

Smart Benefit Bridge Tea Center of Society's Attention This Week

Benefit Bridge Tea at Hal D. Patton Home Tuesday Promises to be Brilliant Social Event of Winter

Interest Increases in Affair Which is Being Given in Support of Salem's Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra Organization

MUSIC has captured the fancy of Salem society. This is shown in support expressed for the Philharmonic Symphony orchestra benefit bridge tea which will be an event of Tuesday in the delightful environment of the stately Hal D. Patton home on Court street.

Tables have been reserved to allow for over 100 prominent matrons and maids of Salem to enjoy bridge Tuesday afternoon and there is still no way of checking on how many in addition will stop in for tea before 4 and 6 o'clock.

The smart affair for Tuesday afternoon is expected to be a memorable one in those worth remembering out of the year's social activities.

Cards will be in play at 2 o'clock. Guests it will be received by Mrs. Henry V. Compton. At the tea hour which begins at 4 o'clock, Mrs. C. A. Sprague and Mrs. T. A. Livesley will preside at the urns. Mrs. W. H. Lytle has charge of dining room arrangements.

This affair is the first of a series of social functions which are being planned by the executive board and directors of the association. Funds derived will be used for such worthy causes as supplying instruments for talented youth who are not financially able to secure their own.

There are those who live in rural sections who are not able to attend rehearsals because of lack of funds for transportation, and these are only a few of the financial problems which have to be met in order to give final support to the musical organization which under the brilliant direction of Jacques Gershkovitch is making such laudatory progress.

A musical library is also an aim toward which efforts are being made. Those who are supporting the affair for Tuesday afternoon as far announced include Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. Will Evans, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. E. T. Pierce, Mrs. Fritz Salde, Mrs. Cliffman, Mrs. H. G. Mason, Mrs. E. V.
