Huskies Plunk Eight From Foul Line; Beavers Ahead at Half

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 24.—(AP)—Staging a brilliant rally in the last five minutes of play, Washington university fought up from behind to defeat Oregon State, 30 to 24, in their basketball game here tonight and thereby retain the lead in the Pacific coast conference northern division race.

The Orangemen started strong, running the score to 12 to 5 well along in the first period, and emerged at half time with a two-point advantage over the Huskies, 15 to 13.

In the second half the Huskies went into an early lead, the score was tied, then the advantage swung until the score stood at 23-14 with five minutes to play. Two quick baskets by Perry and Fuller, and two conversions by Fuller and one by Hanover, collected while Oregon State was making but one free throw, gave the Huskies the game, to split the two-game series. Ed Lewis of Oregon State was again high man, with 9 points, only half of his last night's total.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Playing inspired basketball, the University of Idaho Vandals led all the way to defeat the University of Oregon, 43 to 38, in a Pacific coast conference game here tonight.

It was a rough and tumble contest, with the Vandals breaking through just enough times to keep the lead over the Webbees. Idaho took a substantial lead early, but an Oregon spurt, led by Simons and Olinger, guarded the count at seven. From that point until half time the lead changed hands with almost every shot. Idaho was ahead at the gun, 24 to 21.

At the opening of the second half two Oregonians were set to guard Barrett, Idaho's scoring flash in the first period, and tiny Pete Wicks, his running mate at forward, got away for four field goals.

GAME ENDS IN TIE AFTER PLAYERS GO

STAYTON, Jan. 24.—The Stayton Townies played a 27-to-27 tie game with Dallas, independent state champs of last year, on the Stayton floor Monday night. When the final whistle was blown, the scoreboard showed Dallas in the lead, 28 to 27. Both teams and both managers thought this correct, but on checking the scoreboard later the final score was found to be 27-27. By that time the Dallas team had left town, so it remains to be seen which is the better.

Both teams played slow, cautious ball in the opening minutes, and as the whistle blew at the end of the first quarter Stayton led, 4 to 3. Stayton opened up somewhat in the second period, and at half time had a seven-point lead, 15-8. In the third period Dallas got "hot" and sank six field goals and a free throw, holding the locals to one field goal and one foul shot. This netted Dallas a 21-18 lead as the final period began. Stayton outscored the visitors 9-6 to knot the final score.

Ware, Thomas and D. Shelton made good showings for the local team, with Cooke, Shelton and Griffin doing the best work for the visitors.

The Stayton seconds suffered a 17-to-14 setback at the hands of the Way Wooten Mill team in a preliminary game. Both teams checked closely throughout the game. George Cannady made a good showing for the visitors, while Slegmund and Paul Dohler looked good for the home team.

The Heavyweight Tangle

By BURNLEY

The BATTLE of the PROMOTERS—THE GARDEN HAS SHARKEY—THE CHAMP—BUT THE TWO OUTSTANDING CONTENDERS, BAER AND SCHMELING, HAVE GONE OVER TO DEMPSEY.

JACK CAUSED A LOT OF EXCITEMENT BY SIGNING SCHMELING TO BOX BAER EARLY NEXT SUMMER!

JIMMY WISE GUY. JOHNSTON THE GARDEN MATCH-MAKER.

BILL CAREY, M.D. S.Q. GARDEN PRESIDENT

EVERYBODY has a different version of just how the present heavyweight muddle will be untangled during the coming year. Apparently the facts, so far as they are ascertainable, are these: Heavyweight Champion Jack Sharkey will defend his title next June against some opponent, probably the winner of the scheduled Schaaf-Carnera battle, in a bout promoted by the Madison Square Garden Corporation; meanwhile the two leading heavyweight contenders, Max Baer, who has been promoted by the Garden, and Schmeling, who has been promoted by Dempsey, are supposed to clash next summer in a match which will be put on by Jack Dempsey, now a fight promoter.

Dempsey's signing of Schmeling and Baer stirred up more interest in the heavyweight scramble than the big fellows have known for some time. Jack hopes to make himself into a really big figure in the promotional game, and if he really succeeds in putting over this big bout he will have taken a long step towards his objective. And if the Schmeling-Baer thing comes off as scheduled it will certainly provide stiff opposition for the Garden's heavyweight title bout, as both matches are scheduled to come off at about the same time.

Some skeptics have insinuated that the whole thing, including the so-called "promoters' war" between Dempsey and the Garden, is merely a publicity stunt to work up interest in a Sharkey-Schmeling bout to be promoted by the Garden next summer. Be that as it may, Dempsey is being deluged with bids from different cities for his big bout, while Jimmy Wise Guy Johnston, who is the first time that a fighter ever clashed with his own manager in the ring—and for the heavyweight title, too! It might turn out to be a real grudge scrap, at that!

But the coming Schaaf-Carnera bout, despite the fact that Schaaf is Sharkey's stablemate and Carnera has already been whipped by Gabby Jack.

But Kelley beats Carnera he will, ostensibly at least, leave the Buckley-Sharkey management. Already the way is being made open for this maneuver by the news recently given out by Buckley that his contract with Schaaf expires in March. Those who know, however, say that Sharkey and Buckley will continue to be the real managers of Schaaf, even if another man is put forward as "dummy" manager in order to make a Sharkey-Schaaf bout possible.

And if Ernie does box Jack, it will be the first time that a fighter ever clashed with his own manager in the ring—and for the heavyweight title, too! It might turn out to be a real grudge scrap, at that!

SALEM QUINTET WINNER, 29-28

Result in Doubt Even After Final Whistle in Wild Game With Indians

In a wild scramble marked by a minimum of real basketball, the Salem high quintet handed Chemawa Indian school its first defeat of the season on the Salem floor Tuesday night, 29 to 28. Everybody including the scorekeepers seemed to be a little "off" and when the game was over the victory seemed as much in doubt as at any time during the 32 minutes of play, for it took at least ten minutes more for the referee, consulting four or five scorebooks, to decide the outcome.

Both teams passed wildly, missed innumerable easy shots, and in general forgot much of the basketball they knew. Only Kelley of Salem and Dogeagle of Chemawa retained their composure, Kelley accounting for 13 points and Dogeagle 14, though six of the latter's were made from the foul line.

Despite the lack of science, the fans were treated to a thrilling contest. In the first period only one field goal was scored, that by Chemawa, and the Indians led 6 to 2. Salem came back in the second period and led 11 to 10 at half time; the score was tied at 16-16 and 18-18 in the third quarter. Chemawa got ahead, 27-23, at one point in the final period. With Engle out on fouls and Brownell out due to an ankle injury, things looked bad for the red and black.

Reserves Help Out In Final Scramble But Kelley slipped in another field goal. Pickens collected one and two were made on free throws; one by DeJardin which some of the scorers failed to mark down, was the sticking point in the succeeding squabble.

With everybody excited, it was difficult to learn just the state of the scorebooks. The official book, as nearly as could be learned, showed in its individual totals the 29 to 28 result, and this tallied with two newspapermen's records.

Supporters of both teams claimed that the excessive whistle blowing by a referee whom nobody accused of being partial, upset the players so they could not do their best. Eight fouls were called in the first quarter, four on each side.

Jones Wins; Police Radio Aided $98.65

Though he exhibited all of the improvement in strategy and general performance which Salem fans expected of him, Des Anderson, this city's first mat favorite, failed in his effort to wipe out an old score with Henry Jones of Provo, Utah, Tuesday night in the police benefit wrestling show at the three falls.

From the standpoint of the police radio fund the show was a success, meeting $98.65 toward the purchase of the short wave sending apparatus. After Jones and Anderson had each won a fall, they battled fiercely for the last one and just before the climax it looked as though Anderson had the edge; but he clamped a flying mare on Jones and it slipped, or Jones wriggled out of the old fox's protected position to drop him for the deciding fall with a backward body slam.

This came in 5 minutes 10 seconds. Jones had taken the first fall with a shoulder butt in 7:50 and Anderson had trotted at his new juggler whirly to win the second one in 6:25.

Both men appeared to be in excellent condition, though Jones still wore a considerable amount of tape, as he did in his last several appearances here.

Ray Lyness dropped Fred Gray in two successive falls in the opener, the first in 19 minutes and the second in 4:10.

The Mid-Willamette Valley Basketball association will play its seventh series of games tonight. Some of the games are being transferred to other nights by mutual consent, including the one here which brings together Salem and Silverton, both under the Western division.

Southern division: Mill City at Stayton, Gates at Turner, Scio bye.

Milne against H. E. Hoss, sheriff and tax collector of Coos county. The opinion was written by Justice Kelly.

Milne tendered payment of a school district tax but declined to pay other taxes which had accrued against him.

The lower court awarded Palmer a judgment in the amount of $5000. Attorneys fees were eliminated by the supreme court.

TWO SIDES SEEN IN ORIENTAL SQUABBLE

A plea for open-mindedness on affairs as they develop in the orient was voiced Tuesday noon here by Dr. J. Winton Scott in an address to the Salem Kiwanis club, of which he is a member. Dr. Scott spent 12 years in China returning here only recently with his family to reestablish an American residence.

Something is to be said in behalf of the Japanese as well as of the Chinese, Scott declared, calling attention to the great annual increase in Japanese population which is forcing that nation to find other places than the homeland to colonize.

The speaker warned that the Chinese military power was potentially much greater than now due to her huge population and great natural resources. He said recent Japanese attacks had awakened the Chinese nation to the need of a larger army.

Motion pictures taken by Dr. Scott when Chinese and Japanese soldiers were fighting in Shanghai, were shown by the speaker during his address.
