

Gary Cooper Returns to Elsinore

'FAREWELL TO ARMS' SHOWS AT ELSINORE

Cooper, Helen Hayes and Menjou Have Lead in Wartime Romance

"A Farewell to Arms" with Helen Hayes, Gary Cooper and Adolphe Menjou in the leading roles, begins its local run at the Elsinore theater today.

The film is a picturization of Ernest Hemingway's famous novel of the same name, and was made by Frank Borzage and Benjamin Glazer, the two men who were responsible for another widely heralded love story of the war, "Seventh Heaven." Like that earlier film, it tells the story of a man and woman who loved greatly against the background of war. Gary Cooper has the role of Frederic Henry, an American lieutenant in the Italian ambulance corps, who had been a typical soldier, rough, devoted to hard liquor and to the "Villa Rosa" of every town until the day he met Catherine Barkley, the brave and beautiful English nurse whose role is played by Helen Hayes.

The two meet through Rinaldi (Menjou), an Italian army surgeon who has married Frederic as his "best friend and war brother," fall in love and play out their stolen moments of loving with death ever waiting to catch up with them.

Lovely Helen Hayes and Gary Cooper, long missed from the screen, in "Farewell To Arms" now showing at the Elsinore.

Introducing Edna May Oliver, a star in her own name in her latest picture, "Penguin Pool Murder" now showing at the Capitol.

EDNA MAY OLIVER GETS SLEUTH ROLE

Capitol Today Offers new Mystery, "Penguin Pool Murder"

Sherlock Holmes returns in a feminine guise in "Penguin Pool Murder," which is being shown in full accordance with the Holmes system, except that she arouses your heartiest laughs. For Hildegarde is cinematically known as Edna May Oliver, who appears in "The Penguin Pool Murder" showing today at the Capitol theater.

Mid-Victorian and spinsterish, Hildegarde recalls Conan Doyle's expert detective. But her Queen Mary hat supplants his "wide-awake" two-pointed cap. A few furtive surveillances provide her with clues; whereas her predecessor incessantly peered through a magnifying glass. She prides and pursues, sports and smirks, while Sherlock scans and mused with an abundance of "M-m-m's" and "A-h's."

Miss Oliver's convincing performance neatly couples humor and drama. With James Gleason as Inspector Piper, she promotes grand hilarity. Mae Clarke sympathetically portrays a harassed wife, and Donald Cook makes a likable lover. Clarence Hummel Wilson is the suspected aquarium director. Robert Armstrong, Guy Usher and Ed Kennedy are also cast. George Archainbaud directed from Willis Goldbeck's adaptation of Palmer's best-selling novel.

EL BRENDEL LEADS IN GRAND FEATURE

El Brendel finds himself quite at home as the leader of a juvenile brass band in "Handle With Care," the new Fox film showing today at the Grand theater, in which he is co-featured with Boots Mallory and James Dunn. It was in "The Passing Show," a New York radio, that Brendel led his jazz band on the stage long before he deserted Broadway to play roles in motion pictures.

In "Handle With Care," Brendel appears as an innocent Swede who makes his living by teaching music. His band of young jazz hounds are seen briefly, but their sour notes are heard more than once. The band was recruited from various school bands of Hollywood.

"Handle With Care" is a romantic drama in which Dunn and Miss Mallory furnish the love interest and Brendel carries the comedy. Between $90 and 1,000 boys and girls furnish atmosphere for the picture in some of the scenes, but only two of them, Buster Phelps and George Ernest, both prominent in recent productions, have speaking roles.

The story was written by David Butler who directed the picture. It was adapted for the screen by Frank Craven, well known playwright and actor, and Sam Mintz, scenarist.

FIRST CHILD TO EVANS MONMOUTH, Jan. 21.—A son, Ronald Lee, was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Evans of Monmouth at a Salem hospital. It is their first child.

All-Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD

Home of 25c Talkies TODAY, MONDAY & TUESDAY Continuous Performance Today 2 to 11 P. M.

Northwest Premier Showing WAVES OF LAUGHTER!

with the Two Black Crows of Sea in a Gale of Humor!

Moran and Mack MACK SENNETT'S HYPNOTIZED

Ernest Torrence Wallace Ford Maria Alba Charlie Murray Marjorie Beebe

PROSPECTIVE NEW RESIDENTS LISTED

A list of persons who are really interested in becoming residents of Salem and vicinity has been compiled from inquiries received by the local chamber of commerce, and follows:

Mrs. F. Saeck, 302 W. Shirley avenue, Hawthorne, Calif., writes they are very much interested in farming land near Salem. Floyd E. Packard, 230 Park street, Berkeley, Calif., wishes to locate on a diversified farm in Marion county. Also interested in dairying and stock raising. Emil Metek, 3119 Third street, Santa Monica, Calif., writes he intends to locate on a farm in Oregon before March or April.

A. F. Bell, 146 North Ninth, San Jose, Calif., is interested in obtaining land along the Willamette river, south of St. Paul, suitable for diversified farming.

H. M. Overton, 230 North Olive, Burbank, Calif., who is in the real estate business, writes that he has many clients that are interested in land in this district. Some wish to buy and others to trade.

Lester Page, College Place, Wash., is interested in raising onions in this district.

H. C. Moore, 214 South Church street, Fayetteville, Ark., interested in farm land. J. W. Lewis, Captiva Hill Station, route 2, Box 112A, Denver, Colo., contemplates moving this summer on a farm in the Salem, Silverton or Dayton district.

Lee N. Keeler, Orpheum Bldg., Aberdeen, South Dakota, intends to make a trip out here soon to purchase some farming land suitable for raising fruit and vegetables, with the idea of making a permanent home here. D. E. Leatham, care Chas. McFarland, route 1, Wilbur, Ore., is interested in 20 to 40 acres of unimproved land in the Salem district.

C. W. Parks, Buckhorn, N. M., interested in buying land in this section of Oregon, suitable for keeping 150 to 200 head of cattle. Prefer a remote sparsely settled locality.

C. H. Powell, route 1, box 285-W Gardens, Calif., is interested in buying a farm in this district, suitable for dairying. Edward D. Noonan, Golden Rule Ranch, route 2, Olney Springs, Colo., writes he has some property to exchange for Oregon property. Has Los Angeles property to exchange.

Evangelists Open Two-Weeks Series At Dayton Tuesday

DAYTON, Jan. 21.—The Misses Lois and Vera Sackett of Olympia, Wash., evangelists who arrived in Dayton Thursday to conduct a two weeks' revival meeting, have fixed up rooms for housekeeping in the James Wakefield house.

The meetings will begin Tuesday, January 24, in the Full Gospel church at Fifth and Oak.

Clinic For Younger Children is Slated

SILVERTON, Jan. 21.—The regular infant and pre-school clinic will be held Tuesday afternoon at the health center at the Eugene Field school building at Silverton. Dr. V. A. Douglas will be in charge. Mrs. Irma Le Riche, school nurse, announced that immunizations will be given and those who have had their first dose of toxoid should receive the second dose at this time.

And whom should you see but your old friend of the "worm fable", Moran and Mack now at the Hollywood in their latest picture, "Hypnotized".

Boots Mallory and James Dunn in a scene from "Handle With Care" now showing at the Grand.

BOY SCOUT TROOP PRESENTED FLAG

LIBERTY, Jan. 21.—A good crowd attended the community club meet Friday night despite the stormy weather. Boy Scout troop 18 was assembled and Mr. Olson of the American Legion presented a large American flag to the troop for the Legion. Response was made by Leek, chairman of the scout committee.

The new talent contests for community clubs were discussed and a committee appointed to decide what particular contests be entered. Announcement was made that a net of $21 was made on the play staged recently. It was also decided that the men and women choose and produce a one-act play in contest, losers to entertain the winners.

The evening's program included several guitar duets by Mr. Coursey and Mr. Storow of Salem; recitation, Ruth Davis; song, "Where the Morning Glories Grow," by a group of fifth and sixth grade tenors and sopranos trained by Miss Shogren; solo, Wayne Gordon, and a drama burlesque, "The Fatal Quest," by George Lansing, Alice Cunningham, Jerry Jo Patterson, Robert Copley, Lester Browning, Helen Daseh and Lillian Davis.

ENGLAND IS COOL TO TECHNOCRACY

LONDON—(AP)—Technocracy has crossed the Atlantic from America, but the reception it will receive is doubtful, for England does not warm quickly to new economic proposals any more than to new fashions in clothing or life in general.

Nevertheless the new theory has stirred up much interest in a land struggling with economic problems as serious as any in the world.

As in America, there are differences of opinion in Europe as to the meaning of technocracy's creed and the economic remedies it offers.

One school says technocracy's role is merely to pose the economic problem and ask the world: "What are you going to do about it?" England has been asking herself that question for a long time. Some scientific circles are suspicious of many aspects of the new creed, but the average Englishman hasn't given the matter as much thought as he has devoted to proposals for curbing betting on the races.

Grape Fruit Plant is Tended by Students

JEFFERSON, Jan. 21.—The pupils of the third and fourth grades of the Jefferson school are raising a grapefruit plant. As a project, the girls of these two grades are sewing on costumes for their dolls. The grade school is taking a mid-year achievement test which is set out by Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, Jefferson county school superintendent.

This Woman Lost 35 lbs. Of Fat

Miss M. Katsner of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "Have used Kruschen for the past 24 months and have not only lost 35 pounds but feel so much better in every way. Even for people who don't care to reduce, Kruschen is wonderful to keep the system healthy. I bring a nurse should know for I've tried so many things but only Kruschen answered all purposes." (May 12, 1932).

To lose fat SAFELY and HARMLESSLY take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast — don't miss a morning — a bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle — but don't take chances — be sure it's Kruschen — your health comes first — get it at Perry's Drug Store, Capital Drug Store or any drugstore in America. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle — money back. Adv.

WARNER BROS. Elsinore

3 BIG DAYS STARTING TODAY Continuous Show 2 to 11 p.m.

Inspired Genius Creates A Masterpiece!

The genius of Helen Hayes, voted the best actress of 1932!

The genius of Frank Borzage, twice chosen America's best director!

Defying a world gone mad with hate... two hearts that were mad with love!

Added Attraction! Bing Crosby Famous Radio Star in "BLUE OF THE NIGHT" 500 Seats 25c.

CHEMEKETA ACTORS GIVE NEW COMEDY

"Husband on Shares," the delightful three-act mirthquake that will be presented by Chemeketa players next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night in Nelson's auditorium, is rich in comedy situations developing out of the effort to incorporate a man and make an apparent failure into a going concern.

Complications arise thick and fast and bring on a battle of four women to control the man; one fights because she loves him; another because she wants to make her fiancé jealous; the third to attract another man; and the fourth as a figure in a deep-laid plot to ruin the whole scheme. Golf enthusiasts will find in the dialogue many sparkling quips concerning that game. The fraternal spirit is brought in by the two chief male characters being members of the Elks, with many references to the high quality of the B. F. O. E.

Presentation of this play will complete three months of activity of Chemeketa players in Salem, during which time they have built scenic-sets, re-modeled and re-decorated Nelson's auditorium, and made a host of friends by their sparkling comedies.

MORAN AND MACK CHEER HOLLYWOOD

Moran and Mack, those two headmen of hilarity, stage a triumphant return to the screen in Mack Sennett's tear-length laughmaker, "Hypnotized," which opens at the Hollywood today.

Famous on the radio, stage and screen, as well as through the medium of their phonograph records, "The Two Black Crows" prove welcome addition to the screen's roster of expert comics. As sursmoids to the elephants in O'Brien & Shapiro's big circus, their droll humor supplied a bargain in laughs to yesterday's audience.

Produced and directed by Mack Bennett, whose excursions into the field of full-length feature comedies are all too rare, "Hypnotized" has the universal appeal that has characterized this producer's comedies for many years. There's fun for all the family in "Hypnotized," and although Bennett has ceased throwing custard

The Call Board...

By OLIVE M. DOAK

WARNER BROS. ELSINORE Today—Helen Hayes and Gary Cooper in "A Farewell to Arms."

Wednesday—Syvia Sidney in "Madame Butterfly." Friday—William Powell in "Lawyer Man."

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL Today—Edna May Oliver in "Penguin Pool Murder." Wednesday—John Gilbert in "Downstairs."

Friday—William Haines, Jimmy Durante in "Fast Life."

HOLLYWOOD Today—Moran and Mack in "Hypnotized." Wednesday—Ruth Chatterton in "The Crash." Friday—Tom Brown in "Tom Brown of Culver."

THE GRAND Today—James Dunn, Boots Mallory in "Handle With Care." Thursday—Warner Baxter in "Man About Town." Friday—Norman Foster in "Strange Justice."

A romance that was nearly wrecked by a couple of kids who couldn't understand WHY GROWNUPS KISS

It's swell entertainment for the whole family! HANDLE WITH CARE

James DUNN with Boots MALLORY EL BRENDEL

Screen play by Frank Craven and Sam Mintz Directed by David Butler FOX Picture

THE GRAND