But the Old Boy Dosent have to sell good goods like these at such low prices—Its Rather Nice Tho havin a jolly old uncle—but such "optimism" you know New Year day was hardly through dawning when that shy old rascal had a 1932 income blank delivered to us. Of course we wrote right back to him and told him what we needed more income blanks was "out-go Blanks" and if he had any of em which we guessed he did (certain to what we heard) he better send us a couple of them cause income blanks don't seem to fit our pocket book any to well for 1932, we haven't heard from him in a rounabout way since we wrote him. Seems he's got a lot of boys over ther tryin to figure out some way to get some of our out go seeing we didnt have no income—and now before 1933 gets any older we' quote a few prices that'll make 1932 look like—(oh well look like what it really was) anyway heres a chance to lay in a food supply at a price low enough to maake a wooden Indian grin.
