

GRANGE, OTHER GROUPS GATHER

Charter Draped for Mrs. McKay; North Howell Names Committees

TURNER, Jan. 16 — Surprise grange met Saturday with good attendance. New officers not present for the regular installation service were installed. The charter was draped in memory of the oldest grange member, Mrs. Elizabeth McKay, recently deceased.

Two candidates, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Anderson, received the third and fourth degrees. The lecturer, Mrs. Edith Mellis, presented this program: Skit by Frances Clark and Glenn Titus; vocal solo by Alice Titus; a debate "Resolved, it is more satisfactory to own than to rent a farm," by affirmative, Ed Wallace, U. E. Denney, Fred Steiner, negative, Bert Peebles, Fred Mitchell, Raymond Titus.

The juvenile members met at the McKay home. They expect soon to have a permanent room in which to meet.

NORTH HOWELL, Jan. 16 — The first regular grange meeting for 1933 was held Friday night in the North Howell grange hall. Past master, Mrs. A. T. Clino, installed the remaining officers, assisted by Mrs. Daisy Bump as marshal. Committees for activities during the current year were named by Master M. A. Dunn as follows:

Home Economics club — Daisy Bump, Martha Vinton, Josephine Stevens, Lula Wiesner and Jessie Coomer. Agricultural — V. Van Brocklin, Thomas Bump, C. E. McIlwain. Legislative — Sam Brown, R. H. Drake and E. G. Wiesner. Relief — E. G. Wiesner, Florence Oddie and Bernice Summers. Social night — John Paulson, Catherine Bump, Anna Dunn.

A rising vote of appreciation and thanks was given Ellis Stevens who has served this grange as secretary-treasurer for 13 years and who has never been absent from duty nor late with his reports during that time.

The lecture hour under direction of the new installed lecturer, W. H. Stevens, was devoted to tax equalization, sales tax, car license reduction, high school transportation and an outline of plans for the next program.

The Home Economics chairman, Daisy Bump, announced that the January meeting would begin with a 7 o'clock supper. Social night arrangements will be made for the night of January 27.

WALDO HILLS, Jan. 16 — A crowded house greeted the performers at the January meeting of the Community club Friday night. The president, A. A. Geer, is ill at his home in Salem and James Gilham opened the meeting. The program was arranged by the Rue, Riches and Small families and Elaine Clower and consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Martin Perrey and Leon Jennison of Salem; vocal duet by Mrs. Flora Headrick and Leon Jennison; chalk talk, Frank Bowers; violin solo, Beryl Ottoway; a number of selections by the Methodist concert orchestra of Silverton, directed by Fred Baker.

Lunch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mader, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Liechty and James Gilham. Dancing followed with music furnished by Mrs. P. Davenport, piano; Beryl Ottoway and Fred Baker, violins; O. W. Olson, drums.

PIONEER, Jan. 16 — The regular monthly meeting of the Pioneer Community club was held Friday night with about 50 present. Geo. Curtis was elected in charge of athletics for the community. Mrs. Roy Black, in charge of entertainment, led in a drawing contest and other forms of amusement.

FAIRFIELD, Jan. 16 — Resolutions against a sales tax were drawn by Fairfield grange Friday night following a prolonged discussion. For entertainment at the March lecturer's hour, members will bring songs published before 1860.

Taking part in the lecturer's program were Mrs. Ivan Brundidge, J. W. Johnston, Francis Salfeld, Florence DuRette, Mrs. Allyn Nusom, Mrs. Laura Dittmars and Mrs. F. M. Hill. Cast of the benefit play will be announced next meeting.

An investigating committee was named: M. W. Mahoney, Emma Johnston and Laura Dittmars.

SALEM HEIGHTS, Jan. 16 — Steps were taken to revive 4-H club work and other civic betterments at the Community club meeting Friday night. The club also voted to secure the traveling library, with Mrs. Ellis to be in charge. Don Ellis presented as the program Max Selander's orchestra, featuring Maynard McKinley as soloist.

MRS. KELLY PRESIDENT
WACONDA, Jan. 16 — Mrs. Van O. Kelly is new president of the community club. Other officers elected recently are: Vice-president, Mrs. Robert Cole; secretary, Mrs. Henry C. Stafford;

Was in poor health

"I was in poor health from various troubles. I have used a number of bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I think it is fine. I am now the mother of two nice healthy kiddies. I feel well and strong, and I recommend this medicine to other women who need it."
