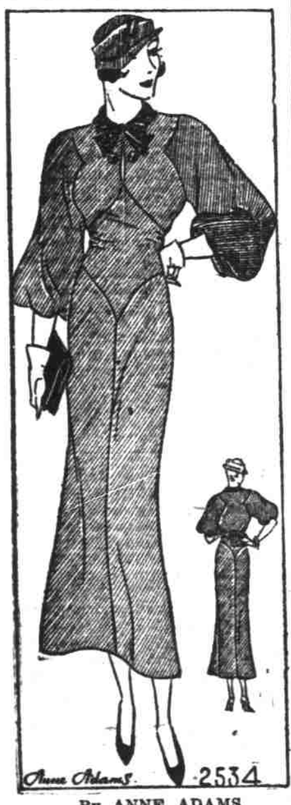
Pattern



By ANNE ADAMS

It's a love, it's a dream, it's as smart and chic as any Paris creation can be. The favorite moulded waistline is applied here to define the wide-at-the-top silhouette. You'll love the exciting puffed sleeves, clever bodice closing and tiny collarette of lace or contrast. As for fabric . . . any one of the newest shown for spring would be perfect.

Pattern 2534 may be ordered only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3⅝ yards 39 inch fabric and ⅝ yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new Spring Fashion book is ready. Containing 32 colorful pages of lovely Paris-inspired models for every spring need, this beautiful book shows how to be chic at every hour of the day. Every style is practical and easy to make. There are models for the larger figure and pages of delightful junior and kiddie styles.

Send for your copy. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents. Address all mail orders to The Statesman Pattern department, 243 West 17th street, New York city.

Piano Artist Will Play Monday

One of the few opportunities this season to hear an internationally famous artist comes Monday night, January 30, when Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Russian-American pianist, will be guest soloist with the Portland Symphony orchestra. He is Russian by birth and truly American by choice. The last step in his Americanization was taken in 1921, when Gabrilowitsch became a citizen of the United States.

He began studying music at the age of six, at ten entered the St. Petersburg Conservatory, and at 16 years had won the coveted Rubinstein prize. Gabrilowitsch was one of a delegation of students from the conservatory selected to place a wreath on the bier of the great composer, Tschaikowsky.

At the concert in Portland the evening of January 30, this musician will play Rachmaninoff's piano concerto in C minor. On the same program, the orchestra will present Brahms' Symphony No. 4.

Reservations for the coming concert may be made direct or by mail through the Symphony box office, J. K. Gill company, Portland, Oregon. The closing "popular" matinee Sunday concert, scheduled for February 5, will bring as guest artist Grace Castagnetta, young violinist of New York, who will make her first western tour next month.

Founder of Endeavor is Honored Here

Christian Endeavorers all over the world will unite in honoring the founder of this great youth movement this coming week, when the 52nd anniversary of the first society organized by Dr. Francis E. Clark at Portland, Me., will be commemorated.

It was at Williston Congregational church in that city that February 2, 1881, about 50 young people heard Clark explain his organization and signed a pledge substantially the same as that used at the present time.

From the six societies recorded in 1882, the organization has grown to over 80,000 with a total membership of about four million. Christian Endeavor is found in over 80 evangelical denominations, an indication of its adaptability.

There are about 50 societies in Marion county and a county organization headed by Milo Ross, which meets regularly and facilitates the work of the individual societies.

Among events being planned in celebration of C. E. week is a series of rallies at local churches Saturday night, February 4, culminating in a mass meeting the same night at the "Y" lobby for a program. A window display is also being worked out.

Women's Talk Is Slated For Church of God
