

Capital City Matrons, Maids and Visitors Prepare for Busy Weeks Ahead

Future Events Invite Attention of Varied Kind as Calendar is Checked

Brilliant Musical Event Announced by Salem MacDowell Club; State Garden Club Luncheon Attracting Large Attention

THE days of languidness following the holidays have passed and once again the social calendar is looming with red letter days for the last two weeks in January and the first of February.

With more than usual interest is announced the February 9 program of the Salem MacDowell club at which time the organization is presenting to Salem music lovers the Portland Apollo club with the noted director, Wilhem van Hoogstraten.

This program will be given at the Grand and the announcement of its numbers will be met with enthusiasm.

Another announcement regarding musical circles which will be greeted with interest by all the socially minded is the announcement of the benefit bridge tea for which a group of the women of the Philharmonic orchestra will give at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton whose two daughters, Miss Marie and Miss Jeanne Patton are members of the orchestra.

The date has been set for January 31 between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock. It bids fair to be one of the smartest affairs of the spring. Musical numbers will be presented during the tea hours.

Mrs. H. V. Comton is chairman of the committee in charge and will be assisted by Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. Ivan Martin, Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. Leon Barrick, Mrs. Percy Kelly, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. T. Al Livesley, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. H. D. Patton and Alice Cray Brown.

The board of directors and associated members of the Philharmonic association are being divided into groups each of whom will promote some activity for the benefit of the orchestra group. Reservations for this benefit may be made with any one of the committees named.

Another event of much interest in a large circle is the luncheon announced for January 23 at the Marion hotel at which time the quarterly meeting of the Oregon Council for the protection of Roadside Beauty will be held.

Reservations to date include 60 people. Reservations are in charge of the Salem Garden president, Ernest Iufer.

Women's Club Has Excellent Meeting

THE Saturday meeting of the Salem Women's club proved a very busy one with addresses given by Mrs. J. H. Hoffman of Silverton, president of the third district of the State Federation of Women's clubs and an interesting and instructive talk by Mrs. Sophie Allen of Portland who talked concerning the work of the Travelers' Aid society in regard to delinquent girls.

Mrs. Hoffman introduced the president of the Junior Women's club of Silverton, and told of the organization and its work. This is the first such club organization in the state and marks the beginning of a new department in the state organization.

Special music was given under the direction of Mrs. M. D. McCallister who has charge of the music programs for the next two months. A quartet of Salem high girls, Gwenn Gallagher, Eva Cochran, Joyce Phelps, and Jean McElhinney accompanied by Marjorie O'Dell sang.

Mrs. David Wright gave a poem from the pen of the late Clara Barton of Salem and Mrs. George R. K. Moorehead gave an interesting picture study.

Mrs. G. B. Benton, Oregon products chairman for the state federation, spoke concerning loyalty in using Oregon products and urged her listeners to make special points of this.

Mrs. Charles Spaulding, chairman of the relief committee reported that there was much material to be made into plain articles of clothing for Red Cross use and that any volunteer service from any matron or maid of the city in sewing this material into such clothing would be much appreciated. Those desiring to volunteer call Mrs. Spaulding.

The next meeting of the club will be January 28 at which time the program will be under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Byrd, chairman of Indian Welfare work. Miss Gertrude Eakin of Chemawa will be the speaker and a group of Indian girls will give the musical program. This will also be a tea meeting in special compliment to the visiting women in the city during the legislative session and to the wives of state officers.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding is in charge of the tea hour and is making arrangements for a very smart afternoon tea. The annual "red letter" day tea, for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund will be an event of January 25 at the home of Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr. Mrs. Walter Spaulding is in charge of the tea plans for this affair to which the women of Salem and visitors here are especially invited.

Visiting Matrons are Inspiration for Many Charming Social Affairs Being Planned for Them

In Small Groups and in Large Numbers the Visiting Women in Salem During the Legislative Session are Being Honored

SOCIAL activities in compliment to women in Salem while their distinguished husbands are attending legislature is inspiring many informal and formal affairs. Small bridge afternoons for the past week have included the names of a number of these matrons as special guests and dancing parties have likewise been favored by a number of the visitors as guests.

Looking ahead there is the tea for which Miss Harriet Long, state librarian, will entertain this afternoon complimenting a group of these visitors and she will again entertain next Sunday afternoon with a similar tea.

Monday night Mrs. Elizabeth Glatt of Woodburn, and Mrs. Sylpha Burns will entertain with an informal evening for senate secretaries at the home of Mrs. Burns.

The American Legion Auxiliary is also inviting all wives of legislators to be special guests of the Auxiliary for its meeting Monday night at Fraternal temple. At this time the orchestra of Dr. Hans X. Seitz will be an appealing feature of the program.

And the popular visitors will be special invited guests for both the benefit tea being given January 25 at the home of Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr., and for the Salem Women's club meeting January 28.

Mrs. C. A. Sprague is asking all visiting P. E. O. members here as guests during the legislature session to be guests for the luncheon and program meeting to be held at her home Thursday.

Yes, the visitors are welcome and are being made very welcome.

B. & P. W. Sewing Club Entertained

A jolly evening was enjoyed by members of the Business and Professional Women's sewing club at the home of Miss Juana Holmes Friday night. Miss Holmes and Miss Daisy Hayden were hostesses for the affair.

A 6:30 o'clock potluck dinner was followed by sewing and conversation. Present were Miss Ruth McAdams, Miss Josephine Shade, Miss Phebe McAdams, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Lois Ohmart, Miss Mori Dimick, Miss Ruth Moore, Miss May Cleveland, Mrs. Mona Yoder, and Mrs. Lillian Cadwell.

Miss May Cleveland will be hostess for the next meeting, February 10, at her home in the Palace Court apartment with Miss Helen Smith assisting.

Hickman-Dunsmoor Nuptials Told

Miss Fleda Hickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy N. Hickman, Sr. became the bride of Harold Dunsmoor, son of George Dunsmoor of Portland in a quiet ceremony Thursday evening in Leslie Memorial church. Rev. S. Darlow Johnson read the service before a small group of friends.

Mrs. Harold Kelley was matron of honor and Harold Kelley acted as best man for Mr. Dunsmoor. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Guy Hickman, Jr.

A reception following the ceremony greeted Mr. and Mrs. Dunsmoor at the bride's home. Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Dunsmoor left for a short wedding trip. Upon their return to Salem where they will make their home they will be at home to friends, 482 South High street.

Contract Bridge Club Meets Thursday

Mrs. L. O. Smith will entertain her contract bridge club with an informal afternoon at her home Thursday.

Members of the club include Mrs. E. L. Myers, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. B. B. Flack, Mrs. W. E. Hansen, Mrs. W. D. Clark, Mrs. Fannie Brown Tibbits, Mrs. George Rosman, Mrs. F. A. McBride and Mrs. Smith.

Chapter G to be Luncheon Guest

A delightful one o'clock luncheon is being anticipated by members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. Sisterhood Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Sprague.

The regular program meeting of the chapter will follow the luncheon hour. Visiting P. E. O. members who are in Salem are invited to attend this meeting. This invitation is especially directed to the visitors here during the legislative session. Mrs. Sprague's home is located on the corner 14th and Chemeketa streets.
