

Crosscuts and Forecasts

EVENTS which drop as an aside from the daily round of social events hold more color than the regular ones. For instance the honor which has come to Viola Price Franklin, local poet, who has just received a copy of "The Spring Anthology of 1931", a book of verse selected from all over the world, and printed by the Mitre Press of England. It is said to be a compilation of representative verse from the world's living poets and in it is contained the poem "To Robert A. Booth" written by Mrs. Franklin for the dedication of the Circuit Rider statue now standing on the state house grounds. Mrs. Franklin is one of 17 poets from the United States whose work was chosen by the editor on the part of the editor.

Mrs. Franklin has also won Oregon distinction in the United States literary realm by a recent report of Oregon authors in "The Saturday Review of Literature."

Miss Josephine Albert, popular in society and musical circles of the city has also just had an honor come to her when she was recently initiated into the Mrs. H. Epsilon national honorary musical fraternity. Miss Albert was taken into the chapter in the University of Oregon.

Of interest is the recent organization in Salem of an alumnae group of the national women's social sorority, Kappa Delta. Miss Eloise White was made president. Among some interesting forecasts is the St. Valentine's dance for February 11 at Masonic temple. The dances of this club have been among the very smartest affairs of the winter season.

An event which is also being anticipated and plans are now being made for it is the Willamette Valley Spring flower show. The show will be held in June, the date not yet set, and will be an out-door affair as of last year. It is being planned on a larger scale for this year and classification lists are now available for those desiring to start their spring blooms for showing purposes. The show this year is contemplated for three days and there is now being planned an educational program to corrolate the garden showing. Mrs. H. W. Smith is chairman of this committee.

The work of the local Salem Arts League has been quietly going on over a period of months in an attempt to gain some sort of housing and display for art treasures in the city. Governorial clemency was asked for use of the corridors of the state house and was granted by Governor Meier and now the committee announced some fine pictures on display and also announces that the Oregon Artists organization has pledged cooperation in the work of creating an "Oregon Art Museum."

CONDUCTOR

William Van Hoogstraten, noted conductor who will direct the Portland Apollo club in its program here Thursday night at the Grand theatre.

Portland Apollo Club Will Present Its Salem Program Thursday Night

It is with keen anticipation that Salem music devotees are awaiting Thursday night at which time the Salem MacDowell club is presenting the Portland Apollo club and William Van Hoogstraten, director.

The chorus is a singing group of 40 voices, many of them representing outstanding vocalists of Portland. Mr. Van Hoogstraten needs no word of commendation nor recommendation. He is internationally known in musical circles and his work with the chorus is what could be expected from such a conductor.

Engagement Told Of Prominent Maid

MAJOR GENERAL AND MRS. GEORGE A. WHITE announces the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Diana White, to George Elmer Emigh, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Emigh of Carthage, N. Y.

Miss White is a member of the Phi Beta Phi sorority of Oregon State college and Mr. Emigh is a graduate of the same college, where he was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity. He is now coaching athletics in the Burns high school.

Miss White has been a popular member of Salem's younger social circles and will be extensively entertained before her marriage, which will come sometime in the near future.

Among the first things to be given for Miss White will be the formal tea which will be given by the Spinster club February 12 at the White residence, and at this time she will be specially feted together with visiting matrons and maids of the city. About 125 invitations have been extended for this affair, which will be between the hours of 6:30 and 8:30.

Eteri Class Meets At Bolton Home

The Eteri class of the First Baptist church was delightfully entertained Friday evening with a Valentine party by Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Gronquist and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bolton at the Bolton home. After the devotional and business meeting, games, carrying out the Valentine idea, and music were enjoyed. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roth, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Engdahl, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ramsayer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagers, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hutcherson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fromm, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Zobel, Mrs. E. A. Robey, Mrs. Britton Ross, Mrs. Milton Dierks, Mr. Frank Bolton, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Gronquist and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bolton.

P. L. E. and F. Club To Elect Officers

Members of the P. L. E. and F. club are meeting Tuesday afternoon in the club rooms of the Knights of Pythias hall at 248 North Commercial street. The important feature of the meeting will be election of officers for the coming year.

The committee in charge of the social hour includes Mrs. Frances Greenwood, Mrs. Azzel Hixson, Mrs. Della Schellberg, and Mrs. Lottie Hansen.

Mrs. Walter A. Denton, executive chairman of the Oregon State Federation of Music Clubs, Miss Frances Virginia Melton and Miss Elizabeth Johnson attended the regular luncheon and meeting in Portland Wednesday. Plans were made at this meeting for the Junior student and artists concert which will take place at the Benson hotel April 22. Several local musicians are entered in this contest.

Mrs. Asahel Fish was a hostess in compliment to her club Friday with a pretty bridge luncheon. Mrs. Carroll Ford assisted at the luncheon hour.

An attractive evening for a group of the younger set was that for which Miss Claire Hurley was hostess Friday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alton D. Hurley. Cards were in play for several hours with winning scores at the end of playing held by Miss Lucy Fisher and Miss Eleanor Tunsting. Miss Jean Hurley assisted in serving.

Mrs. Margaret Erp will be hostess to members of the Women's Home Missionary society of Jason Lee church, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in her home. Mrs. Ella Tyler will lead the devotions and Mrs. Maud Fallon will have charge of the lesson.

Legislature and Society

FORTY days and forty nights Salem is honored with many visitors in its midst while the deep and ponderous work of compiling and revising the laws which govern us is being done by the legislature. And while the legislators worry, gay society adds its balm of pretty functions, formal and informal, for both those engaged with the serious business of legislating and for those members of lawmakers' families who are in the city as guests.

The two outstanding social affairs of the session will be events of this week. The first is the "at home" for which cards are out to wives of legislators and a number of members of the legislature, and for which Mrs. Julius L. Meier will be hostess at the gubernatorial apartment in the Royal Court Wednesday afternoon.

The second is the tea for which Mrs. Fred Kiddle, wife of Senator Kiddle who is president of the senate, and Mrs. Earl Snell, wife of Representative Snell who is speaker of the house, will be hostesses Friday afternoon in the Oriental room of the Marion hotel between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock. Invitations are out to about 200 women of the legislative group.

Mrs. Henry W. Meyers will be an informal luncheon hostess to an intimate group of visiting matrons Wednesday at her home.

Mrs. Clara Patterson will entertain Thursday with tea at the industrial school for wives of legislators and women members of the legislature.

This past week a delightful evening was planned at the home of Mrs. George H. Hixson with members of the Salem Women's Press club hostess with Mrs. Hoss in entertaining visiting newspaper women and women members of the legislature.

Mrs. Adam Beede was one of those who came from her home in Forest Grove to attend the party and to remain over the week with Mr. Beede, reading clerk in the house. She returned to her home Saturday after being informally entertained with dinners and luncheons. Representative Hannah Martin will be a hostess today for a number of visitors and legislators.

Mrs. Allan Bynon of Portland has joined Senator Bynon for part of the week and has been informally entertained.

Mrs. R. M. Duncan, wife of Senator Duncan of Burns, is expected to arrive in Salem this weekend to remain for the remainder of the session. While here she will be a guest at the home of Representative and Mrs. Carl Abrams.

Mrs. Keith Powell was hostess to a group of prominent matrons Thursday, among whom were legislative visitors.

Mrs. John Gallagher entertained complimenting Mrs. W. P. Woodruff with an attractive tea Thursday.

Visiting Daughters of the American Revolution were specially invited guests for the Saturday meeting of Chemeketa chapter.

Mrs. George A. White was an informal luncheon hostess Friday afternoon complimenting visiting matrons.

Mrs. Hal Hoss and Mrs. Carl Abrams have both entertained legislative guests at dinner and luncheon the past week.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop entertained at dinner Friday night for Senator and Mrs. George Dunn of Ashland, Senator and Mrs. Joel Booth of Lebanon and Salem guests.

The Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae of Salem entertained at the home of Mrs. George H. Hixson Thursday night and invited as special guests visiting Thetas here for the session.

Miss Dorothy Alexander entertained for bridge one evening of the week and had as special guests several prominent maids visiting in the city.

And so the list of events go on with gaiety and sparkle to make the days pass only too quickly socially.

D. A. R. Members Hear Splendid Program

BRILLIANT program was given by the Chemawa Indian girls and Miss Gertrude Eakin for the benefit of the Daughters of the American Revolution meeting Saturday afternoon. The program was in charge of Mrs. W. H. Byrd, chairman of the Indian welfare committee.

Musical numbers as solos, duets, and sextets were presented with beauty and splendid sympathy. Miss Alice Judd accompanied and has directed the girls in their presentations. Several of the numbers were characteristic of Indian music and were unusual as well as beautiful.

Those who sang were Miss Alberta Goodbird, Miss Melba Arnoux, Miss Alice Bachman, Miss Donna May La Fonso, Miss Carolyn Mahone and Miss Marie LaFrance.

Miss Gertrude Eakin spoke on the general theme of the accomplishments of the Indian in national and civic affairs. She pointed out that in the last session of congress 14 members of Indian blood as well as Will Rogers and several other prominent men, not to mention the many less nationally known figures.

The meeting proved to be one of the most interesting of past months. Guests were invited who are D. A. R. members and are here during the legislative session.

Young Students Are Presented

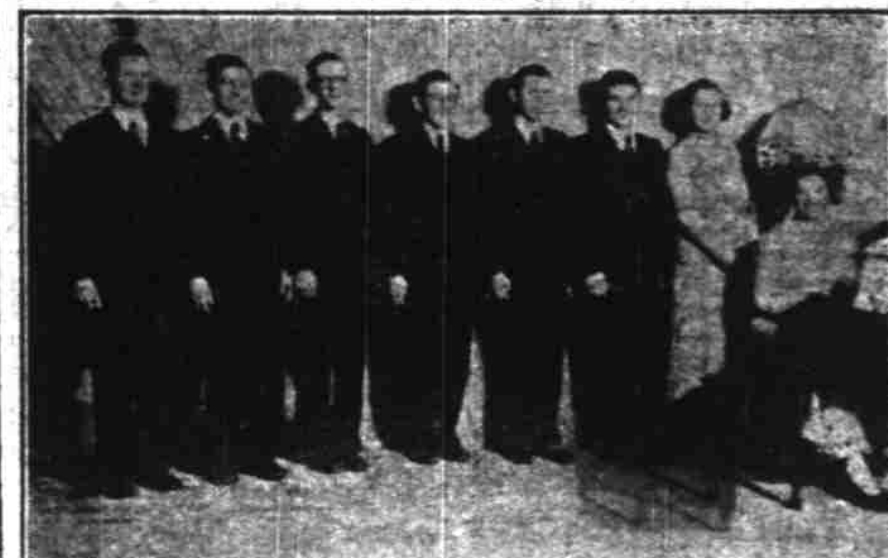

Two interesting events of the week were the teas given by Miss Lena May Dolson on Thursday and Saturday afternoon for the mothers of a group of her piano students. Delightful programs were presented for the pleasure of the guests.

Those playing Thursday were: Virginia Tomkins, Ruth Ostrin, Mary Prime, Marie White, Doris Schunke, Ora McDowell and Betty Anusson.

On Saturday those appearing were Estalyn Smith, Jean Newman, Jeanette Clark, Loretta Smith, Betty Anusson, Wilson Clark, Marie White, Effie Bair, Ada Mae Smith, Helen Schulz, Bonnie Belle Miller, Doris Schunke, and Neva Smith.

Mrs. Earl Andresen, Mrs. Frank Mathis and Mrs. Bert Pitcher were joint hostesses Saturday evening for an informal dance complimenting the birthdays of Mrs. Pitcher, Mr. Andresen and Mr. Mathis.

YOUNG ARTISTS

Second Philharmonic Group Plans Musical and Dramatic Benefit

A SECOND group from the Philharmonic orchestra society have made plans for an interesting musical and dramatic benefit to be given the latter part of February.

The presentations will be composed of vocal and instrumental numbers and these will be interspersed with several 3 minute plays. Miss Josephine Albert will be soloist and instrumental numbers will be given by a group of the orchestra personnel.

Mrs. Otto Paulus, a member of the symphony orchestra board, will select members of the cast and direct the plays. The plays will be announced and tryouts held at the chamber of commerce Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Any one interested is asked to appear for tryout.

The committee in charge of this benefit includes Mrs. Otto Paulus, Mrs. Elsa Ebsen, Mrs. Raymond Carl, Mrs. R. J. Maaske, Mrs. Edwin Tillson, Mrs. C. A. Kells, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. Mary Schultz, Mrs. Charles Spaulding, W. T. Jenks, Wesley Roeder, and Dr. L. G. Schmidt.

Branch Day of Prayer Observed Today

Of interest to Methodist church women of Salem is the announcement of the Columbia River Branch Day of Prayer which will be observed at Leslie Memorial church today between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock. Mrs. W. L. Lewis of Jason Lee church will preside.

Mrs. H. G. Humphrey of Jason Lee church will lead the devotions. Mrs. C. L. Dark of West Salem will be soloist; Mrs. B. Blatchford of the First Methodist church will speak on the needs of the Columbia River Branch; Mrs. R. A. Feenstra, Salem district president, will give an address.

All women of the four churches are urged to attend this meeting.

Much interest is being displayed in growing amount in the special section which has been organized in the Salem Arts League, and called the technocracy section under the leadership of John Clifford. It meets each Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the library. Any one desiring to attend these lecture-discussion groups is invited to do so.

Art Exhibit Opens Today in City Library; Works of Andrew Vincent

THE public is being cordially invited to attend the exhibit of oils and water colors by Andrew M. Vincent which opens this afternoon and will continue throughout the week until Saturday night.

A group of prominent Arts League members will be hostesses throughout the week. Those calling at the library will find someone ready to answer questions concerning the works of art on display.

Hostesses and the days on which they will serve include:

This afternoon, Miss Maude Covington and Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith; Monday afternoon, Mrs. J. M. Clifford and Mrs. Mary C. Fletcher; Monday evening, Mrs. Wm. F. Fargo and Mrs. Clifton Mudd.

Tuesday afternoon, Mary Ellen Minkewitz and Miss Gertrude Savage; Tuesday evening, Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Miss Ora McIntyre. Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin and Mrs. Minnie Schroede.
