feeling was apparent in the market for butter locally with shipping call decreasing. Even though some of the cash buyers of chickens have reduced the bids on medium and heavy we'nt hens, all sorts are finding favor at full prices. There was se especial scarcity of broilers. There is a better feeling all ed around 11c while there is now a very good call for even the poorer sorts and for mutton. There was a real sign of early spring in the announcement of the initial offering of the season of onion sets. The price was placed at 5c lb.
