Interesting Facts

William McKinley was born 90 years ago today. He was assassinated soon after his election in 1900 when he defeated William Jennings Bryan, the democratic candidate for president. "Teddy" Roosevelt, then vice-president, became president.

There should be a thought of to-morrow in all that we do today. E. L. Baker, bookkeeper for Miller Mercantile company has been with the store for 36 years. He was with the former owners before Mil-ler's bought the store in 1920. F. J. Rogers, meat cutter at the Walker's market tells us that he has been cutting and selling meat for 35 years, since he was 12 years

A chicken will digest only about 40 per cent of mill run feed. Other feed will digest as follows skim milk (dried) 86.71 per cent, oats (hulled and rolled) 81.14 per cent, whole corn 75.42, peas 70.53 per cent and whole barley 67.83 per American Telephone and Borden, whose dividend meetings occur soon, were rather heavy. Telephone's loss was a point. American Can, Westinghouse, Case, Goodyear, Union Pacific, United Carbon and Santa Fe also sagged in the neighborhood of a point. Otherwise, losses tended to fractions. Southern Pacific and Canadian Pacific averaged half a point off. New York & Harlem, a member of the New York Central family, jumped 8 points.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 28 ces held their own on the Pacific coast during the past week, and gained a cent on the Seattle market which put the dealers buying price of fat there at 18 cents, it is stated in today's weekly review by the U.S.D.A. bureau of agriculture economics cooperating with the O.S.C. extension service. Eastern markets declined slightly during the week.
