Plans are Talked at Forum Meet for Growers to Seek Federal aid

WOODBURN, Jan. 19-Probably the title of a popular song-Mood Indigo-would accurately describe the temper of the meeting of the Woodburn chamber of commerce, held at the Woodburn hotel Wednesday night. Expressions concerning the crop prospects for the coming season were far from rosy. George Keys, buyer for a Woodburn cannery, stated that the strawberries are greatly damaged, and that the Ettersburgs are virtually gone. Even if there is life in the plant in the spring, probably there will not be sufficient strength to mature the Keys declared that one grower ifornia this year, as he has none. one grower, who took several hills of strawberries and put them the hills, and many of them were olin and banjo.

infested with spittle bugs. Keys estimated that 50 per cent of the loganberries have been frozen out, and that the raspberry crop will be reduced from 70 to 80 percent.

Woodburn Cooperative Fruit Growers' association, bore out many of Keys' statements. He also mentioned that there will probably be few new strawberry planting this year because the oung plants were also so badly

'EXPERT ENDEAVOR' CLASSES ARRANGED

The first of a series of five classes in "Expert Endeavor," a study of the principles and methods of C. E., will be held Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. Rev. Hugh N. McCallum, pastor counsellor of the county union, will conduct the classes, which will be held each Saturday night hereafter. All Endeavorers are invited to attend the classes.

In order to facilitate the work of the union, regional vice-presidents are being appointed. John Rudin, Willamette student, has taken this position for the Salem district, and John Cage for the Silverton area. Others are to be appointed.

Blaborate plans for the celebration of C. E. week, in honor of the founding of C. E. 52 years ago, are being worked out.
