Mrs. Julius Meier to Be Hostess on Wednesday

The weeks have been attractively sprinkled with events in compliment to visiting matrons and maids here in the capitol city during legislative sessions. These continue to feature social events and lend a smart note to society in general.

Most outstanding of such social events will be the "at home" for which Mrs. Julius L. Meier will be hostess at the Government apartment in the Royal Court Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock.

Guests will include the wives of senators and representatives of the legislature. Cards are out now for this attractive afternoon.

Another social afternoon for which visiting matrons were specially complimented was that for which Mrs. Keith Powell was hostess Thursday afternoon at her home in Woodburn.

Valentine Party Given by Dime Club

The Dime club was entertained Thursday night at the Carr Ramsey home on Garden road with Mrs. Ramsey and Miss Margaret Sims as hostesses. Mrs. Harold Hauk assisted at the supper hour.

The guest room was suggestive of St. Valentine and at the supper hour the same motif was predominant.

Mrs. Harold Hauk and Miss Helen Breitenstein were special guests for the evening. Cards were in play at five tables.

Silverton—Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Foss were the inspiration for a delightful surprise party and dinner given at Trinity church Tuesday night. The occasion was Rev. Foss' birthday. A dinner was planned for Rev. and Mrs. Foss at 7 o'clock. Over two hundred persons attended the dinner.

Mrs. M. G. Gunderson was toastmistress for the evening. L. M. Larson presented Rev. Foss with a purse as a token of appreciation from the friends. Mrs. Silas Torvand, in behalf of the women of the congregation, presented Mrs. Foss with a quilted coverlet. Little Joan Foss was also remembered with a gift.

Responding to the toastmistress' call were Rev. Jensen, L. H. Meyer, Alf O. Nelson and B. Tingstad. Rev. and Mrs. Rose responded. Musical numbers were furnished by Harold Haaland, soloist, and the Trinity male quartet, Harry Sannerud, Alfred Jensen, Victor Madsen and Harold Larson.

Special greetings were given to Mrs. Anna K. Jensen, who has been a member of Trinity congregation for almost 40 years, and whose birthday was also Tuesday. Mrs. Jensen was present at the dinner.

Salem Young People Win Acclaim

Of interest to many in Salem is the success which has met a group of youthful musicians of the city. Pianists and vocalists are included in the group the personnel of which includes Miss Flavia Downs, Miss Rachel Pemberton, Willma Bush, Jack Bush, Maynard McKinley, Wesley Ritchie and Laurence Orwig. The young artists are students of Mrs. Jessie Bush and Mrs. Roby Ratcliffe and are known as the Bush-Ratcliffe concert artists.

The past Saturday they appeared over the radio for the first time and were so successful that they have been asked back to sing for a half hour program February 19. While in Portland Saturday they also appeared for one number in the Lipman-Wolfe "revue" and were so well received that they have been asked to give the program for this revue February 18 and April 1. The program for these appearances will be ensemble and individual numbers.

Thursday night the young artists presented the program for the Elks club dinner at the Elks temple. They gave about a half-hour program, which met with splendid acclaim.

Mrs. W. F. Woodward Complimented

Mrs. John H. Gallagher entertained at her home Thursday afternoon complimenting Mrs. W. F. Woodward, who with Senator Woodward is here during the legislature.

Mrs. Gallagher invited a group of Salem matrons to meet Mrs. Woodward and served a delightful informal tea between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock.

Guests in compliment to the visiting matron included Mrs. Frank Spear, Mrs. John Rand, Mrs. W. Rand of Portland, Mrs. David Eason, Mrs. Henry Cornoyer, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Miss Litchfield and Mrs. Thomas Holman.

Cards and dancing were enjoyed by a group of one of the younger sets Monday evening following a dinner party complimenting Orville Varty. Winning scores for cards were held by Doris Drager and Pete Buren. Mrs. P. Phillippe and Miss Edna Miller assisted Mrs. Varty as hostess.

The interesting class of "art appreciation," a section of Salem Arts League, will meet Tuesday evening with Mrs. Gustav Ebsen at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Ebsen has an apartment in Kimball hall, Willamette university. Here the group meets each month with Anton Piers of Portland, well known artist, who has consented to give this extensive course in the appreciation of the fundamentals of art.

Mrs. John H. Hall, state president of the Children of the D. A. R., was a special guest for the regular meeting of the Wednesday night at the Hal D. Patton home with Miss Marie and Miss Jeanne Patton as hostesses. Mrs. H. T. Love, local regent, was also a guest.

Lincoln—J. D. Walling of Lincoln was honor guest at a party given by Mrs. Walling to which were bidden a group of old friends and neighbors to help him celebrate his 76th birthday anniversary, Saturday night.

Mrs. E. A. Rhoten Entertains
