5:30—Ila Hofer.
5:45—Maxine Ross.

Woodburn—Friends of Mrs. Hiram Overton and Mrs. O. F. Larsen helped them celebrate their birthdays at the home of Mrs. Overton Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Larsen had prepared an interesting program, which included reading of a poem written by Mrs. Maude Mochel.

Mrs. S. W. Maupin presided at the tea urn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten and Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp were hosts Wednesday night in compliment to members of their dinner club and to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brown as special guests.

Guests were received at the W. W. Moore home where dinner was served and following the dinner hour cards were in play.

FINANCE-FOOTLIGHTS ROMANCE

Gilbert Kahn, eldest son of Otto Kahn, Wall Street financier and art patron, is shown with his bride, Sarah Jane Heliker, lovely Broadway showgirl, soon after their marriage at the palatial Kahn residence in New York. This is Kahn's second marital venture. His first marriage, to Anne Whelan, cigar fortune heiress, was abrogated in Reno last month. The new Mrs. Kahn has retired from the stage.

CHARLES BREWSTER TO TALK POULTRY

SILVERTON, Feb. 8.—Charles Brewster of the Hodgson-Brewster Feed company of Portland will be guest speaker at the Thursday night vocational poultry class at the Smith-Hughes building at Silvertown, George Israelson reported on return from Portland Tuesday night. Mr. Brewster is well known at Silvertown, having been judge at the local poultry show a number of times.

The poultry classes, arranged chiefly for adults, have been exceptionally popular this winter and as many as 22 people have attended the class, held each Thursday at 7:30 p. m. Anyone interested is invited to come Thursday and hear Mr. Brewster speak, announces Warren Crabtree, local Smith-Hughes instructor.

Humphrey Speaks For Brotherhood On Work of Home

TURNER, Feb. 8.—The Methodist Men's Brotherhood had good attendance Monday night at their monthly meeting. Rev. H. C. Humphrey of Jason Lee Methodist church, Salem, spoke on "The Christian Home, Its Influence and Responsibilities." He showed the handicap of the young who do not have the proper home influence.

The program included numbers by the harmonica band; duet, Mrs. I. Hadley and Alvin Garner; duet, Mrs. Anna Kunkle and daughter Joyce; duet, Ivan Hadley and son Lowell; devotions led by Alvin Garner.

It was planned to prepare a special Easter feature, with F. C. Gunning, H. S. Bond and J. L. Webb as the committee in charge. Ernest Robinson and Walter Peterson were named to assist the pastor.

Bridge, Mrs. William Teathwright of Yakima; Mr. and Mrs. Irl Carl, Mrs. Marshall Dana, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Carl, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur M. Carl all of Portland.

Mrs. Price and Mrs. Hartig will spend the week with their sister, Mrs. Ellen Carl, assisting at the Carl home where Mrs. George Lefler, Mrs. Ida Garland, and Mrs. Waldo Grogan.

Mrs. W. G. Stacey, Jr., was special guest for the delightful bridge luncheon with which Mrs. Karl Becke entertained her club at her home Monday afternoon.

ASTOR SCION AND BRIDE-TO-BE

Despite denials of the lady's family, reports persist that Donna Cristiana Torlonia, daughter of Prince Torlonia of Rome, and John Jacob Astor Jr., (both above) scion of America's famous financial family, will wed in April. Young Astor will come into an $3,000,000 inheritance next August when he will have attained the age of 21. His father, Colonel John Jacob Astor, perished in the Titanic disaster. Donna Torlonia is 20. She is an outdoor girl, dividing her time between New York, Palm Beach, Fla., and fashionable foreign resorts.

Health Clinic Has Big Day, With 51 Children Reporting

AURORA, Feb. 8.—Fifty-one children presented themselves at the health center Thursday for examination; 34 of the number were from the Aurora district, 13 from the Butterfield district and 14 from Donald. Half of the Aurora children were turned away but will return for examination March 2 when an all-day clinic will be held beginning at 9:30.

Of the 51 children examined nine were found to be without physical defects. Toxoid immunization will be completed and vaccinations will be given at the March clinic. Dr. Fred Burk of Hubbard, examining physician, was assisted by Miss Neva Lynde, county health nurse, and the local staff, Mrs. A. L. Strickland, Mrs. H. D. Evans, Mrs. P. J. Hunt, Mrs. P. O. Ottaway, Mrs. M. H. Evans, Mrs. W. P. Wurster, Mrs. John Kraus and Mrs. James Ozie. Clinics will be held monthly.

Grain Re seeding Already Under Way By Local Farmers

HAYESVILLE, Feb. 8.—The farmers are taking advantage of the nice weather to re-seed the grain that was frozen. As yet it is too early to tell much about the strawberries, but it is thought they are pretty badly damaged. A new circulating library has been established in the school. It is the wish of the teachers that more patrons would take advantage of the privilege.

WIN CARD PRIZES FAIRFIELD, Feb. 8.—Prizes at a benefit card party and dance given by the H. E. club Saturday were won by Mrs. Short and Frank Felton, high score, and Miss Vera Short and Frank Mahoney, low score.

MRS. LAIS VERRY ILL HUBBARD, Feb. 8.—Mrs. D. Laie is very ill with a heart attack at her home in Hubbard.

SECOND SOWING OF WHEAT IS FROZEN

PRATUM, Feb. 8.—Miss Dorcy Ross and Miss Jeanette Scott will give a violin and piano recital at the Methodist church Friday night.

Grain which was reseeded several weeks ago is sprouted and was probably killed during Tuesday morning's cold weather, which froze the ground deep enough to kill at least part of the newly-sown wheat. It will probably be necessary to sow a third time in order to get a crop.

High School Group At Monmouth Gets School Speech Too

MONMOUTH, Feb. 8.—Major G. H. Schoof, chautauqua lecturer and world traveler, appeared Monday morning at Monmouth high school, speaking on his travels in foreign lands, and displaying an interesting collection of furs, weapons, implements and costumes gathered in far corners of the earth.

Threatened with tuberculosis when a boy in Germany, the major said he made his way to America and across the continent to a sheep ranch in Montana, where in the high, dry atmosphere he recovered his health. He later went into Canada and became a sergeant major of Alberta mounted rangers and then to Africa and Mexico.

WEDS BANKER

Almost as elusive as her distinguished husband, Mrs. Montagu Norman, wife of the Governor of the Bank of England, is pictured in a London street soon after her surprise marriage to the powerful banker Mrs. Norman is the former Mrs. Priscilla Cecilia Maria Worthington, granddaughter of the Earl of Abingdon. She is 33, while her husband is 61.

ting aside February 14, 1934, for a statewide observance of Oregon's 75th anniversary as a state. The resolution provides that the official ceremonies take place at Medford and Jacksonville inasmuch as these communities have already started plans for the diamond anniversary of the state and have issued thousands of invitations to the affair.

Kelty Says Mills In Klamath Will Have Larger Run

Eugene Kelty, publisher of the Klamath Falls News and Herald, spent Wednesday in Salem, looking in at the legislature and greeting friends. This is the quiet season in Klamath basin, but Kelty states that lumber mills expect a larger run of business this year than last. Relief work is well organized and the community will weather the winter all right. Mayor Mahoney is now functioning as mayor and the excitement that attended his election has quieted down.
