Fraternities Will Be Hosts for Parties

Saturday night fraternities of Willamette university will entertain with annual semester parties, parties which are greatly anticipated by the university socially minded.

The most formal of the three parties will be that for which Sigma Tau fraternity will entertain. This will be a formal banquet at Masonic temple beginning at 8:00 o'clock. It is expected that covers will be placed for 60 guests.

Both Kappa Gamma Rho and Alpha Psi Delta fraternities will entertain informally. Kappa Gamma Rho will entertain at the fraternity house. The program for the evening is in charge of Eugene Smith.

Alpha Psi Delta will entertain with a line party at one of the local theatres and this will be followed by a few informal hours at the fraternity home.

Former Club Member Is Complimented

Mrs. Walter Nelson of Tillamook, formerly a Salem resident, was complimented with a surprise birthday shower Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Taylor by members of the G. K. P. club of which she was formerly a member.

Present in compliment to Mrs. Nelson were Mr. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rafferty, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harris, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Billeter, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bingenheimer, Mrs. Katherine Middleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. C. A. Park who has been ill for the past four weeks will again receive her bible study class at her home on Chemeketa street Tuesday at 2 o'clock. The class has not been meeting during her illness.

Dessert Luncheon Attractive Event

An attractive affair in club circles Wednesday was the dessert luncheon for which Mrs. George Hug and Mrs. T. T. MacKenzie were hostesses at the Marion hotel. The afternoon hours following luncheon were spent playing contract and winning scores were held by Mrs. Fred Stump and Mrs. Earl Cooley.

Special guests for the afternoon in addition to club members were Mrs. Fred Stump, Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Mrs. L. Allen of Wallowa, and Mrs. Lyle Bartholomew.

Miss Helen Richardson was hostess at her home Tuesday evening for the initiation service of the Enclitiss club. Those who were taken into membership in the ceremony included Harriet Stimmel, Agnes Emmel, Lenore Naegali, Marie Shindler and Hil-da Johansson.

War Mothers Plan Social Meeting

The regular social meeting of the American War Mothers will be enjoyed Tuesday afternoon at the American Lutheran church. The members are urged to be present for this meeting and each is asked to bring thimbles and needles.

Mrs. Judith Doock is chairman of the social committee and is being assisted by Mrs. Maria Wilcox, Mrs. Luella Legge, Mrs. Sophia Keene, Mrs. Bertha Vlesko, Mrs. Jennie Vincent, Mrs. Mettie Schramm and Mrs. Matilda Nadon.

Card Club is Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoffnell entertained Thursday evening with a dinner party at their country home complimenting members of their bridge club.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Adams, Judge and Mrs. George Rossman, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Flack, Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, and Mr. and Mrs. Hoffnell. Bridge followed the dinner hour.

Miss Bernice Tureman was hostess to a group of intimate friends at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. Davis Leininger assisted at the late supper hour. Mrs. Floyd McCarroll and Mrs. Margaret Bjelland held winning scores for the evening of cards.

Appointments Are Announced

Committee appointments for the new year were made at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Ladies' Guild of the American Lutheran church. Chairmen are: Mrs. J. A. Sholseth, social; Mrs. L. Rudie, pastor's aid; Mrs. R. C. Arke, mission box; Mrs. C. H. Glenn, mission study; Mrs. R. A. Horn, service.

About 60 women attended the meeting, which was featured by installation of the new officers, who are: president, Mrs. William Hagedorn; first vice-president, Mrs. J. A. Sholseth; second vice-president, Mrs. Herman Tasto; secretary, Mrs. Elton H. Thompson; treasurer, Mrs. Carl Bahlborg; financial secretary, Mrs. M. M. Trindle.

Miss Ruth Bedford sang "Open the Gates", with Miss Watanabe accompanying. Reports of the past year's work showed considerable accomplishment, including addition of 16 members and nearly $500 to the Guild's treasury.

Delegates Named For National Meet

Mrs. W. H. Byrd attended the Wednesday meeting of the Daughters of Patriots at the home of Mrs. John O'Donnell in Portland.

Delegates were elected to the national council which will be held in Washington, D. C., the week of April 18 following the regular convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Byrd was elected as one of the delegates and others include Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Herbert Hale, Mrs. James Huddleston, Mrs. Ray Stearns and Mrs. John O'Donnell.

The next meeting of the group will be held in March and will be a no-host luncheon in Portland. At this time officers will be elected.

Mrs. Theodore Roth will entertain members of the Women's Missionary society at her home this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. E. A. McAdams is to be the leader of the lesson hour. Mrs. J. W. Cabean will lead devotions and there will be special music. Hostesses for the afternoon to assist Mrs. Roth will include Mrs. Arthur Harnes, Mrs. Mark Skiff, Mrs. Marvin Roth and Mrs. Ernest Peterson.

Members of Barbara Freitliche tent, Daughters of Veterans of the Civil War, are anticipating the installation of officers, a public ceremony, at the Salem Women's clubhouse Friday night at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Anna Warren will be installing officer.

Miss Marion Zinser entertained a group of friends informally at "Hilarity House," with an evening of bridge and music last Monday. Miss Zinser is leaving Salem next week to visit a few weeks in Portland after which she plans to spend the rest of the winter with her sister, Mrs.

N. W. Fritchard in Los Angeles. Margaret Livesley, Miss Ethel Bollier, Gretchen Rinehart, Mrs. Stanley Waters and Ethel Livesley. Additional out of town guests were Mrs. Elmer Schoon of Corvallis and Mrs. Ruth Schroeder of Albany.
