

Anderson-Novak Clash Tonight; Pirates Meet Bearcats

SPECIAL HOLDS GET LIMELIGHT

Miller, Matched With Gus Kallio Following eve, Also Shows Here

Des Anderson's juggler whirl and Bobby Novak's figure-four scissor will be in competition on the armory mat tonight, and there will be plenty of interested fans there, anxious to see which of these specialized grips will prevail; and of course, it may well be that something entirely different will decide the outcome; both grapplers have other "pitch" that they keep hot.

These boys at any rate ought to open up and throw everything in the book at each other, for there are no special honors at stake; both are good men, close to the top but not quite there, and both are highly popular here even though they are not big pins. Neither has been noted for showing much in the way of rough stuff, and the bout ought to be clean.

Aside from the matter of the principals' acquaintance with the Salem crowd, and the time limit, the main event is no more a main event than the one-hour bout, which will bring together Bob Miller and Sailor Franz.

Miller, followers of the game will recognize instantly, is the same Bob Miller who on the following night will oppose Gus Kallio, practically undisputed world middleweight champion, at Portland the following night; thus there is at least a chance that Salem will see tonight the man who 24 hours later will wear the world crown.

Miller wrestled a five-round draw with Bob Myers in Portland recently, and when Kallio came along, they drew straws to see which would meet him Wednesday night.

Dayton Teams Split Double Tilt, Yamhill

DAYTON, Feb. 6.—The Dayton union high school boys basketball team lost to the Yamhill team here Friday night, 39 to 19. The Dayton girls' team defeated the Yamhill girls 13 to 7. The next game will be here with Lafayette Friday, February 10.

Albany Casaba Tossers Out For Blood, Encouraged Over Close Contest Last Friday

Having held the Willamette Bearcats to a six-point victory, the best showing that an Albany college quintet has ever made against Spec Keene's hoopers, Coach Lappenbusch and his Pirates from the Linn county seat will invade Salem tonight, intent on doing at least seven points better in the second game of the series, which will be played on Willamette's floor at 7:30 p. m.

It took the Pirates 30 minutes to find out last Friday night that they could cope with the Willamette team on even terms, but when they did realize it, they scored more points than the Bearcats did in the second half.

Since that game, Lappenbusch has revised his lineup still further and will have Woodring, who scored 10 points against the Bearcats Friday, at one forward and Folston, who started at center, at the other. Folston had exhibited high-scoring proclivities against Columbia but was held to one field goal by the Bearcats.

MT. ANGEL GIRLS DEFEAT TURNVEREIN

MT. ANGEL, Feb. 6.—One of the most exciting games played by the girls' basketball team this season was staged here at the academy gym Sunday between the Turnverein of Portland and the academy team. The local girls won 21 to 15 but had to fight hard for their victory. In the first quarter the visitors crept to within one point of the academy's score. Both teams showed fine teamwork.

Schwab and Schieder were high point players for the home team. In a previous game played in Portland the score had been tied 15 to 15.

Friday afternoon a game was played at St. Mary's gym between the Morogans and the Ramblers to decide the champion team of St. Mary's school. Brilliant floorwork by Little Red Mackie and fine shooting by Bourbonnais.

SALEM BEATEN AT CORVALLIS Kelley Leads Rally Which Cuts Down Lead Toward Last; Score 32-24

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 6.—(AP)—Corvallis high school avenged itself on an early season one-point defeat by turning back Salem high school, 32 to 24, in a return game here tonight. The visitors seemed bothered by a zone defense the Corvallis team used.

In the final period, after Corvallis had led virtually all the way, Kelly, Salem's sharpshooting forward, started flipping baskets from far out at the side with a regularity that had the home team worried. Thomas and Pickens aided in the rally. Three times the lead was cut to six points, but each time Merryman or Ruzek, who were high scorers for Corvallis, managed to slip in one to keep their team out of danger.

Salem opened the scoring with a free throw, but Kaiser came back with a double free throw and Torgerson added the first basket for Corvallis. Perrine sunk one and Kelly followed with two to give Salem the lead. Merryman leveled the tables with two sensational long shots to put Corvallis out in front as the first period ended.

The local boys gradually lengthened their lead to 14 to 9 at the half and 24 to 12 at the end of the third period. Although Kelly did not get started until the last period, his rapid fire work in the closing minutes made him high-point man for the game. Salem was handicapped by the absence of Wintermute, another high-scoring forward.

In a preliminary game, Corvallis' second team defeated the Salem second, 29 to 27, in a game that was on edge until the last quarter rally on the part of Salem was stopped just short of success.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—(AP)—It will be virtually an all-Warner aggregation of football coaches at Temple university this fall.

Glenn S. "Pop" Warner, who is to be head coach at Temple for the next five years, has selected J. Charles "Chuck" Winterburn and Fred Swan, two of his former pupils, for his principal assistants.

Heinie Miller, who was Temple head coach for eight seasons, is retained as an advisory coach and head scout.

Winterburn, who will coach the backfield men, has been with Warner for seven years at Stanford university, and Swan, who will look after the linemen, is now at the University of Wisconsin.

CURT COMMENTS

Marshall Hartley, clever Bearcat guard, ought to try out for an engagement as a juggler in Vancouver. He tossed a free throw over as Albany last Friday night; the ball rolled sedately around the hoop and stopped, neatly balanced on the back of the basket and the rod projecting back to the board. There doesn't seem to be any rule on the subject but Referee Ralph Coleman called it "no try" and gave Hartley two more, both of which he made.

We have claimed that Salem is the basketball center of Oregon, but maybe we had better include the center out at least to extend Polk county. There must be a basket in every barn over there—we haven't seen any, but apparently everybody plays the game and does it well. Perrydale and Bethel are perhaps the outstanding examples of small communities which excel in developing hoop stars. At that, the claims of Marion county's smaller communities are not to be sneezed at.

An overwhelming majority of Oregon's editors argued for repeal of the criminal syndicalism law, and an overwhelming majority of Oregon senators voted against the repeal. Just goes to show the difference between the editorial mind and the political mind, probably. We have a hunch the editorial mind is more independent, at least.

College of the Pacific, a school not much bigger than Willamette, signed up A. A. Stagg as football coach. Already there are suggestions that College of the Pacific will come right to the front in the gridiron sport and perhaps take some of the thunder away from the Coast conference schools. It will be interesting to see what happens. Stagg has strong scruples against subsidizing athletes, and it may be taken for granted, that whatever advancement is made down at the Stockton institution, will be due to Stagg's ability and the power of his name to draw athletes.

DALLAS WINS OUT IN HECTIC BATTLE

DALLAS, Feb. 6.—On the short end of a 14-0 score well along in the first half, the Dallas town basketball team staged a spectacular rally against Multnomah Gun club hoopers tonight and nosed under the wire a winner, 29 to 28, Vaughn scoring the winning field goal 15 seconds before the gun. Dallas was still three points to the bad 15 seconds before that.

The gun club boys blanked Dallas 11 to 0 in the first period and scored three more points before Dallas started, but Dallas pulled up to the short end of 18 at half time, and was just two points behind as the last quarter opened, 21-19.

WRANGLERS SPOIL PERRYDALE RECORD

Cadwell's Wranglers obtained revenge for a recent defeat they suffered at Perrydale, by vanquishing the Perrydale quintet on the Y. M. C. A. floor here Saturday night, 29 to 23. It was the first defeat of the season for the Perrydale boys, who are leading the western division of the Mid-Willamette Valley league.

The Wranglers started at a fast clip and gained an 18 to 10 lead at half time; Perrydale spurred in the second half and brought the score up to 21-11, with four minutes left. The Wranglers made four field goals

CHANGES IN MAILED OPPOSED BY CLUB

MACLEAY, Feb. 6.—The charter was draped and memorial services held for Norma Terwilliger at the grange meeting Friday night.

At the business session the state grange legislative program was endorsed and a resolution adopted approving the continuance of the present Macleay rural mail route, rather than delivery from Salem. It was voted to have a monthly social.

Committee appointments were announced; Mr. M. Magee, chairman of home economic committee; and Mrs. H. E. Martin, lecturer; general arrangements, Frank Bowers, Ed Tooker and Harry Phillips.

During the lecture hour the "Vaude Villians" entertained.

PARKER'S DEFEATS TURNER FIVE 48-41

Parker's sport goods hoopers ran into plenty of competition at Turner Monday night but brought home a victory, 48 to 41. They were on the long end of 25-17 at half time but Turner outscored the Salem quintet in the second half.

Nash of Parker's scored 30 points but he had a worthy rival in E. Gath, who looped the hoop for 16 points for Turner.

FARMERS SIGN UP FOR PEA RAISING

WOODBURN, Feb. 6.—That a number of farmers in this vicinity are willing to gamble on the prospect of raising peas for the market was materially expressed here Saturday afternoon when between 55 and 60 acres were signed up. In no instance did any individual sign for raising more than two acres of peas.

The Alderman telephone press are recommended as the kind to be raised. Although the Woodburn cooperative fruit growers' association has urged farmers to be cautious in this matter, officials have expressed the hope that some crop can be found that can be raised profitably in this locality, and the berry business is in desperate straits.

School Benefit is Money-Maker; Boys Split Double Tilt

LIBERTY, Feb. 6.—The school benefit dinner given at the hall Friday night brought in over $23 with returns still to come in. The school's first and second basketball teams played against the first and second teams here from Woodburn the same evening. The local first team boys defeated the visiting first team 23 to 12. Liberty lineup was Williams, C. L. Decatur, I. F. Hershfeld, C. Dashi, R. G. Gibson, I. G. Critser and Foster were substitutes.

The game between the second teams ended in a 5 to 8 tie and several minutes additional play gave the Woodburn boys the game 10 to 8. Local boys playing in this game were: Cleveland and Murhammer, forwards; Cogswell, center; Gunnell and Coleman, guards, and Cunningham, substitute.

DALLAS AND BETHEL WILL MEET TONIGHT

DALLAS, Feb. 6.—Dallas high will make an effort to even the count with Bethel, when the two teams meet here Tuesday night in their second game of the season. In the game at Bethel, the locals came out on the short end of a 31 to 30 score after leading most of the game.

Dallas seems to have started a real winning streak to end the season above the 500 mark and has won five of the last six games played. She has played 15 games and won seven for a percentage of 46.7.

As present Dallas' hopes of getting to the state tournament are much brighter than earlier in the season. In addition to leading the A league in Polk county, she upset Corvallis Friday to make the hope about even between these teams in the district.

"I'M READY NOW-- I'LL LICK ANY OF 'EM-- BIG SLOW FELLOWS LIKE SCHAAF ARE EASY FOR ME"-- Says Primo

ALTHOUGH Primo Carnera has improved since his fight with Sharkey in 1931, and that the Big Business Man from Boston would find him soft pickings if they met in a return bout.

"Sharkey will knock that big guy out in five rounds if they fight again," said this scribe, a veteran fight reporter and former sports editor.

I objected mildly, pointing out that Carnera took the best wallop of George Godfrey, Sharkey and King Levinsky—all good punchers—without showing any respite in his proclivities.

The nearest Primo has ever sniffed to a kayo was when Sharkey put him on the deck for nine in their Brooklyn scrap, and don't let anybody tell you that Carnera was badly hurt by that particular wallop. He was slightly off balance when the Shark smacked him with a terrific left hook, which caused Primo to hit the canvas with a steady refusal to offer to a fight Carnera.

All these arguments failed to convince the first writer, however, who continued to hold that Carnera was merely a ring freak with no real fight ability.

Whenever the proposed scrap between Carnera and Schaaf takes place it should settle once and for all the debate over the giant's pugilistic prowess.
