

EVANS' INFANT SON IS CALLED BEYOND

MONMOUTH, Jan. 26 — The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Evans, born Jan. 17 at a Salem hospital died Tuesday night. The child had been doing well apparently, and with the mother was expected to arrive home this weekend. It was their first child, named Ronald Lee.

The Lamron, student publication of the Oregon Normal school, is now being published semi-monthly instead of weekly, as in former years. Miss Lois Bryant of Moro is editor; Verl White, Monmouth, business manager; and Jerry Acklen, Portland, advertising manager.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Elliott and family were hosts Sunday to a dinner party complimenting Mr. and Mrs. C. J. DeArmond and Imoleen and Carleta, and Mr. and Mrs. James Riddell and Jimmy. The birthdays of Mr. Elliott and Mr. DeArmond, which occur respectively on Jan. 20 and 18, were observed as a feature of the occasion.

HOLINESS SOCIETY HEARS REV. M'KAY

FALLS CITY, Jan. 26 — The Polk County Holiness association held its regular monthly all day meeting in the Methodist church Tuesday with a large crowd in attendance. The speaker for the morning was Rev. Elmer McKay, who is now holding revival meetings in the Salem Free Methodist church.

A basketball dinner was served at noon in the church dining room, to over 75 persons. A short business session and testimony meeting followed the dinner with the association's president, Mrs. E. A. Fogg, presiding. Rev. Poling was slated as the afternoon speaker, but due to illness was unable to fill the engagement and Mrs. E. A. Fogg filled the vacancy.

The next meeting place will be announced at a later date. Beginning Monday night, Jan. 30, Rev. A. C. Archer of Portland will hold services in the local Free Methodist church each night for a week.

Happy Hour Club Has Program and Social Gathering

WALDO HILLS, Jan. 26 — Dance lovers are looking forward to Saturday night, when a social hop will be given at the club house for members and friends at a nominal admission. Music will be furnished by Beryl Ottoway, violin; Fern Davenport, piano; Judy Currie, banjo and O. W. Olson, drums.

The Happy Hour club enjoyed a splendid program Friday night. The numbers were planned by Margaret Shockley, Ethel Knight and Dorothy Neuswanger. The program consisted of violin solos by Kenneth Towns and Jane Ogden, accompanied by Doris Towns; vocal duet, Fern Davenport and Beryl Ottoway; reading, Beattie Ray; piano solo, Fern Davenport; guitar solo, Melvin Kaser; piano duet, Geraldine Dickman and Marjorie McLaughlin.

GIRL TO HUMPHREYS
STAYTON, Jan. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Clair Humphreys of near Shaw are the parents of a daughter born here Monday morning at the home of his mother, Mrs. Pearl Humphreys. The baby has been named Betty Louise and is the first grandchild for the Humphreys and the J. F. Johnston family of Lyons.

COLLEGE STUDENTS APPEAR AT DAYTON

DATTON, Jan. 26.—Ten young people from Linfield college, McMinnville, presented a missionary service at the Dayton Baptist church under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U. Sunday night. Six of the group gave a missionary play and four presented musical numbers on mandolins.

TO ENTER HOSPITAL LAWWOOD, Jan. 26 — Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gaines and other friends and relatives spent Sunday with Mr. Joe Burton of Lacombe, who is leaving soon for a sanitarium at Salem. Burl Shanks returned Monday from a week's visit with relatives at Portland.

VICKS NEW ANTISEPTIC

Cuts Gargling Costs in HALF!

5 Million trial bottles supplied to druggists below cost... to prove its quality and economy

VICKS VORATONE Antiseptic will do everything that any oral antiseptic can and should do... at less than half the usual price of other quality antiseptics.

But the real proof of its quality—and economy—is actual use in your own home. To furnish this proof, at least expense to you, we produced 5 million bottles in a special trial size... a usual 25¢ value... priced, while they last, at only 10¢. Five million bottles shouldn't last long among America's 26 million families.

Best Vicks Could Produce
We make no extravagant claims for Vicks Antiseptic. It is simply the best antiseptic for its purpose Vicks Chemists could produce. And they were aided by the chemists, bacteriologists, and pharmacologists of our 16 allied organizations... in America, England, Germany.

For All the Usual Uses
You can use it for all the customary uses... in your customary way.

And it will cut your costs by more than half. Born in a depression year, Vicks Antiseptic is priced accordingly. Large 10-ounce bottle... a usual 75¢ value... only 35¢. As soon as you see it, you will appreciate how much it can save on your yearly antiseptic bills.

FOR BAD BREATH (HALITOSIS)

Vicks Antiseptic is an efficient and refreshing mouth-wash even when diluted with as much as 3 parts of water.

Regular Size... a 75¢ value... Only 35¢
