims to be a republican, state administration for years have been G. O. P.—was right on the democratic bandwagon, supporting F. D. R. and the democratic proposals. "Relief" was the principal Pierce slogan; relief for taxpayers, mortgage owners, unemployed, wheat growers, soldiers and whomsoever wanted it. Means of providing said relief, the welded campaigners wisely refused from giving much attention—except of course higher and heavier income taxes, gift taxes—anything that most people would not have to pay but theoretically could garner help from.

William Hanley, former state highway commissioner, was likewise happy as a lark yesterday when he visited around the legislative halls. Hanley's black hat, white locks, robust figure, benign smile make him picturesque. He loved the state highway job and was sorely hurt when the exigencies of politics wiped him out, politically speaking. Hanley has much animus to Charles Spaulding who as a co-commissioner embarrassed him in public and in private. Speaking to friends, Hanley characterized Spaulding as "that nasty little fellow."

Technocracy reveals itself in the press services at the statehouse. In former days telegraph operators were scattered in statehouse corners there to dot-and-dash the news to Portland papers where other telegraphers received and typewrote the incoming stories. Now cheaply paid girls sit at automatic machines and typewrite the press stories. No receiver is needed on the other end. The result is half the salary need be paid for one girl where formerly two full salaries for a man were needed. Technocracy, incidentally, is not a new word. It was used away back in 1919 and a Berkeley paper at that time printed articles about it. When hand workers were ousted in England by the machine, and steam power replaced horses and men, the same thought was expressed although the new craze of terming it "technocracy" was not in vogue.

EVERY YEAR, the common cold costs America over a billion dollars! Every year, colds imprison people at home—away from work—for more than 90 million days!

These figures are based on estimates of the United States Public Health Service.

Nor does this terrific penalty imposed by colds include their misery and annoyance—their trouble and worry—their actual danger to health.

Now Comes RELIEF!

Happily—now—a way has been found to lift much of this burden. It comes with the new Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds.

In clinical tests among thousands last winter, Vicks Plan reduced the number and duration of colds by half—cut the danger and costs of colds more than half!

To millions of American homes, the Plan has already brought new freedom from colds.
